Chapter 352

VIRGINIA'S PURITANS

Kings

Give kings enough power and they will almost certainly become tyrants. They will act just as the out-Laws and criminals they condemn. Being a king is a job having unlimited power. It's the "power" that does it. With few exceptions, a perfectly nice person who gets his hands on the power of a king changes from a Jekylle into a Hyde. The WORD says that to have a king is to rebel against God:

John Knox

Father of Scottish Presbyterianism and enemy of Episcopal kins.

This picture contains a clue that in its day separated Puritan & Presbyterians from Episcopal kings and their followers.

He will take your sons for his chariots and horsemen; he will appoint captains over thousands and fifties and set them to work making instruments of war; he will take your daughters; he will take your fields, vineyards and oliveyards; he will take your vineyards and give them to his own servants; he will take your young men and make them work for him; he will take your sheep: and you will be his servants. (1 Sa 8:5- 22)

These things kings do because they are kings and they can - it's their job description. They are unLawful. They violate the WORD which is our GOD. Even the best of kings do these things. David, beloved by God, when he became king he also became a murderer. And Solomon, in all his glory, when he became king he married strangers.

The Reformers said that the ruler who does not follow God's Commandments should be disobeyed, but, its the rare king that does not disobey God's Commandments.¹ That puts the Faithful in perpetual opposition to many of the acts of their rulers.

Puritan

War Of The Gods

To manufacture the authority needed to do the unLawful things that kings do, kings must first suppress the WORD that condemns their Lawless acts.

When one understands this, he understands that it was no accident that Jesus, the WORD made flesh, had to be crucified.

It was predictable that those who followed the WORD were hunted down and fed to the lions.

It is natural that the Roman Empire's later day business-operation & church burnt its WORD-quoting critics, and it is natural that the courts appointed by today's King George of La Cesspool Grande are banishing the WORD from the land and threatening its followers. It is us or them.

Kings MUST suppress the WORD to rule.

If the WORD is not suppressed - in time, it will overthrow Lawless kings, divide the land into a Self-Sufficient Farm System where those who are Lawfully appointed kings and priests can rule and harm no one but themselves. Affairs outside their individual kingdoms are to be handled by temporary managers selected by proper presbyterian 10s and 100s.

Britain's Kings

All Saxons worldwide are either descended from or are kin in some degree to Britain's Stewart kings. These people of our own blood are perfect studies of the duplicity and evil of kings.

The King of Rome claimed that he held the land of Great Britain in trust for its people. His Catholic Church that he established in Great Britain agreed.

HENRY VIII was a good Catholic. However, he tired of collecting tribute for Rome and splitting it with them. Using divorce as an excuse, he took over the Roman Pontiff's business operation in Britain, with its large land and business holdings, made himself its head, and appointed his own business and religious leaders. He called his operation "The Established Church Of England." His supporters, whom he *enfiefed*¹ the confiscated Roman lands, found it in their interests to be very loyal members of his Church.

¹ Enfief: To entrust the management of a property or franchise to a tenant in return for agreed upon services.

Following are some of the things done by the kings who followed Henry. They did the things they did because they could - they had the power to do them:

MARY I (1516-1558), Henry's daughter, also known as "Bloody Mary," was Queen of England.

England's Catholic Church land had been divided among Henry's supporters and held en fief to him. Most of them felt that the land they now held was now held en fief to Mary, Henry's heir, who was now head of England's Established Protestant Church.

But NO! With kings things are never simple. The matter was complicated because Mary was fanatically loyal to the Catholic Church.

The convoluted result of Mary's weathervane religious loyalties was that her enemies were 1) Her own Protestant "Established Church Of England" subjects who had taken possession of Catholic Church lands, and, 2) "Puritan" Protestants who wanted nothing to do with Mary's Catholic Church whose corrupt practices made possible Henry's original defection.

On advice from the Catholic Church, Mary burned "Protestants" by the hundreds - many belonging to her own Established Church and most of them Puritans. The beliefs held by Puritans made them the most dangerous.

As Mary disposed of Protestant land holders and Puritans - the rest of England became fearful of either being burned because of their opposition to Catholicism or disposed because the land they held once claimed by the Catholic Church. Mary was deposed.

JAMES VI - King of Scotland (1566-1625), was the only son of Mary, Queen of Scots, a cousin of England's "Bloody Mary."

In Scotland, James was powerless. He was surrounded by strong nobles who had the power. He swore to them that he was a good Presbyterian and supporter of the Covenant. This meant that he was a Scottish equivalent of an English "Puritan."

1587 - He wrote to the Pope that he would be a good Roman Catholic. He was fishing for possible future help from one or more of the Pope's loyal Catholic kings to gain the English throne if he ever needed the help.

James VI of Scotland and I of England

1603 - James VI of Scotland, the good Presbyterian and potential "good Roman Catholic" was made JAMES I, King of England - on condition that he renounce Presbyterianism and become an Episcopalian and head of England's "Established Church."

That was fine with him. From being a Presbyterian with Catholic sympathies, to becoming leader of the Episcopal Protestant Church of England that despised both Catholics and Presbyterians was all in a day's work. This is what kings do - read the newspapers.

1604 - The Encyclopedia Britannica notes that in 1604 this head of the "Established Church" was "rude to Puritans and polite to Catholics."²

Ever mindful of the changing future, he married his daughter Elizabeth to the Protestant German Elector Palatine and sought to marry his son to a Catholic infanta of Spain. How's that for playing both sides at the same time?

Bartholomew Hoskins

My immigrant Hoskins ancestor, Bartholomew, was a lad of 15 when he landed at Jamestown in 1615. We were always told in the family that his brother was a Protestant preacher to a Catholic king. But really, what was James I. Presbyterian, Episcopalian, or Catholic?

Suppose your family were Protestant, holding his lands enfief from the king. If you were Protestant and the king were Protestant you stood a good chance of continuing to hold your land. However, what would happen if James I, the Catholic-sympathizing former Presbyterian and present head of the Episcopal Established Church - should actually turn out to be an agent of the Catholic Church Empire, or, a Church of England Protestant who hated Puritans? What then? Would there be a repeat of Bloody Mary's clearing the land of "rebels"?

Just in case, the family sent young Bartholomew to Virginia so that there would be a survivor in case either a Catholic or a Protestant Established Church began a purge of Puritans.

The fact is that the Hoskins and many other Virginia families were Puritans and in Virginia before the Plymouth Colony of Massachusetts was ever heard of.

PURITANS IN VIRGINIA

The Virginia Magazine Of History and Biography, Vol, 109, No 1, 2001, p.7 contains an article on Virginia's Puritans.

Trustees of the Berkeley Will Trust

Sir William Berkeley Royal Gov of Virginia

Personable, affable, nice. Berkeley, as representative of the Protestant Established Church of England, was the nemesis of Virginia's Puritans. Governor (1642-52; 1660-77).

Given the lucrative monopoly of Indian trade he tolerated Indian massacres which led to Virginia's militias defending themselves - thereby destroying Berkeley's lucrative trade. He declared them to be in revolt and hanged many.

"Puritans in the early 17th century could be found scattered throughout the Church of England, and most thought themselves to be good Anglicans, only wishing to rid the church of pre-Reformation attributes, including its episcopal structure and its many formal prayers and litanies from the Book of Common Prayer. ...

Puritans are too frequently described in terms of what they were against. What is most pertinent, however, is what they stood for: the intense and evangelical advocacy of the Christian obligation to know and serve God. Puritans were first and foremost devoted Christians who looked with distress on the condition of their church and who convened together in groups of self-professed godly souls. Rather than advocate a split with the Church of England, most Puritans supported its reform from within."

From its earliest beginnings, Puritans preached in Virginia and from its earliest beginnings certain members of the Episcopal Church were critical of them.

In the early 1620s, Puritan settlements south of the James flourished. Edward Bennett, a wealthy London Puritan, brought over 200 settlers. By the late 1630s he had 10,000 acres. Private homes were the likely sites of the earliest services. Religious services were held in Lower Norfolk as early as 1637, and probably before. The very large salary of £100 was offered to a young Puritan minister named Thomas Harrison.

Letters written by Puritans from that time speak of Virginia as being "swoln so great with the poison of sin, as it is become a monster and ready to burst." And, the colony was marked by "much corruption and false worship, and nothing done as it should bee."

Unfortunately for Virginia Puritans, Governor William Berkeley was sent to Virginia to assume the governorship in 1642. He arrived in Virginia a "proud young cavalier." He had been educated at Oxford and spent a decade at the royal court. His loyalty to Charles I and the Established Episcopal Church was unquestionable.

Berkeley had been ordered to oppose any and all religious "nonconformity" within the colony. The royal instructions had 31 parts and the first part was devoted to the matter of church conformity.

Any minister who refused the oath of allegiance to the Established Church of England was to be expelled. He strictly enforced the royal edicts.

Episcopal Church policy was to incorporate Virginia's Indians as subjects of the king. On the other hand, Puritans tended to support the Biblical injunction that strangers were not to live in the land "lest ye learn their ways", and, "The Stranger who approaches the altar shall be put to death."

Failure to enforce God's Laws resulted in the great Indian "Massacre of 1622" and the "Massacre Of 1644" when the Indians under the leadership of Opechancanough rose from Richmond's fall line to the Outer Banks and threatened to wipe out the Virginia Colony.

CHARLES I (1600 - 1649)

1625, Mar 27 - Charles I succeeded to the throne on the death of his father, James I. He immediately commanded that prosecution of Catholics stop - but, at the same time, he enforced Parliament's laws against Catholics. His portrait reveals the god he followed.

Depending on the party with whom he was dealing, Charles was either Presbyterian or Church of England, and was known among his confidants as secretly a Catholic. Like today's King George of DC, almost nothing he said could be believed. He plotted with the French and Irish Catholics to send their armies to Protestant England to subdue a rebellious Puritan Parliament that was fed up with his Machiavellian antics. In 1647, he was arrested by Parliament's army and in 1649 beheaded. His last utterance on the scaffold was the mysterious word, "Remember!"

"Remember"

Here is a riddle. George Hume of Wedderburn, along with most of Scotland, rose against the English in 1715. He was captured and sentenced to be hanged, drawn and quartered. This was more than a half-century after Charles I was beheaded.

On his arms is same mysterious "Remember."

George Hume Of Wedderburn

George Hume the Younger of Virginia

This portrait is of his son, George Hume, Jr who was banished to Virginia..

Note the difference. You can tell from the pictures which one followed the Episcopal kings and which flaunted his independence. Although both were Protestants fighting for a Catholic Pretender against a Protestant king who was the head of the Established Church of England. How's that for politics?

The chaos of Scotland's and England's Stewart kings came to a head with James II.

JAMES II - (1633-1701) The 2nd surviving son of Charles I was a libertine.

James II

1673 - Parliament retaliated and passed the Test Act. This barred belief in "transsubstantiation." The result was that it absolutely barred Catholics, including James II, from being government officials, and it also barred non-conformist Puritans who were treated as badly or even worse than Catholics.

Parliament then gave the throne to Mary II, eldest daughter of James II, and her husband William of Orange - a fiery Protestant from the continent who was expected to keep his wife in line.

James went to Ireland and raised an Irish Catholic army and combined it with a French Catholic army. James was a skillful soldier.

With the English army under William of Orange were Dutch and Scottish components.

The Picture Lesson Solved

Buddhist holy men shaved their heads and Egyptian priests shaved their entire bodies. Hindu holy men allow their hair to grow long. The WORD decrees that followers of the Way neither shave their heads nor allow their hair to grow long:

"Neither shall they shave their heads nor suffer their locks to grow long; they shall only poll their heads." Ez 44:22; "Doth not even nature teach you, that, if a man have long hair, it is a shame unto him? But if a woman have long hair, it is a glory to her." I Cor 11:14-15

Appointing their own priests to bless whatever they did - kings and those holding enfief to them grew their hair long. Those obeying the WORD refused and continued to cut their hair short and were thus seen as rebels to royal authority.

Note the portrait of John Knox on the front page and George Hume Jr. Both portraits show hair cut relatively short - short hair, the public signature of the Presbyterian and the Puritan. George Sr. held his land enfief from kings and to appease them wore his hair long. George Jr. lost his land in Scotland, had his own small farm-kingdom in remote Northern Virginia. Not having to appease anyone he cut his hair Presbyterian-Puritan style.

Hair Style Change

With the victory of the Church of England over both the Catholic episcopacy and the protestant Puritan presbytery, there was no need for a public hair display to force one to reveal his religious loyalties. By the time of the American Revolution, hair style of both Americans and British grew progressively shorter to keep up with changing public opinion.

Today, the short hairstyle as dictated by the WORD is worn universally, but tyrants use it to deceive.

Franklin D. Roosevelt

FRANKLIN D.

Today, long hair is a public announcement that the wearer follows a strange god that allows such things. But, "polled" hair no longer reveals the Puritan. Evil men have learned to cut their hair nowadays to win public confidence. Note what short haired Franklin D. says about himself:

"Roosevelt's aide, Thomas Corcoran, volunteered that the difference between him (Franklin Delano Roosevelt) and his cousin Theodore Roosevelt was that "you never fake," The president replied, "Oh, but Tommy, at times I do, I do!" Roosevelt told Corcoran that a president lacked the time to be true in all ways. As Corcoran recalled Roosevelt's words: "he must deceive, misrepresent, leave false impressions ... and trust to charm, loyalty and the result to make up for it. ... A great man cannot be a good man." ("Champion of Freedom", by Conrad Black, 1,280 pp NY: Public Affairs. $39.95. NY Times Book Review, p. 10, Dec 21, 2003.

Recent observations show that not only do kings lie and deceive as they have always done, but these very same icons of the people merely mouth words and policy placed in their mouth by those who put them in office:

"For a long time I felt that FDR had developed many thoughts and ideas that were his own to benefit this country, the United States. But, he didn't. Most of his thoughts, his political ammunition, as it were, were carefully manufactured for him in advance by the Council on Foreign Relations." (Curtis Dall, FDR's son-in-law as quoted in his book, "My Exploited Father-in-Law")

Identifying The Speaker's God

The King of DC has pitted Christendom against Islam. Like it or not - this contest will ensure that tomorrow's conversations will be about religion.

It won't all be about how bad Islam is. It will have to include talk about how good the Christian religion is in comparison. This will be hard for today's kings to handle.

Kings can only hold their thrones, tax, promote monopolies, sodomy and miscegenation by suppressing the WORD. The enemy of this Lawlessness is the eternally irrepressible Puritan who is today called "Identity" and "racist" - euphemisms for "Puritan." In the absence of long hair identification - the king knows him, as always, by his defence of the WORD. The longer the war continues, the harder it will be to suppress the WORD, which will ultimately destroy both the king and his court.

The Statement

There is something each of us can do that continues to cause the king and his followers no end of discomfort. Ask if they want to live under God's Laws?

The answer is always "Yes."

Then, remark that since he feels that way, and since God commands that sodomites be put to death, when does he propose to do that? Also, since usury is forbidden, doesn't he think it's time to nationalize the usury banks of the King of Rome and the King of England? Be sure to quote the Law involved!

If he says that "God's Commandments have been done away", reply that the WORD says that HE changes not. Who is this god of his who has no laws or commandments for his people to follow?

Conclusion

Those who follow the WORD and are opposed to sodomy, fornication, taxes, monopolies, usury, miscegenation, and kings - will be called "racist", "white supremacist" and "rebel" - all establishment words meaning "Puritan."

His Royal Highness has already been warned that Puritans again walk the land and must be dealt with. History teaches that they will never stop talking about God's Commandments until "God's will be done on earth."

Someone really should tell the Royal Establishment that the shade of Charles I stands ready to advise them.

LETTER FROM S. AFRICA By K.J.

The HNP held a most successful 34th birthday. Some talented young people performed classical music. A flag parade took place with our earlier flags being presented by the youth. Dr. Rev Stavast took Psalm 33 as the text.

Mr. Willie Marais speech was "Pray, Work and Faith." He also used the words "Everything will come right." He emphasized the Afrikaner's faith and stressed the conditions needed; to pray, to work and to persevere in faith. "Before we can fight we must have God's blessing."

One Dutch Reformed Church minister considers himself a state priest. He wants our people to confess the sin of separation committed by our forefathers. The faithful still teach God's Command to separate from other peoples.

The treason trial finally started and their star witness had a mask in front of his face. The HNP office seems to know who he is. He has given information to the police since 1994. He acknowledged that he did most of the planning and tried to involve as many people and organizations as he could for the ANC. Unfortunately, the judge is on the ANC's side.

The Vaal and Hartebeespoort dams are both infected with cholera through raw waste because of broken pipes and poor management. These dams supply water to a huge area and the implications are enormous.

Electric and telephone lines are often out. Lamps and candles must always be at hand.

Thank you for the huge donation of $2421 month before last to the Loerie Youth Centre. Betzy was most grateful and will write soon.

The moneygram people now want your physical address. Every month something else.

An elderly lady brought birthday cake for the children.

One family's situation has improved since the father is working again and their two children might go back to their parents, making room for others. There are many children in need that require a place. I pity white children who land in a place with black children. It must be sheer hell.

A coloured communist, McBride, who killed three white women with a bomb is now head of police on the East Rand. The black police are bad.

Hans is better. His doctor served in the Bush/Border war and saw many of those kinds of gunshot wounds. Sometimes they operated under a tree in an emergency.

I will have to start house-cleaning as soon as we have rain. Areas with no more water or food have to shoot their cattle. That hurts. Black farmers receive government help but not whites who actually produce the food. What I find strange is that people in cities don't seem to realize that a major crisis is on the way.

Before I forget, Rina told this to Hans. Early this year when contributions via Aida Parker dried up, they prayed for help and God heard them. What a wonderful thing - to have a God to go to in time of trouble.

Our best wishes, Hans and Johanna

UNFILTERED NEWS

DUTCH TOLERANCE wears thin as liberalism experiment fails. In Rotterdam, there are more calls for law and order and a growing tendency to blame crime on ethnic minorities. Mayors of several Dutch cities have begun to single out groups from N. Africa and the Caribbean. They no longer show a blind eye to marijuana, drugs and prostitution.

Amsterdam is working to shut sodomite bars. Urinating in the canals or against elegant 17th-Century facades will be punished by hefty fines. All-night brothels will be limited to reduce harassment from brawling Britons who drink through the night before going home. Three TV channels said they would stop showing explicit sex. (Story in Citizen, SA, Sept 9, 2003)

HATE CRIME?: The two black DC snipers killed 15 and wounded seven. According to IBD, p.19, Dec 22, 2003, "The 'mission', said one of the many mental-health experts who held jailhouse interviews with Malvo, 'was to incite a racial revolution over the continued oppression of black people' and to set up a utopian black colony in Canada based on racial and social justice.'"

Cartel media opposed African colonization in the early 1800s because it would remove cheap labor. It cannot be expected to sympathize with blacks who again wish to remove themselves from the system. That's why we've heard nothing about the "reason" for the killings. Nothing's changed.

LINCOLN: "In his memoirs Sherman wrote that when he met with Lincoln after his March to the Sea was completed, Lincoln was eager to hear the stories of how thousands of Southern civilians, mostly women, children, and old men, were plundered, sometimes murdered, and rendered homeless. Lincoln, according to Sherman, laughed almost uncontrollably at the stories." (Author Tom DiLorenzo as quoted by Nelson Waller in The Nationalist Times, p.10, Jan 2004)

RKH: Lincoln acted in a similar manner when personally witnessing the wanton killing of livestock, looting, and burning at my Great-grandfather's home at Kelly's Ford. On their way down the Valley the invaders looted and burned houses after putting barefoot children and women out in the snow, refusing to allow them to go back for shoes and coats. Lincoln represented this same Lawless monster that invaded and afflicted our kinsmen in S. Africa and Germany, and is now loose in the mid-east. It is policy. The puppet leaders first nationalize and later privatize. "Terror" gives victims a choice. Their property or their lives.

Chapter 353

ROCKING CRADLE
Tobacco, Slaves
Bishops & Jim Crow

The Rocking Cradle

"An occurrence, partaking of the marvelous, created a good deal of excitement in the town. It took place in the spring of 1839, in the one-story brick house on Jackson Street, between Eleventh and Twelfth, the residence of The Rev. Dr. William A. Smith. Dr. Smith had borrowed a cradle from The Rev. John Early in which to put his new-born baby. One morning, as he was at breakfast, his wife, who was in bed in the next room, called to him and said: 'Dr. Smith, come here and look at this cradle, how it rocks.' He arose and came to the door, and, to his amazement, the cradle was rocking

House Where The Cradle Rocked vigorously, and there was no one near it. Dr. Smith moved the cradle from near the fireplace into the middle of the floor, and said: 'Now Geoffrey' (he called the Devil by that name), 'rock!' and he did. The news of it spread through the town like wildfire and hundreds closed their places of business and went to see the 'rocking cradle.' Various explanations were given, but none seemed satisfactory to the people." - W. Asbury Christian, Lynchburg And Its People, (Lynchburg, 1900)

The Cradle

The house below is Bishop Early's house on Peakland Place near where I lived as a boy. It belonged to Mr. John Early Jackson. Mr. Jackson was a genius who worked with the Atomic Energy Commission during WWII. His boy, George, was my friend. We grew up together. The window closest was his room. He used to climb out at night and we roamed the neighborhood together to prove we weren't afraid of "spooks" who were everywhere out there in the dark - we were 10. It isn't easy growing up in Virginia.

The next room to the left was the Jackson's bedroom. It contained the rocking cradle. I remember seeing it. Everybody in town knew it was there. George told me the family version of the same story.

Bishop Early was George's uncle several generations back. It was The Rev. Early's cradle. He loaned it to The Rev. Smith.

With all that rocking and carrying on with no one touching it - something had to be done. So, Bishop Early exorcised the devil out of the cradle and it stopped rocking.

The only time it has rocked since is when later generations rocked their babies in it - but, the cradle hasn't rocked by itself for the past

Bishop Early's House

150 years or so. You can go down to George Jackson's house today and see it. I'm just telling the story the way it was told to me.

Bishop Early & The American Colonization Society

Bishop Early was an interesting man. But, the real reason for my interest in him is because he organized the local American Colonization Society in Lynchburg.

The American Colonization Society had been organized by Pastor Robert Finley, a Presbyterian minister in 1816. Its sole purpose was to colonize blacks back in their African homeland. They helped establish the country of Liberia for this effort. Thomas Jefferson and everyone else around here were members.

The reason that a Colonization Society was necessary was because blacks had been brought here and they shouldn't be here. The WORD is clear on this point:

Courtesy Emory University Library

Bishop Early

"Thou shall make no covenant with them ... they shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." I Ki 4:21-24. "Thou shall drive them out before thee. Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their gods. They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." Ex 23:31-33; "Thou shall smite them, and utterly destroy them; thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor show mercy unto them: Neither shalt thou make marriages with them." Deut 7:1-4

The Colonization Society was prepared to buy black slaves, train them, and return them to Africa so as to conform to the Commandments of the WORD.

Actually, the Society had to buy very few blacks. They didn't have to. Slave owners donated slaves in such numbers that the Society was pressed for money to process, train and transport all those who had been donated back to Africa. Tens of thousands were trained to farm, given seed, equipment, supplies and instructors, and returned to their African homeland.

The Rest Of The Story

Bishop Early was a good Christian man - as the world calls men good. But, the reason that blacks are here in in the first place is that the episcopal organization the Bishop belonged to did not follow the WORD which is God. It followed another god, a god who tolerated kings, monopoly, usury, miscegenation, and living among strangers.

"For whosoever shall keep the whole law yet shall offend in one part, he is guilty of all. For he that said, Do not commit adultery, and also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law." Jas 2:10-11¹

The religious organization set up by the king, as a department of his state, blessed the king's slave trade. In other

¹ Geneva Bible (note 5) "For whosoever shall keep the whole Law, and yet faileth in one point, he is guilty of all." James 2:10 (note 6) For he that said, "thou shalt not commit adulterie", sayd also, "thou shalt not kill". Now though, thou doest none adulterie, yet if thou killeit, thou are a transgressor of the Law." James 2:11 words, these religious ecclesiastics who were supposed to obey God rather than man, were responsible for the blacks being here - a direct violation of God's Commandments. And, here Bishop Early was, a bishop of the same religious organization responsible for the problem - 250 years later - working to rid the Saxon nation in Virginia of the curse that his organization had brought on them.

Religion, Tobacco & Slaves

Virginia was the newest addition to the growing empire of the King of England. Empires are universal organizations requiring a universal god whose all-inclusive laws combine divergent peoples into one. A unified people who believe in one god and one king simplifies the task of ruling. The religion of kings welcomes new subjects - regardless of race, creed or color.

Settling Virginia was hard going. Most settlers who came in 1607 died. Survivors searched for gold, but little was found. Tobacco turned out to be the money crop.

Tobacco is a narcotic. Teach someone to smoke or chew and he becomes an addict. Addicts make good customers. Because of tobacco addiction, the demand for Virginia's tobacco was insatiable and the product could be sold in Britain and the rest of Europe for whatever price the king's agents asked. The markup was enormous. The crown demanded that Virginia's colonists plant more tobacco and passed laws requiring that all Virginia tobacco be sold exclusively to Great Britain.

Indentured Servants

Growing tobacco is labor intensive. To fill the need for workers, prisoners of war from England's on-going religious strife - Catholic, Church of England, Puritan and Presbyterian - were shipped here as indentured workers at different times. England's prisons supplied more, and those seeking a better life furnished still others. They weren't nearly enough.

A major problem was the indenture system itself. Indentured workers could be required to work and produce tobacco for only seven years because of the Law:

"If thou buy a Hebrew servant, 6 years shall he serve, and in the 7th he shall go out free." Ex 21:2.

After 6 years "Hebrew-Saxon" ("Isaac-son's" - Saxon) indentured workers were free to go and practice whatever trade they had, or had learned. Or, if they liked, move on to the frontier and take up their own land.

Slaves Solve Labor Shortage

In 1619, a ship arrived in Virginia with a handful of black slaves. They were not "Hebrew" so they could be kept as permanent laborers.

This was the start of black slavery in Virginia. The King's own Established Church blessed this new business venture and the king received part of the price of every slave sold.

The shortage of tobacco laborers gradually vanished as black slaves poured in. Tobacco production grew tremendously as did crown revenues.

Reason For Jew Slave Traders

A large part of slave trade was handled by Jews.² The reason? Black slaves were stolen by black slave dealers in Africa and sold to slave-traders. Dealing in stolen goods bans the thief from Heaven.

"Whoso is partner with a thief hateth his own soul." Pr 29:24: "Know ye not that thieves ... shall (not) inherit the kingdom of God." I Cor 6:9,³

This is why when kings commit Lawless acts, they use Jews as middlemen to take the blame. This way they distance themselves from the crime - and hopefully - the people's blame and God's curse that falls on the one involved in the crime. This is the reason the Rothchilds are Vatican usury-bankers and Jews traditionally operate both Protestant and Catholic owned banks. This is why kings use Jews as diplomats, treasurers, and intermediaries. They tell us that it wasn't the preachers who crucified Jesus - it was the Jews! It is not "Christians" who are responsible for evil acts - it is the Jews!"⁴

² "Secret Relationship Between Blacks and Jews," Nation of Islam, Va Pub Co, POB 997, Lynchburg, Va 24505, $23.

³ On the other hand the Jewish Talmud states: "All property of other nations belongs to the Jewish nation, which consequently is entitled to seize upon it without any scruples. An orthodox Jew is not bound to observe principles of morality towards people of other tribes. He may act contrary to morality, if profitable to himself or to Jews in general." Schulchan Aruch, Choszan Hamispat 348; "How to interpret the word 'robbery'. A goy is forbidden to steal, rob or take women slaves, etc. from a goy or a Jew. But a Jew is NOT forbidden to do all this to a goy." Tosefta, Abada Zara VIII, 5.

⁴ It has been my experience that it is best to look closely at "Jew bashers." The basher often has an ax to grind. Jews do what they do because they are Jews and can do nothing else. Saxons do not have this excuse. Jews could not even be in the land God has permitted us to use without Lawless Saxons opening the door for them. It isn't the lawless Jew who is to blame - it is the Lawless Saxon!

Episcopal Problem

From the first, the king's policy in Virginia was to make the savage American Indians his subjects. His religious, political and trade institutions were directed to work toward this end and they did - in spite of the Law forbidding strangers to live in the land.⁵

Not only were the Indians in Virginia not expelled as required by God's Commandment, but the King built the College of William & Mary to educate them and ordered that the Indians be made welcome in settlements and homes throughout the colony.

In spite of Puritan protests, miscegenation was encouraged by Virginia's prelates - starting with the case of Pocahontas and John Rolfe.

As God promised, the strangers became pricks in our eyes and resulted in the Indian Massacres of 1622 and 1644 that nearly wiped out the Virginia colony.

Required Church Services

Attendance at services at the King's Churches was required - on pain of being fined. Preacher's sermons included royal pronouncements and crown policy - it was the king's method of shaping the opinions of his subjects. Non-conformists and Puritans who disapproved of the king's policies were harshly treated.

⁵ "Then ye shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you ... And ye shall dispossess the land and dwell therein: for I have given you the land to possess it. And ye shall divide the land by lot for an inheritance among your families ... But if ye will not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you; then it shall come to pass, that those which ye let remain of them (shall be) pricks in your eyes, and thorns in your sides, and shall vex you in the land wherein ye dwell. Moreover it shall come to pass, I shall do unto you, as I thought to do unto them." Numbers 33:52-56

Problems Created By The King

Twice, Virginia appealed to the crown to stop importing black slaves. The crown replied that another such appeal by Virginia's Burgesses would result in severe royal displeasure. The crown did not have to elaborate.

Deporting Black Labor

Black slavery, conspiring with Indians against White colonists, and taxes - resulted in a war which was won by the colonists. Then came efforts to solve the problems caused by the king.

The American Colonization Society was formed to return blacks to Africa. This effort ran afoul of Cartel policy pertaining to its N. American businesses. Just because America won the Revolutionary War didn't mean that Britain relinquished her cartel banking and business interests.

Economic interests headquartered in Britain continued to own America's fledgling industry.⁶ Deporting workers, slave or free, creates labor shortages and inflates labor costs. The international merchants financed a radical "Abolition Movement" to stop "repatriation" of workers.

Radical Abolition ignored the existing African colonization program. It demanded that slaves be freed without compensating their owners and that the freed slaves remain in this country to labor in the industries of the international bankers. Its political victory guaranteed open conflict.

⁶ When the 2nd Bank of the U.S. failed it was revealed that the majority of stock holders were British. Foreign usury-banking has controlled American business and industry since the time of the Jamestown settlement. Usury banking has no country and no loyalties.

The WBTS

The War Between The States resulted from these radical abolition policies, and the Cartel's need to destroy America's "anti-bank" self-sufficient-farm-system, most of which was located in the South.

Losing the War presented America's Saxons with a different problem. Blacks were prevented from being sent home. Like it or not they were now part of America's work force. A different solution to the race problem had to be found in an attempt to partially satisfy the WORD and avoid the curse that comes from having strangers in the land.

Jim Crow

The stop-gap solution was race separation - "segregation."

EATING: God's Commandment forbids eating with strangers. Statutes were passed to prevent Saxons and strangers eating together.⁷

"Thou shall no stranger (2114 zwer - racial alien) eat of the holy thing (food that has been blessed)."
Lev 22:10

The king's courts struck these down.

LIVING AMONGST: God's Commandment forbids strangers living among us. Statutes were enacted to prevent Saxons and strangers from living in the same neighborhoods.

"They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." I Ki 4:21-24

⁷ On Virginia farms, slave owners had "outside kitchens" in connected buildings. Saxons ate together in the house and the Colored servants ate together in the kitchen. In towns, there were separate white and colored eating facilities. Violations of this custom was looked on as sacrilege.

RULE: God's Commandment forbids strangers ruling over us.

"Thou mayest not set a stranger over thee." De 17:15; "Thou shalt in any wise set him king over thee, whom the Lord thy God shall choose: one from among thy brethren shalt thou set king over thee: thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: nokriiy - foreign, adultrious.) over thee, which is not thy brother." De 17:15

Laws were passed requiring separation in the army, schools, business, and especially voting.

Lawless courts appointed by the king, who followed another god, struck them all down one by one:

INTERRACIAL MARRIAGE: God's Commandment forbids racial intermarriage.

"Let them marry ... only to the family of the tribe of their father." Numbers 36:6; "Thou ... shall go ... to my kindred, and take a wife." Gen 24:3,4; "When they had heard the law ... they separated from Israel all the mixed (mongrel) multitude." Neh 13:3; "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of the Lord (Israel)." De 23:2

Quick Review

Let us take a quick look at the record of what kings and their universal empire churches have done to us. The religious organizations they created have either *introduced, blessed, or made no objection*⁸ to the following:

* Miscegenation in 1615 - by encouraging marriage with indians (John Rolfe incident).

* Forced integration of Saxons with Indians bringing on the Indian Massacres of 1622 and 1644.

* Banishing Puritans from Virginia.

* Granting land, trade, and private Indian trade monopolies - resulting in the bloody Bacon's Rebellion of 1674 and its bloody suppression.

* Giving bland assent to the importation of black strangers into Virginia starting in 1619.

* Agreeing with the King's threat to persecute Virginia's Burgesses who objected to the slave trade.

* Offering no objection to the arming of red savages in order to kill Saxons even before the American Revolution as attested to in The Declaration of Independence.

* Blessing the unlawful taxation of the people.

* Blessing the very office of "king" - which office is itself cursed by the WORD.

The Cherry On Top

The god of the episcopal organization which, over the past 400 years, has blessed or made no objection to the things expressly forbidden by God the WORD - and whose wealth and power allows it to have a finger in every political and business transaction that takes place - and whose influence is so great that it can afford to dispense with even a pretense of representing God the WORD - has now placed the crown of sodomy on its collective head.

8 "To him that knoweth to do good and doeth it not, to him it is sin." Jas 4:17

Crowned By Sodomy

With 107 bishops in attendance, Peter James Lee, Virginia's Episcopal bishop, oversaw the confirmation of the sodomite Rev. V. Gene Robinson as bishop of the Diocese of New Hampshire.

Bishop Peter James Lee

Conclusions

There are good men in these episcopal religious organization - I know some. But, the WORD judges - and the judgment is clear:

"By their acts ye shall know them." Matt 7:20

If Bishop Early were here today things might be different. He excised the devil out of a rocking cradle. If he could do that, he certainly shouldn't have much trouble excising the devil from an entire group of idol worshiping heathen called "organized Christianity."

But, since Bishop Early isn't here - It's up to those whom the "WORD made flesh" actually appointed kings and priests! The ones the WORD calls "saints," we call Puritans, and the king calls "rebels."

Letter From S. Africa

It is the worst drought in 88 years. Hardly any summer crops and farmers who feed large herds have had to sell them as they have no forage.

Laws allowing farm confiscation were passed. We know what happens to confiscated land. Blacks move in and quickly ruin it. Big business then steps in and picks it up for nothing. That makes it legal.

The S. African Communist Party has organized a youth movement. S. Africa is beginning to act like Zimbabwe where communist youths were used to intimidate whites and drive them off the land.

In Nigeria, the traitor, F. W. deKlerk, acknowledged that large scale fraud took place in the 1994 election that was used to turn the country over to Blacks. "F.W." simply had to get his way. He never comes near here where Afrikaners live. After betraying his own people I think he is afraid for his life.

We went down to the Bronkhorstspuit and all is well with the children's home. Only one little girl is there now and two of Betzy's, the head-mistress. The rest of the children spent the holidays with kinsmen or foster parents and will return to school shortly.

Mbeki went to Haiti to help the Blacks celebrate the massacre of the island's whites two hundred years ago. He donated R10 million of our money to pay for the celebration.

The Jewish minister of water affairs just gave the Zulus in Natal R150 million to truck in water - just for blacks - none for white farmers who have to feed everyone if they are to be fed.

Anti-Saxonism hiring measures continue in all areas and young qualified whites can not easily find work.

A young man just flew in from Germany and reported that the whole continent below the Sahara desert had a cloud covering. This raises the question - why the drought?

Yours faithfully, K.J.

LETTER

ULTIMATE RECONCILIATION: "Dear Mr. H.; I read in the CIM Newsletter from Australia that the term "Ultimate Reconciliation" means that 'every single person who has ever lived will eventually come to salvation, God's kingdom, and everlasting life. ... In this belief, the millennium is followed by age after age where people who did not find salvation in the earlier periods are cleansed of sin. These long ages to come are seen as punishing and correcting, adjusting and convincing, all suffering sinners with purifying fire until finally everyone who ever lived has surrendered to God and received Jesus as savior. There are variations on the above, but the central theme remains clear: Everyone Will Be Saved!' What do you think?" M.J. - California

RKH: Substitute Brahma for Jesus and reincarnation in place of "ages of cleansing" and you have Hinduism - the One World religion that claims that Jesus is merely a different manifestation of Brahma.

"Between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that [would come] from thence." Lu 16:26; "One abyss was thus opened in the midst of the earth, which was full of fire. And to this were brought the blind sheep; which were being judged, and found guilty, were all thrust into that abyss of fire on the earth, and burnt." I Enoch 89:34-35; "Hell and destruction are never full." Prov 27:20;

"Cowards who turn back from following me, and the corrupt, and murderers, and the immoral, and those conversing with demons, and idol worshipers and all liars - their doom is in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur. This is the second death." Rev 21:8; "The wicked shall be turned into hell." Ps 9:17; "Fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell." Mt 10:28; "I will forewarn you ... fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell." Lk 12:5.

UNFILTERED NEWS

GERMANY is soon to privatize 600 tons of gold. This is why the ITC establishes episcopal governments. Episcopal governments are wealth farmers who use the people as wealth producers, and then take their wealth as taxes, and then "privatizes" the wealth into the pockets of those who put the episcopal governments in office.

ZIMBABWE: President Robert Mugabe has built himself a retirement mansion so grand and so opulent it dwarfs all other privately owned residences in the country and has also obtained Zimbabwe's largest dairy farm. The owner of Foyle Farm, the dairy enterprise, was forced from his land by rioting "war vets." It is said that The Agricultural and Rural Development Association bought it for Mugabe. Many have raised serious questions about how he acquired the money for the house and farm. (Story in Sunday Tribune, S.A., Aug 27, 2003)

RHODESIA: "What short memories people have, but some things are not forgotten. About the time of the Lancaster House agreement, the Queen in her speech said: 'We shall not rest until Rhodesia is brought to her knees.' Mission accomplished." M. Esterhuysen, Garden View, (The Citizen S.A. Jan 6, 2004)

DISSENTERS: Episcopal conservatives have formed the Network of Anglican Communion Dioceses and Parishes to push traditional teachings within the U.S. Episcopal community. (IBD, p.2, Jan 22, 2004)

RKH: This is important! Within most episcopal organizations, reform movements act as temporary "new orders". They tend to exist for the life of their reform minded members and then replacements are appointed who bring the order back into the fold as if nothing had ever happened.

CHOICE: "George W. Bush was born into an Episcopal family and raised as a Presbyterian, but he is now a Methodist.

"Howard Dean was baptized Catholic, and raised as an Episcopalian. ...and now he is a Congregationalist, though his kids consider themselves Jewish.

"Wesley Clark's father was Jewish. As a boy he was Methodist, and then became a Baptist. In adulthood he converted to Catholicism, but recently told Beliefnet.com, "I'm a Catholic, but I go to a Presbyterian church. ..." Detroit Free Press,.COM Jan 5, 2004

AIDS: Black AIDS cases increased 54% from 1999 to 2002; Hispanics 26%; Sodomites 17%; Whites 8%; female AIDS cases 12% in Indiana; total AIDS cases in Indiana increased 88%. One-third of new AIDS cases in Indiana involve Black residents, although they make up only 8.3% of the state's population. AIDS is becoming a disease of minorities. (Story in The Indianapolis Star, A4, Dec 1, 2003)

RKH: Avoid Saxons who keep company with strangers. It's becoming a matter of life or death. A cough, a kiss, can become a kiss of death. Those choosing to integrate with carriers should be segregated.

AIDS: South Africa is⁹ entering the "death" phase of its AIDS epidemic as mortality overwhelms health care system. A researcher at the Univ. of Natal told an AIDS conference in Durban, "South Africa is experiencing a devastating epidemic - the world's worst - and this is just the beginning." S. Africa has the largest single case-load of AIDS infections, 4.7 million. Adults with HIV/AIDS are estimated at 33%, with sickness and death increasing daily. AIDS kills 600 S. Africans a day. In one hospital 90% were HIV positive. Death rates for men age 20-40 are up 150% and even higher for women. Scientists say that the real death toll numbers are difficult to quantify because so many related deaths such as TB & other common HIV related infections are not listed as an AIDS fatality. Chapter 354

CHINA NASDAQ, Wal-Mart & Downsizing America

Forget? I think not!

We've seen it before and we've learned. Scotland was invaded and conquered by England's cartel and forced to pay tribute to agents of its figurehead king.

My ancestor was lucky, he was banished to America. The rest of our poverty stricken Saxon kinsmen labored in the fields until sheep-wool became more profitable to the cartel owners than their farm labor. Then, the cartel imported sheep, burned our villages and sent our kinsmen to Edinburgh and Glasgow to live in 6 floor walkups and work for starvation wages in the cartel's mill and shipyard corporations. Families were still living in these walkups with one bathroom on the first floor when I visited Scotland in 1982 - our own Saxon kinsmen!

The overflow Scottish population was loaded on ships and sent to work vacant Catholic farms in Northern Ireland. There, they again labored for a pittance and fought the Irish Catholics whose land they took, while both paid tax-tribute to the same cartel who stood back laughing - having done it to them many times before.

America

John Lynch, founder of Lynchburg, was one of these Scot-Irish survivors. My own ancestors were English, Scottish and Irish. My wife's ancestors came from France and England. In America we all prospered. Then the Royal Cartel repeated in this country everything they had done to our ancestors in the old country. Having enough, we withdrew from the king's cartel, and in leaving we stated the reasons why:

Declaration Of Independence

The following reasons were excerpted from the Declaration written by Thomas Jefferson and signed by everybody. The cartel's figurehead king was horrified:

"Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed. - That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government ...

Sedition! Treason!

"Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes ... But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security ...

They understood!

"The history of the present King of Great Britain is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct object the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. ...

"He has made Judges dependent on his Will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries ...

In today's enlightened age - America's figurehead king appoints supreme court judges to judge that his unlawful acts are legal. Does seeing something wrong with this and wanting to substitute God's Law for the king's edicts make one a "terrorist"? Incidentally, the judges are as bountifully paid for their service today as they were 250 years ago.

"He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harass our people, and eat out their substance.

Really!

"He has kept among us, in times of peace, Standing Armies ...

If those murdered at Waco could talk - they could tell us about this.

"He has combined with others to subject us to a jurisdiction foreign to our constitution and unacknowledged by our laws ...

UN, NAFTA?

"He has ... waged war against us ... He has excited domestic insurrections amongst us, and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian Savages, whose known rule of warfare, is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes and conditions. ...

When will the king's agents be brought to trial for Gordon Kahl, Ruby Ridge, Waco, Oklahoma City, the Towers I and II, inciting beasts to burn our cities, assault our citizens and rape our women? The king himself pays agents provocateur to provoke our people so he can punish their backlash and learn to fear.

"We therefore ... ought to be, Free and Independent States ... And for the support of this Declaration ... a firm reliance on the protection of divine Providence ... "

"Divine Providence" is the WORD. However, "states" are creations of kings. The Saxon nation was created by God the WORD as his own possession.

"Whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government

Hello! Anyone home?

Again!

Like a Serpent, the Cartel followed us into this wonderful new land and imposed their serpent system on us.

Their usury bank agents now own the media and manipulate public opinion to support cartel policy:

"As a man thinketh ... so is he." Pr 23:7

This permits them to buy corrupt priests to bless rotten Cartel kings whom their media advertises as "plaster saints". They have loosed their Great Merchant's Corporations to do their thing.

Corrupt kings, corrupt priests, and corrupt merchants all doing the things that our ancestors fought to stop them from doing.

The Wal-Mart Corporation

You've heard the story - when a Wal-Mart opens - 40 businesses close. Why?

Three reasons:

Wal-Mart is a corporation. A corporation is a monster having no soul or compassion other than that bestowed upon it by hired public relations people. It is programmed to do one thing - make money. Competitors who fail - bankrupt. Their business is cannibalized by survivors who grow larger and larger on the bodies of those who have been ruined.

Wal-Mart is on the road to becoming a complete monopoly. It knows what it is doing and how to do it. It is packed full of customers. You can shop there and can find everything from groceries to car seatcovers, film developing, drug prescriptions and clothes. Its customers are those who used to trade with the hundreds of mom and pop grocery stores, drug stores, clothing stores, that Wal-Mart put out business. Wal-Mart is often the only place that carries items that used to be found everywhere. People shop at Wal-Mart for whatever they need. They used to shop there because it was cheap. Now many people shop there because it is the only place left. You name it - they've got it. And - everything's cheap.

Wal-Mart buys in quantity. A manufacturer either sells his "widgets" to them for a massive discount or Wal-Mart will buy from a supplier who will. The one who gets the order makes a pittance on the deal - but stays in business. Those who lose often close because the low purchase price set by Wal-Mart's purchase is too low for survival.

Lynchburg Downtown is loaded with vacant stores. So are its shopping centers. Big companies are shutting down. Ericsson, who once hired thousands, is gone. Its massive location is now used by a Judeo-Christian church. Others are "downsizing". Many manufacturing plants are vacant. Even big supermarkets are closing. Those that can't meet discount and offshore pricing close down and their customers go to the Wal-Mart types who can.

Offshore

For the last 20 years or so, America's Corporations have quietly been moving operations offshore. We know that jobs and production have been exported to Mexico and Korea, but even Mexico is now complaining about China's and India's competition. These lands have billions of potential customers, a virtual slave population willing to work for pennies an hour, and the potential to reduce manufacturing costs tremendously. This translates into tremendous corporate profits.

Few Cartel politicians criticize "globalization" and none advocate high tariffs to ban the return of alien-made goods to America. After all, the cartel media didn't put their politician-puppets in office to cause them trouble. And, corporations have no feelings. They are programmed for one thing - profit. It is these corporations that pay the campaign expenses that produce the favorable publicity allowing the cushy Washington life enjoyed by the few. Wal-Mart is one of those paying the operating expenses:

"Wal-Mart, the largest company in the US, looks set to pass a new milestone this year: it is well on its way to becoming the biggest business contributor to the 2004 election campaign. ...

"Wal-mart would be a big loser from any restrictions on imports, particularly from China ... the company has assembled an impressive rank of lobbyists ...

"No company would be hurt more than Wal-Mart by a backlash against trade, particularly efforts to curb imports from China. ..." Financial Times, Feb 25, 2004, p.2)

China Trade - 1994

China trade profits began to kick in in the late 1970s. They exploded in 1994. The stock markets reacted - big!

The Cartel financed conquest of China by their agent Mao following WWII, allowed American corporations to quietly begin buying cheap Chinese products and setting up their own manufacturing plants in China to take advantage of cheap Chinese labor. The products were sold for high prices in America. Products costing $1 were sold for $15 in America and corporate profits went out the roof.

NASDAQ

The chart below is the NASDAQ. It is an indicator of stock movements of over-the-counter stocks.

NASDAQ vs ADVANCE/DECLINE LINE

Advance/Decline

The declining line below the NASDAQ average is the Advance Decline line. It is a moving average of the difference between stocks moving up and those moving down. If the NASDAQ average moves up - so should the Advance Decline line. If the NASDAQ moves down - so should the A/D line. It isn't good if the NASDAQ moves higher while the A/D line moves lower.

Notice that the divergence between stock prices and their A/D line started as far back as 1995 and continued on through 2003. A massive divergence. Stock averages moved up and most stocks traded down. American companies are being devastated - a result of the China poison.

Observation

Again - a Corporation has no mind, no compassion, no sense of right or wrong. It is programmed for profit - nothing else - and will do anything to obtain its goal.

We are told that American business moving off-shore is bad because unemployed workers of downsized businesses will have less money to spend.

Corporations don't think so. They don't think that they won't suffer at all. Why? They are counting on the economies in the far east growing and replacing Western economies. To put it another way, they believe that the rising standard of living and increased income in these untapped oriental markets will fuel corporate operations far into the future. They even believe that the corporate income of those corporations who survive because of their China connections, or because of their high-tech niche, will continue to prosper.

Their vision is that the survivors on the NASDAQ and other stock exchanges will continue to profit from growing Asian wealth while American wealth declines and unemployment rises higher and higher. An interesting speculation.

Backlash

Naturally, a Saxon backlash is expected. Rising Western unemployment is bound to trigger unrest. Plans were made long ago to contain it, plans constantly updated such as:

* The West's borders have been opened to allow entry to a flood of aliens to compete with Saxons for fewer and fewer jobs. Saxons are taxed to benefit foreign and domestic aliens who are becoming increasingly ill mannered and violent. At the proper time the media-monopoly will inflame Saxon hostility against these groups to cause strife.

* Thus, the cartel has created another strawman to absorb Saxon hostility that would ordinarily be directed against themselves. Clever.

* A "War On Terror" has been initiated. The cartel defines a terrorist as one who opposes cartel policy. Since Saxons will oppose America's "downsizing" and their ongoing impoverishment - they are the designated terrorists. Consequently, everything about them is under cartel media attack. Their history, politics, business, and most especially - their God - the God whose Laws opposes trading with aliens, monopoly, kings, taxes, and strangers in their midst.

What will be the result of all this?

Bible Prophecy On China

Perhaps this is the answer. The WORD speaks of downsizing Christian-Israel and building up China. The words are contained in the Lamsa Bible translation of Ezekiel 38 & 39:¹

"Son of man, set your face against China, and against the land of Mongolia, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him and say, Thus say the Lord God: Behold I am against you, O China, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal: I will gather your people together and put a bridle in your jaws and I will bring you forth out of your country, both you and all your army ... Persians, Ethiopians, and Lybians with them ... Gomar and all her army, the house of Togarmah, and the uttermost parts of the north with all their hosts, and many other people who are with you.

"Son of man ... say to China, Thus says the Lord God: On that day when my people Israel shall dwell in tranquillity, ... you shall come up against my people Israel, like a cloud to cover the land; it shall be in the latter days, ... my anger shall be consumed in my fury and zeal ... and ... the earth shall shake ... and the mountains shall be thrown down and the towers shall fall and every wall shall tumble to the ground. ...

"... Behold I am against you, O China, the ruler and the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal; ... I will send a fire on Mongolia, and on the people who dwell peacefully in the Islands; and they shall know that I am the Lord. ... I will give to China a place there for burial in the land of Israel ... and there they shall bury China and all his army."

This tells us about China.

The Rest Of The Story

Now, what about the kings, the great merchants, and the priests who are responsible for not telling the people of the dangers of downsizing the Saxon world and building a Chinese monster? - the same ones who crucified Jesus and who are crucifying him today? The same ones who have been shown chapter and verse time and again by the faithful, and have done nothing about it?

"If we sin willfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins." Heb 10:26

That's all we need to know about them. What about us? It is not written:

"When thou are in tribulation ... even in the latter days, if thou turn to God and shall be obedient ... he will not forsake thee ... nor forget the covenant of thy fathers." Deut 4:30-31

And what will God do?

"I will send my WORD and save thee and thy seed." II Adam & Eve 12:6

Even now, the Texas murderer and the Episcopalian Jew are debating about the best way to suppress sodomy. Who would have thought it? Think what that means! A presidential election which may turn on a biblical principal - not money. A door is opening that the Serpent may not be able to close. If not this - something else!

There is only One who could plan it this way.

Letters

RACISM: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: The prison refused to let me have Our Nordic Race. They said it promoted 'racism'. Blacks are allowed to receive all sorts of black racist literature." Z.A. - prisoner Arizona

RKH: "Racist" has been made into a buzz-word by the cartel media. God made everyone racist because our God is racist and we are made in the image of our God who commands us to obey him: "Thus saith the Lord, Israel is my son, even my first-born." Ex 4:22; "Oh children of Israel ... You only have I known of all families of the earth." Amos 3:1; "Among all the multitudes of people thou hast gotten thee one people: and unto this people, whom thou lovedst, thou gavest a law that is approved of all." II Esdras 5:27; "I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel." Matthew 5:24; "The LORD thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto Himself, above all the people that are upon the face of the earth." Deut 7:6; "For in the division of the nations of the whole earth he set a ruler over every people; but Israel is the Lord's portion." Ecclesiasticus 17:17; "The house of Israel, are my people ... And ye my flock ... are men (Heb: adam - those that blush rosy), and I am your God." Ezek 34:30-31. "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of Israel." Deut 23:2.

LAWs: "Hoskins Report: Your reports are interesting and thought provoking. May you come to know Jesus Christ as a person and not just as a collection of written Laws!" A Yankee Friend - Wisconsin

RKH: Thanks. The WORD says that Jesus is the WORD made flesh. In the beginning Jesus wrote the Law. ~~There~~ ^{There} is no other way to express loyalty and submission except by obedience. But to obey, one must know what He requires. This knowledge comes from his Law. "If ye love me obey my commandments. John 14:15;13"

2 "I and my Father are one." John 10:30

3 "And this is love, that we walk after his commandments." 2 Jno 5,6; "We know him, if we keep his commandments." 1 Jno 2:3; "Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man." Eccles. 3:1.

UNFILTERED NEWS

ISRAELI BANK ROBBERS: The Israeli army crashed into Palestinian banks stealing $6.7 million in a flagrant disregard for the laws of nations. Israeli sources excuse the holdups by blaming the banks for handling money belonging to Muslim patriots. They say that the pilfered funds will be spent on Palestinian humanitarian projects. (Story in Investors Business Daily, p.2, Feb 25, 2004)

FREE IRAQI ELECTIONS: Two prominent reformist newspapers were closed by occupation officials after criticizing Iran's US appointed puppet leader. (Story in Investors Business Daily, p. 2, Feb 20, 2004,) EXPEL: The Netherlands is expected to expel 26,000 aliens seeking asylum. This is the largest expulsion thus far. Financial Times, Feb 17, 2003, p.3)

KERRY/BUSH: John Kerry's grandfather was a Czechoslovakian Jew named Kohen. Kerry is married to Theresa Heinz - Jewish heir to a half billion dollar ketchup fortune. The WORD forbids its followers to have a stranger to rule over them. This eliminates Kerry. This leaves Bush. Bush is responsible for tens of millions of alien immigrants who are flooding the country. The bright side is that Bush is not a stranger. Happy?

JUDGE ROY MOORE: The Supreme Court refused to hear an Alabama justice's appeal to display the 10 Commandments in the state's judicial building.

RKH: Roy Moore, a scribe, a king's lawyer who has long practiced the king's law, wants us to believe that he had no idea how Supreme Court judges, appointed by the king to enforce the king's law, and consisting of Sadducees, aliens, and members of episcopal religious groups, would rule on a case that challenged the king's policy.

If you believe that - vote to make him leader of America's right wing so that he can do it again, and again, and again. And we wonder why a dog chases his tail! The establishment is getting lazy by bringing up warmed-over tricks. Times have changed. Some are learning.

ALLAH: Jewish leaders protest the names of Arab teams in the California Jan 4th Muslim football tournament - names such as "Intefada," "Soldiers of Allah," and "Holy Warrior." (Story in Jewish News, Dec 12, 2003, p.13)

RKH: In Lynchburg - home of the immortal 2nd Virginia Cavalry, 11th Virginia Infantry, and Lathams' Battery - the song "Dixie" is banned. "Lee-Jackson" Day has become a mongrel after being combined with "Martin Luther King Day"; two of the three forts that defended the city against Hunter have been razed, and school names such as Robert E. Lee and hometown boy generals "Garland" and "Rhodes" have been changed - all to make it easier to squeeze Lynchburgers into the Cartel "one world." The job of the media is to form opinions. However, the seed of "self-hate" that they have taught Lynchburgers is nourished by a watered-down heathen Christianity. All this can be easily reversed in the twinkling of an eye by the WORD - and it will be.

AUSTRALIA: "Minorities cannot be allowed to police themselves, said Janet Albrechtsen in the Sydney Australian. That's the lesson we can draw from Canada's sorry experiment with the Mohawks. In that native community, Canadian police were 'seen as unwanted symbols of white oppression,' so the Quebec provincial government let the Mohawk nation create its own police force. Anarchy ensued. ... criminal gangs were soon smuggling cigarettes and marijuana with impunity and terrorizing the province. ... Canada's Mohawks are suffering because the government gave in to 'the siren song of rights activists.' Australia, too, has an 'urban elite consumed with guilt' about our own natives, the Aborigines ... 'Australia ignores the Canadian parable at its peril.'" (The Week, February 13, 2004, p. 16)

RKH: "Thou shall drive them out before thee. Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their gods. They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." Ex 23:31-33

BLOCKBUSTER: "Blockbuster, the world's largest video rental chain, is shutting up shop in Hong Kong and scrapping plans to expand into mainland China because rampant piracy is undermining foreign investment in the media and entertainment sector ...

"Although China officially condemns copyright violations, scores of shops in big cities ... sell pirated video discs. Foreign investigators have claimed piracy in China is often aided by officials with connections to illegal manufacturers. ..." (Financial Times, Jan 31, 2004, p.1)

CARS IN CHINA: "The nerve! The pirates of Shanghai are knocking off entire motor vehicles.

"Piracy is such a way of life in China that people are surprised when a movie, software package or handbag bought there is not ripped off. Now you can add to the list of counterfeit goods, passenger cars. Months before General Motors began selling its $7,500 Chevrolet Spark in China in December, a $6,000 knockoff version, the Chery QQ, with the same grinning front end but missing some subtle details (like an airbag), was cruising Chinese streets. Even more galling: The manufacturer of the pirated version was partially owned by GM's Chinese business partner.

Counterfeiting - usually just of parts - is driving carmakers crazy in China. ..." (Joann Muller, FORBES, Feb 16, 2004, P.58)

BECHTEL: The European Commission is investigating the award of a $2.5bn Romanian motorway contract to the politically well-connected US company Bechtel. The 450km road would be the key transport link with central Europe. A European Commission official remarked: "The whole thing stinks because there was no public procurement process." (Story in Financial Times, Feb 5, 2004, p.4)

TROOP REDUCTION: The US is preparing to cut troop levels in Europe by 1/3. Washington says that it does not now intend to open large permanent bases in eastern Europe. "If anything, troops taken out of Western Europe will be sent home," said a Nato source. "From there, they will be sent on training missions to small bases established in Poland, Romania or Bulgaria. Last week Colin Powell told Vladmir Putin, Russia's president, that Washington had no intention of encircling Russia. The US, however, is not preparing to cut troop numbers in Europe. The business of getting smaller may take a couple of years. (Story in Financial Times, Feb 4, 2004, p.1)

RKH: The world sees the US as being another Rome occupying more than 130 countries.

SAXON TERRORISTS: The propaganda machine that portrayed Saxon-Christians as "terrorists" and "potential terrorists" in being cranked up again. The same anti-Saxon sit-coms are again being shown to build anti-Saxonite public opinion. The anti-Saxon pogram is scheduled to go into high gear as soon as the US is driven from Iraq. America's Saxon Christian-patriot will once again become the "designated terrorist."

"A wheel in de wheel
"Way up dar in de middle ob de air."
Negro spiritual

Buddhism 101

The WORD 101

The WORD teaches not to lie, cheat or steal. One third of the Bible is devoted to this. It's important. Governments all over the world insist that this basic generic ethic be taught so that merchants can do business and kings can collect their tax- tribute.

The real point of contention is the other 2/3s of the Bible. It requires believers to do things that kings don't want you to do. The part that says that we are to have no kings, taxes, monopoly, usury, wars with kinsmen and have no strangers in our midst. This part is not taught. Not that it isn't known. Anyone can open a Bible and read these prohibitions. They just aren't taught. It's as if they don't exist. Christian denominations have been created just to exclude these teachings. Why? Because if the forbidden 2/3s of the Bible were taught and obeyed, it would exclude the International Trade Cartel's state and its agents from our nation and usher in The Kingdom.

Let us start to work on the 2/3s.

Missionaries

In the beginning, God created man and beast. Whatever is not *man*¹ is beast. Man is instructed not to abuse beast lest they testify against him in the Judgment² - he is also commanded not to lie down before the beast. It is a capital crime.

"If a man lie with a beast, he shall surely be put to death: and ye shall slay the beast. And if a woman

² "Beasts will not perish, nor all souls of beasts which the Lord created, till the great judgment, and they will accuse man, if he feed them ill." Enoch 58:7

... lie down thereto, thou shalt kill the woman and the beast." Leviticus 20:15-16³

God also decreed that those knowing that it is a capital crime and do not tell others - he too is guilty - and is to receive the same punishment as the one committing the crime.

"To him that knoweth to do good and doeth it not, to him it is sin." Jas 4:17; "If the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned... his blood will I require." Eze 33:6; "When a person ... sins ... about an event he saw, or knew, if he does not relate it, he shall bear his crime." Lev 5:1; "Whosoever ... shall confess me (the WORD) ... him will I confess also ... Whosoever shall deny me ... him will I also deny." Matt 10:32-33

From the remnant of man before the flood, God chose Noah because he was "perfect in his generations." From Noah's line he chose Abraham because he kept the Law. From Abraham's son Isaac we get our name - Isaac - Isaacsons - Saxons.

Saxon-man, made in the image of the WORD, is commanded by the WORD to turn away strangers because strangers are made in the image of the stranger's gods. Strangers do, think, and act as their gods made them. They speak and teach what they know, and what they know is a reflection of their gods. They are their gods' missionaries. The WORD is quite clear - they and their teachings are not allowed in our midst:

³ "Adam and Eve returned from the mountain ... and went down ...to the place where their corn was, but when there, a multitude of beasts came all round them. It was Satan's doing ... in order to wage war against Adam through marriage." I Adam & Eve 69:9-11

"Thou shall drive them out before thee. Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their gods. They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." Ex 23:31- 33

When strangers use subterfuges to try to join with us - we are instructed to refuse. The examples in the Scriptures are clear:

"(Strangers) heard that the children of the captivity builded the temple unto the Lord God of Israel; Then they came to ... the chief of the fathers, and said unto them. Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye do; and we do sacrifice unto him... But ... the fathers of Israel, said unto them, Ye have nothing to do with us to build a house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the Lord God of Israel ..." Ezra 4:1-3

We are not even allowed to send our missionaries to them - lest they pervert the pearls of the WORD we give them and send it back to our hurt.

"Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you." Matt 7:6; "No stranger (shall) eat of the holy thing." Lev 22:10

It should come as no surprise that Stalin, Ho Chi Minh, Mandella, and Mugabe - among the many killers of Saxons - were educated in "Christian" schools.⁴ The quotation marks emphasize that if the schools had actually taught the WORD, the strangers would not have been educated there.

"Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves." Matt 23:15

Kings

Man, made in the image of the WORD, rejects other gods. Man is to have "No other Gods." It is God's first commandment to man.

One way man can be made to accept the rule of alien gods

Brahma Holding The Mace

Brahma installs kings to rule lands he claims. This is represented by the Mace in his left hand received by his servants worldwide as a sign of his overlordship. Brahma also sends missionaries worldwide - his "Dharmamatras" - to bring all into his fold with the use of "Dharma".

is to force him to do so. Kings can supply the force. But man must first have a king. America has a king. It is the king's judges who ban the WORD that counteract the king's unLawful edicts. This is the reason man is forbidden to have kings (I Sam 8:5-22).

The early Goths and Germans had counselors, teachers, and wise-men - but no kings. The WORD made flesh appointed us to be kings.⁵ Thus, each of us is a king obedient to the WORD who rules as our King of kings.

Those having kings in spite of the prohibition against kings are ruled by a God than allows kings - not the WORD. The ones who know and do not tell are subject to the punishment proscribed by the WORD.

Usury

The WORD forbids usury and declares it to be a capital crime.⁶ Ganesa permits usury. Usurers worship Ganesa - not the WORD.

Ganesa - God of Wisdom,
Prosperity & Usury

Sodomy

"Alone among the major world religions, Buddhism does not condemn homosexuality or premarital sex.

The emphasis on Buddhism is on achieving a state of enlightenment, but the religion provides only guidelines, not strict commandments, as to how individuals should strive for this. Rape and adultery are considered misconduct, but an individual is free to engage in consenting sexual acts that do not violate marital monastic commitments."

⁵ "Jesus Christ... hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father." Rev 1:5-6

⁶ "Hath given forth upon usury ... he shall surely die." Ezek 18:13.

Church Policies on Gay Concerns, pp 234-239.

Buddha

God the WORD forbids "sodomy". It is a capital crime."⁷ The god who permits sodomy is Buddha. Those who practice, approve or tolerate sodomy - worship Buddha in place of the WORD.

Racial Inter-marriage

The WORD forbids racial intermarriage.⁸

Those who practice, approve, or fail to warn others that the WORD forbids racial intermarriage - worship Hari-Hara - the half-white, half-black god of integration. Any religious sect that worships Hari-Hara is a mortal enemy of the Saxon nation.

7 "If a man lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death." Lev 20:13

8 "Let them marry ... only to the family of the tribe of their father." Numbers 36:6; "A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of Israel." De 23:2; God made man and beast. According to Scripture, whatever is not man is beast. "Whosoever lieth with a beast shall surely be put to death." Ex 22:19; "Not everyone shall enter into the kingdom of heaven, but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven." Matt 7:21

War With Kinsmen

Hari-Hara - God of Racial Intermarriage

"Ye shall not ... fight against your brethren the children of Israel."
I Kings 12:24 "Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people." Lev 19:18.
"Blessed is the man who does not direct his heart with malice against any man." Enoch 44:3.

The exception is when man has violated the WORD which is God.
And even then God's punishment must be administered in obedience with the WORD. Those who unLawfully raise the hand of war against kinsmen and those who do not warn them against doing so are both guilty and both will receive God's punishment.

Man who unLawfully raises his hand against man rejects God the WORD and worships Kali - the god of death and destruction.

Deception

The pulpits lie when they conceal the 2/3s of the Bible that deal with the government of our people - the teaching that is necessary to bring God's Kingdom. This is gross deception. The priests lie, the king lies, and the great merchant lies.

The WORD forbids lying. This includes the lie of omission that destroys people. However, hope springs eternal. The Serpent God of India permits deception and lying. Liars worship the Serpent god - not the WORD.

The Wheel of Religion

The denominations professing to be Christian today live in a world of "illusion." They see their various denominations as spokes in a great wheel - all pointing inward to God.

Kali - Goddess of Death & Destruction

The Serpent - God of Deception

Wheel Of Destiny

This is the real wheel - the Hindu Wheel of Destiny. Organized Christianity with all its sects is only one of the many religions that have been created or captured by "dharma" over the millennia. Each organized religion is a spoke that leads to the center where resides the God of Deception - the Serpent.

Each of these religions pretend to be separate, but all worship, or tolerate the worship of the same gods. Their primary efforts of each is to suppress the gods of the nations whose followers they label "terrorist." With only a token protest, the Organized Church in America watches and secretly applauds the King as he stamps out competition from the WORD from every crack and cranny of the country.

The talk of having a One World Religion is only talk. As we have seen earlier - Organized Christianity already worships Hindu gods instead of the WORD which should be their God. There is nothing more they can do to prove allegiance to their Hindu gods except continue to obey them.

Today's Christendom

Clockwise: Symbol of the Dutch Reformed Church, Orthodox, Roman Catholic, Episcopal, Methodist, Lutheran.

Wheel Of Destiny

The spokes point all organized religions to the center in which resides the Serpent. From the top clockwise: Judaism, Brahma, Siva, Witchcraft, Christian, Buddha, Hari-Hara, Islam, American Indian, Taoist, Voodoo.

Always Two Religions

All nations have two gods.

Islam has two gods. There is the State approved "Allah" who dispenses state edicts in place of the teachings of Mohammed. Then there is the true "Allah" revealed in Mohammed's teachings. The first Allah is created by agents of the Hindu merchant - the other "Allah" is revealed by devout Muslims quoting Mohammed.

In the West, there are two religions. One is the state approved "Jesus" who dispenses state edicts in place of the WORD. Then there is the WORD. The establishment "Jesus" is created by agents of the Hindu merchant - the second "Jesus" is the WORD made flesh.

The Iraq War

We are told that among the reasons the king of America invaded the country of Iraq is oil, loot, and to hunt for "weapons of mass destruction." But the greater reason is to suppress the rebellious Islamic religion. The International Trade Cartel cannot govern countries they create if the nation that lives in that country returns to the laws of its god. There cannot be two law systems in a country at the same time.

"No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other." Matt. 6:24

Neither can the American army suppress resurgent Islam. It doesn't have to. All that is needed is to make Islam hate the Saxons enough to began a Holy War - which is the nature of the children of Esau.

This way, a second thousand-year war between the Nation of Islam and the Saxon Nation can commence. The Cartel god, Kali the Destroyer, teaches that a thing must die and be burned if it is to be reborn as something new (reincarnation). It is no accident that the cities of the separatist Saxon nation in Germany and the separatist Japanese nation were burned to the ground. In the Hindu mind they had to be destroyed and burned to be reborn into a One World. The new cities financed and built by the Cartel look identical to each other - naturally. Cartel architecture is One World - the people to be reborn are a tolerant One World people, a mixture of all races and all religions whose allegiance is to the state alone because the nations of the world will have destroyed each other and the Cartel remains.

The fire has been ignited. The Cartel can withdraw its puppet American army any time it likes, stand aside, and watch Islam's nation and the Saxon nation slaughter each other for the next thousand years.

"And their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel." Ezekiel 1:3-16

The White Horse & Its Rider

There will come an end to the wheels and the wheels within wheels of the Cartel. In Revelations we read:

"And behold a white horse."

"I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat on him ... doth judge and make war ... and his name is called The WORD of God." Rev 19:11-13

There is no picture or image of the WORD which is God.⁹ But we do know about his horse - his white horse.

The sign of the Saxon has always been - the White Horse.

Look - that's the Saxon - that's us! Our Saxon nation all over the world!

⁹ "Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image." Ex 20:4

"And he that sat on him ... his name is called the WORD of God

The symbol of the Saxon has always been the White Horse!

It is our high honor to bear the one whose name is "The WORD of God" to the field of Armageddon - known also as Ragnarak - to the coming judgment and to make war.

God speed the day!

Chapter 356

NATIONS Within STATES

A nation is a people defined by distinctive characteristics. A country (state) is a business monopoly whose boundaries are established by the creators of that state.¹

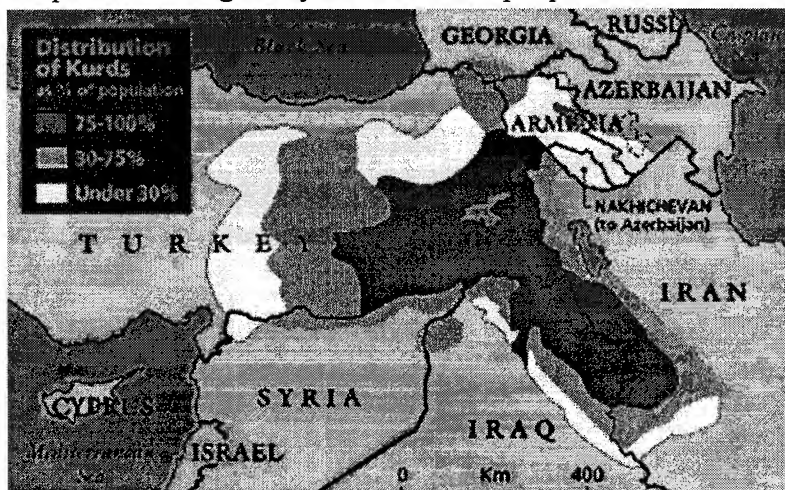

Dividing & Destroying Nations

Nations will not allow outsiders to dictate their religion, government, trade laws or customs. They want to be left alone. This attitude impacts international trade - even to the point of preventing it. Agents of the international merchant solve the problem by breaking up nations, placing the several parts in diverse market areas called "countries" and vilifying their efforts to re-unite by branding their efforts "terrorism".

This treatment prevents a nation from using its laws and religion to interfere with cartel trade between diverse nations.

Kurds

The Kurds are one of the keys to understanding the Mideast. The problem with the Kurds is that from the dawn of their history they have scarcely submitted to any empire or conqueror for long. They are an ancient people who refuse to be ruled by others. This constant rebellion of a nation cannot be tolerated by religious, territorial or economic empires who feel that they must either be pacified and integrated with their neighbors - or destroyed - whichever comes first.

The Nation Of Kurds

The powerful kurd nation was divided among seven ITC created countries at the end of WWI in an attempt to subdue their independence. Without a country it remains a distinct separate nation with its own name "Kurdistan". It's revolutionary flag is on the Chapter page.

Kurdish history states that the oldest Sumerian records say that not later than 2000 BC the Kurds occupied the same lands in the region of middle Tigris that they do today. Once of pure Aryan stock they later mixed with other races.

They fought the Sumerian dynasties and the Hittites circa 1370 BC. As part of the Nairi confederation they fought Assyria and later helped in the overthrow of both Nineveh and Babylon.

They were treated as equals by the great leaders of the Persians and were guardians of Zoroastrian temples. They fought the Greeks of Xenophon on their retreat. The Kurds were not subdued by the Arab occupation of their land in the 7th-9th centuries and when the Mongols came in 1257, the Kurds massacred 20,000 of them. The Mongols retaliated in kind.

When Turks occupied Armenia and Kurdistan in 1514-35, Turkish colonists were settled in their region in an attempt to convert and pacify them. The effort failed. Kurds rose in revolt against Turkish laws from 1832 to 1847.

At the end of WWI, the International Cartel victors attempted to destroy the Kurd nation by carving it up among the countries they were creating. The result can be seen on the map.¹

The Kurd nation's continued rebellion resulted in a holocaust in the 1920s when the Turks attempted to stamp them out killing millions in the process.

Today, the Kurd nation stands in the middle of the attempt by the American Empire² to put Islam's religious nationalism back in the international bottle. If the foot were removed from their neck - they would probably dominate the Mideast.

The Basque Nation

The Basque nation is also ancient. It is neither Saxon, Celt, Mediterranean or Turk. It is the Basque "nation". It has its own language which is absolutely isolated from other European linguistic families. Even the alphabet varies according to the different dialects.

It has three provinces - Alva, Vizcaya or Biscaia and Guipuzcoa. These three provinces

Location Of Basque Nation

² "Empire" is another name for "internationalism". Internationalism may be economic, territorial or religious. All require integration of nations and peoples. "Nationalism" demands separation.

came together into a unified Basque nation circa 1300. They preserved their own laws and customs which their Spanish neighbors swore to observe and maintain.

Their independence lasted until the death of Ferdinand VII in 1833 when a series of wars exhausted the Basque people and left them at the mercy of Spain's internationalism.³

The ITC divided the Basque nation between France and Spain in order to weaken them and destroy their nationalism. They are not allowed to have their own country because their nation status makes them independent, separatist and a danger to inter-nation trade. The Basque are retaliating with a never-ending guerrilla warfare.

Gypsies

Gypsies are described by their host countries as "a nation of wandering minstrels." Others call them "a nation of parasites, thieves and murderers."

Roma Flag

They have their own newspapers, laws and government and consider themselves a distinct nation. Their flag is blue and green with the Hindu "Wheel of Destiny" in its center.

The Encyclopedia Britannica has this to say:

"The Gypsies of Europe ... call themselves by the name of Rom ... Miklosich identified (Rom) ... a low caste of Upper India." (Linguistic Survey of India, Vol xi., 1922, p. 11) E/B Gypsies, Vol 11, p. 40)

"Their religious views are a strange medley ... Among the Greeks they belong to the Greek Church, among the Mohammedans they are Mohammedans, in Rumania they belong to the National Church. In Hungary they are mostly Catholics, according to the faith of the inhabitants of that country. They have no ethical principles and they do not recognize the obligations of the Ten Commandments." p. 41)

"They have their own courts (romano-kris), conducted in the manner of the Gypsy-like peoples of India. Taboos are strictly enforced and punished by fines or expulsion from the tribe, mahrime (defilement, rejection)." p. 42)

"Equally famous is the Gypsy woman for her knowledge of occult practices. She is the real witch; who knows charms to injure the enemy or to help a friend ... and is also known for her skill in palmistry and fortune-telling by means of a special set of cards, the well-known Tarok (Tarot) of the Gypsies." E/B Gypsies, Vol 11, p. 42))

Sodomites

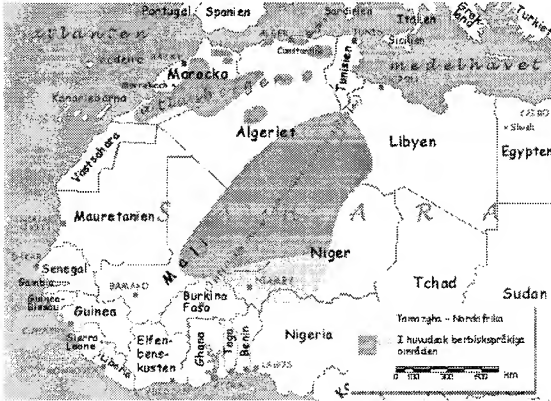

It is interesting to note that while Gypsies are a nation with no country - Sodomites fit almost the same requisites They have their own rules, customs, newspapers and literature. Some say they have their own Sodomite government. They appear as a nation with no national state while having their own flag which appears to be the flag of international Buddhism. Since Buddhism is the only religion that tolerates their life-style - it is logical to assume that they are Buddhist - the religion that has no god. They are a nation unto themselves - rejected by all who reject sodomy.

Berber Nation Divided Between Four

Berbers

The Berbers are a great mystery. My mentor, Col. Earnest Sevier Cox, told me that he had heard of blond haired, blue-eyed Berbers - although they have since mixed with their surrounding neighbors.

Berbers consider themselves a nation. They react violently to all attempts to make them accept the laws and government of the nations placed over them. They have their own traditions, laws, and government. Their flag consists of the strange design seen here.

Living in the Atlas Mountains they have proved to be a tough nut to crack. In the 1920s they all but destroyed a European army sent against them.

To try to destroy their fierce independence, the cartel created countries and drew their boundaries in such a way as to divide the Berbers into four parts. Now the Berbers are waging an intermittent war with four countries in their attempt to win their freedom. They are branded "terrorists" by the cartel media in each country in which they reside. Of course, they look on those persecuting them as the true terrorists.

The Two Sicilies

Saxons invaded and settled N. Italy. Muslims invaded Sicily and S. Italy in the 7th century. A branch of the same Normans that invaded England in 1066 also invaded Sicily and subdued the Muslims. Unlike England where both the invaders and the invaded were all Saxons - the Normans who invaded the Two Sicilies were absorbed by the Muslims and disappeared.

The Muslims were conquered and forced to accept the universal multi-nation Catholic religion, but still they remained rebellious to their temporal rulers. The cartel at various times gave them over to the Austrians, French, and Spanish, among others, to try their hand at ruling them. All failed. In 1859-1860, Italy was united into a single political entity and half dozen or so states that had been independent or semi-independent disappeared - the Two Sicilies among them.

Kingdom Of The Two Sicilies

However, the Sicilians continue as a nation without a state, having their own customs and laws. Ruling invisibly alongside the nominal Italian government is the traditional Muslim type government of powerful families who collect their own taxes and dispense family justice just as they have always done. Sicilians call this form of government "Our Thing". The cartel media calls it - the Mafia - and brands them "terrorists."

Sicilians are Arab/Turks. The cartel success in integrating them into Saxon lands has been mixed, since they arrive complete with their "mafia" government.

This so-called "Mafia" is the family-government non-Saxons use world wide to govern themselves. It is the basis of the Chinese "Tongs" and black African "Tribes". Note Iraq: To them, any central government is a nominal government at best. Remove the current leader and life goes on. Local government is administered by "families" for their own benefit. It's an Arab-Turk-Muslim thing.

AZTLAN

The media-elected leaders of the American state have opened its frontiers to dilute the power of the Saxon nation by mixing them with alien nations. Practically, the Mexican border is non-existent. Millions of Mexicans are pouring in. It is not a haphazard invasion. The Mexican state, the Catholic church, and the rulers of the American state are working together to bring them in. The invaders believe that they are taking back what is theirs. Their political organization is called "La Raza" (The Race). The land they intend to repossess is called Aztlan.

Aztlan is the mythical place of origin of the Aztec peoples. It is believed that the Aztecs originated in the lands now occupied by the American states of Texas, Arizona, New Mexico and California taken over by the US after the Mexican-American War of 1846. From this region they migrated southward where they built their capitol, Mexico City. Linguistically related groups of peoples include the Paiute, Shoshoni, Hopi, Pima, Yaqui, Tepehaun, Raramuri (Tarahumara), Kiowas and Mayas.

They are well organized. 70,000 of them marched beneath "a sea of Mexican flags" protesting Proposition 187, a referendum measure that would deny many state benefits to illegal immigrants in California. The radicals seek nothing less than secession from the US, whether to form their own sovereign state or to reunify Aztlan with Mexico. Their newspapers and publications speak of "Aztlan's" transformation into "a de-facto nation" with its own culture, history, myth, geography, religion, education and language." Their resentment is expressed by Voz Fronteriza a Chicano student publication, which referred to Border Patrol officers killed in the line of duty as "pigs" trying to defend "the false frontier."⁴

Elizabeth Martizez wrote "Five Hundred Years of Chicano History", a book used in over 300 schools throughout the West to "celebrate our resistance to being colonized and absorbed by racist empire builders." The book by Rodolfo Acuna, author of Occupied America, includes a map showing "the Mexican republic" in 1822 reaching up into Kansas and Oklahoma, and including Utah, Nevada and everything west and south of there.

The creation of Aztlan will diminish the power of the Saxon - as it is designed to do.

Some Of The Rest

There is not space for a complete list of the world's nations victimized by the Hindu system of religion, government and trade and who are just waiting for their chance to revolt. Following is a partial list:

AFRICA: Africa has many black races. Each is different having its own customs, religion and laws. Each has a history of animosity toward other black nations. The cartel's European kings divided Africa among themselves. They were careful to divide each dominant black nation amongst several colonial jurisdictions - French, Portuguese, Belgian, Spanish, German, English, etc.

When the time was right for asset transfer, they turned the rule of these African countries over to one or other of the black nations that resided there. Naturally, the result was a blood-bath. In the following chaos, cartel corporations "privatized" the wealth of these black nations into their coffers.

The scenario: Initially, Africa's unused wealth went from blacks to European corporate states allegedly to benefit Saxon subjects with blacks receiving scraps, which is more than they had before. Then, on command, Europe abandoned rule and turned it over to one or other of the black nations in the country to rule other black nations - a surefire formula for chaos. Next, the Hindu corporation moved in and privatized the assets along with the workers. At last, relative peace descended with the seized assets now protected by newly appointed tribal kings whose armies are hired by the cartel. Anything new here?

FIGI: HR #311 covered the Island of Figi. Figi was a separate homogeneous island. To destroy the nation, the British imported large numbers of mixed-breed Indians who proceeded to take over and remove Figi from its isolation. The natives revolted to try to preserve their nation. The ITC world took the part of the Indian invading colonists.

SRI LANKA

was the refuge of

Buddhists fleeing Hindu persecution on the India mainland.⁵

Later, Britain ruled India. Britain moved thousands of Hindus from India's Tamil Province to Sri Lanka in an attempt to dilute the nationalism of that Buddhist nation. When Britain left, the Buddhist attempted to subdue their Hindu invaders, whose fighters are called "Tamil Tigers" and who are supplied with munitions from Israel.

Sri Lanka - Buddhist

TIBET is the ancient home of the Dalai Lama in exile - the spiritual leader of the world's Buddhists. In the past, the Chinese nation has been conquered both by Buddhists and by Catholics. At various times Chinese converts obeyed the Dalai Lama - or the Pope - before obeying their own Chinese national leaders. As a result, Chinese rulers periodically occupy Tibet to retain control of their own nation and they are constantly having to curtail the activities of the Catholic Church.

Conclusion

A nation is a people defined by distinctive characteristics. A country (state) is a business monopoly whose boundaries are established by the creators of that state.

The ITC has divided the Saxon nation among many states to weaken their power. Media-elected kings, priests and usury merchant-bankers have been placed over them to be their rulers. - Admiralty Law its god.

The God of our Saxon nation is the WORD.

Other nations are made in the image of their gods. It is important to realized that while separate nations neither like nor trust other nations - they all stand to profit by throwing off the rule of the International Trade Cartel, nationalizing the Cloak of Esau, and outlawing usury banking. On these matters we can work as one.

Chapter 357

ESAU's ILLUSIONS

Esau's strength is "deception". His ability to deceive comes from his study and knowledge of the WORD. The Book of Jasher 7:23-30 reveals that the WORD is "Adam's Cloak". Covered by Adam's Cloak man is covered with God's Laws and thinks logically.

The Cloak of Adam was stolen by Ham and used to do evil. Nimrod inherited the Cloak and the whole world believed him to be their leader when he used it. Esau coveted the Cloak. He lay in wait and slew Nimrod and stole the Cloak and has used it ever since to deceive mankind. Organized religion is today paid by the international merchant to censor the WORD. While pretending to be clothed in Adam's Cloak of Truth they actually wear Esau's Cloak of Deception.

"Thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived." Rev 18:23

The Dollar Illusion

Take a minute and look at a dollar bill. It was created out of nothing. Banks can create as many pieces of "nothing" as they like any time they want and use these created "nothings" to buy whatever they wish - things like land, ships, cities and men.¹

It's legal. Lawmakers passed laws making it legal. Lawmakers passed these laws in exchange for the bank owned media giving them favorable publicity so they could be elected to their cushy jobs. Of course, it should be emphasized again - the media is bank-owned - and it is the banks who create "nothing" out of thin air which they used to purchase the media.

Our sound money system is a gift from Esau² - it is media created - it is an illusion.

1 "Thou shall not steal." Ex 20:15; "Whoso is partner with a thief hateth his own soul." Pr 29:24; "Thou shall not defraud thy neighbor." Lev 19:13; "Thieves ... shall (not) inherit the kingdom of God." 1 Cor 6:9,10;

2 "Esau was a designing and deceitful man, one who hunted after the hearts of men and he stole their minds." Jasher 29:20

Socialism Illusion

In the '60s and '70s there was a craze in academia to encourage government to "nationalize" certain privately owned businesses - "to help the common man."

In fact, government confiscated those private businesses whose owners would not sell. Then, after people forgot - the average public forgetting time is four years - they privatized the property into the hands of buyers who wanted it in the first place. Neat!

Stealing private property and calling it "nationalization for the good of the people" is a media created illusion. It is a double illusion when the purchase price is paid for in "nothings".

Billionaire Illusion

Moscow, the capitol of one of the most impoverished countries in the world, a country that had difficulty coming up with a dozen millionaires 10 years ago, now has more billionaires than any city in the world. How was this economic miracle possible?

The Art of Grand Theft

Long ago the Czar of Russia nationalized the people's wealth for himself. Communist revolutionaries overthrew the Czar and nationalized the Czar's wealth. They said that it was for the good of the people. Russia then embraced capitalism. The new government took the communist owned wealth and privatized it into the hands of the International Merchant. The managers appointed by the Cartel to oversee these vast assets placed in their hands are Moscow's "overnight billionaires." They are Cartel managers of the wealth of the Russian people.

Nothing has changed. A manager of someone else's billions can be called "a billionaire" - but the billions are not his - they belong to the Cartel. It's a media created illusion.

Stock Company Owner Illusion

A company sells stock to the public. The stock is traded on an exchange and rises and falls in value based on its earnings and promotion. The media says that "stockholders" own the company. The WORD says:

"The borrower is slave to the lender." Pr:22:7

Practically every company is up to its ears in debt. Lending contracts give the lender precedence over stock owners. Companies in debt are slaves to their lenders. Even Henry Ford and Bill Gates borrowed money. The lender is the master - the borrower is the slave. The owner of companies in debt is the lender. Stockholder ownership sounds good - but it is an illusion.

Press Freedom Illusion

We are constantly told about the "freedom of the press." In fact, the world media, with miniscule exceptions, is Cartel owned. There is NO freedom in the Cartel press. Ten thousand newspapers world-wide often have the same front page story on the same day with the same word-for-word story. The world-wide Cartel media speaks with one voice.

Weekly I receive advertisements from some of the most prestigious publications in the country. One has subscription price of $278 a year, but is offered to me for the special price of $35. This is a slick 300 page weekly magazine. The $35 will hardly cover the postage. How do they do it?

The answer is that the Cartel media is subsidized. This is accomplished by requiring non-media Cartel Corporations to give money to the Cartel media in the form of advertising.

Non-Cartel media get no advertising. Their existence is a daily hand-to-mouth struggle. However, their sacrificial labor provides information to national patriots that would destroy the Cartel if unopposed.

The Cartel seldom directly attacks the alternate media. It would look like Goliath fighting a gnat and would give stature and credibility to their message. Instead, the Cartel has established its own fraudulent right-wing alternate-media. It is my belief that a full 2/3s of the so-called right-wing "alternate media" are actually multi-nationals posing as national publications. Cartel sugar-daddies subsidize them with direct grants instead of advertising. Their "right-wing" talk hides the face of Esau while they tunnel under Saxon defenses. They are easily identified by their aversion to the WORD.

The second method of attacking the alternate media without mentioning their message is to connect the alternate media with some violent event. The inference is that something the writer said made the perpetrator do it.

For instance: The government alleged that Timothy McVeigh was responsible for blowing up the Federal building in Oklahoma City. The media claims that Dr. William Pierce's book, "Turner Diaries" was found in McVeigh's car. The media pulled the same thing again with an incident that occurred in Florida where they again claimed that Pierce's book was found in the car of the Florida perpetrator, too. Again, the inference was that Pierce's book made the perpetrator do it.

In my case, a gunman wounded several children in California. The media alleged that my economics book War

Cycles/Peace Cycles was found in the shooter's car. A media storm broke over the affair. My web cite was canceled, threats were made. book orders dropped 50%, and never once was "usury", the subject matter of my book, mentioned. You have to hand it to them - they know what they are doing. The whole book thing was "slight of hand" - an illusion without substance.

50-Year Anniversary Brown vs Board Illusion

Half a century ago a Supreme Court, appointed by a Cartel President, decreed that separate national schools for blacks and whites were illegal.

The 50th anniversary of the event is now being celebrated across America. Media-kudos relating the glories of multiculturalism and multi-nationalism are daily front page. The evils of separatism are also daily fare.

The truth is - "Brown vs. Board" destroyed public school education for both Blacks and Whites. Public education is a national disaster. Ask either Black or White nationalist educators.

The glories of integrated education are a media created illusion.

Open Season

Brown vs Board of Education also marked the beginning of "open season" on Whites - an orgy of rape and murder promoted and protected by a multi-national government:

"Walter E. Williams (black columnist) quoting US Dept of Justice records: There have been during the past 20 years, 6.6 million violent crimes of murder, rape, robbery, and assault. 20% of those were interracial. Of these, 90% of the victims were white. Blacks murder Whites 18 times the rate that Whites murder Blacks. Black on White assaults are 21 times the opposite. Mr. Williams believes that Whites have become insensitive to Black crime because the government and the media report all White crime committed against Blacks and little Black crime against Whites. Citizen Review, reported in #HR, June 1997

The media does not report the race of the criminal so that Whites will not know what is happening:

RACE CRIME: U.S. Justice Dept. statistics for 1991 show that for every 100 rapes committed by whites against blacks, blacks committed 20,204 rapes against whites.

It gets worse.

"The Race War of Black Against White"

By Paul Sheehan³

"For the past 30 years a large segment of black America has waged a war of violent retribution against white America....

"In the past 20 years, violent crime has increased more than four times faster than the population. Young blacks (under 18) are more violent than previous generations and are 12 times more likely to be arrested for murder than young whites.

"Nearly all the following figures, which speak for themselves, have not been reported in America:

"* According to the latest US Department of Justice survey of crime victims, more than 6.6 million violent crimes (murder, rape, assault and robbery) are committed in the US each year, of which about 20 per cent, or 1.3 million, are inter-racial crimes.

³ Sydney Morning Herald, May 20, 1995

"* Most victims of race crime - about 90 per cent - are white, according to the survey "Highlights From 20 Years of Surveying Crime Victims," published in 1993.

"* Almost 1 million white Americans were murdered, robbed, assaulted or raped by black Americans in 1992, compared with about 132,000 blacks who were murdered, robbed, assaulted or raped by whites, according to the same survey.

"* Blacks thus committed 7.5 times more violent inter-racial crimes than whites even though the black population is only one-seventh the size of the white population. When these figures are adjusted on a per capita basis, they reveal an extraordinary disparity: blacks are committing more than 50 times the violent racial crimes of whites.

* According to the latest annual report on murder by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, most inter-racial murders involve black assailants and white victims, with blacks murdering whites at 18 times the rate that whites murder blacks.

"These breathtaking disparities began to emerge in the mid-1960s, when there was a sharp increase in black crime against whites, an upsurge which, not co-incidentally, corresponds exactly with the beginning of the modern civil rights movement.

"Over time, the cumulative effect has been staggering. Justice Department and FBI statistics indicate that between 1964 and 1994 more than 25 million violent inter-racial crimes were committed, overwhelmingly involving black offenders and white victims, and more than 45,000 people were killed in inter-racial murders. By comparison, 58,000 Americans died in Vietnam, and 34,000 were killed in the Korean War.

"When non-violent crimes (burglary, larceny, car theft and personal theft) are included, the cumulative totals become prodigious. The Bureau of Justice Statistics says 27 million non-violent crimes were committed in the US in 1992, and the survey found that 31 per cent of the robberies involved black offenders and white victims (while only 2 per cent in the reverse).

"When all the crime figures are calculated, it appears that black Americans have committed at least 170 million crimes against white Americans in the past 30 years. It is the great defining disaster of American life and American ideals since World War II. All these are facts, yet by simply writing this story, by assembling the facts in this way, I would be deemed a racist by the American news media. It prefers to maintain a paternalistic double standard in its coverage of black America, a lower standard." (ends quote).

Brown vs Board of Education destroyed public education. Brown vs Board of Education also signaled "open season" on whites - all concealed and re-interpreted by the Cartel's multi-national media.

The Integration Question!

The question our politicians, religious leaders, and corporation heads won't touch with a 10-foot pole is: How is it possible for the Saxon race to be robbed, murdered and raped by another race unless the two races are forced to live together?

The joys of multi-nationalism and multi-culturalism are a media created illusion.

Friendly Agents Provocateur

The WORD's order to all Saxons is crystal clear:

"Read this law before all Israel ... that they may ... do all the words of this law." Deut 31:11-12

If in fact, 2/3s of the so-called "right-wing" alternate media is a multi-national front - how can you tell who is who?

Easy! The fraudulent 2/3s cannot quote the WORD and at the same time serve their pay-masters who pay them to discredit the WORD. It's that simple. They can tell you how bad our enemies are - but they can't quote the WORD that says so.

Have you noticed that it is these 2/3s who continuously beat the drum for race war?

Separate nations don't like each other - which is why they are separate. If separated - it is difficult to be abrasive.

Naturally, we must defend ourselves to survive, but this is a far cry from "race-war" being talked about.

What does the Scripture say about "strife"?

"The beginning of strife is as when one letteth out water: therefore leave off contention, before it be meddled with." Pr 17:14

What I'm pointing out is that many right-wing pundits have no PLAN other than strife itself.

What Causes Strife?

The WORD openly and forcefully opposes the things that cause strife - kings, usurers, monopolies, strangers in the land, taxes, undivided land, etc. - all of these things CAUSE strife. Why don't these certain right-wingers condemn these things - all of them?

The answer may be that they are "right-wingers" in name only. To them STRIFE is an end in itself. This is what kings do. It might be an illusion to think that many of our "right-wing" leaders are right-wingers.

Kings

Who was it in the first place that insisted that Virginia's Indians be accepted into Saxon society? The king who ruled a multi-national empire.

Who insisted that Black slaves be sold into Virginia? The king of a multi-national empire.

Who reacted violently against the separatist African Colonization Movement - and fought a non-declared War Between The States to keep cheap black labor from leaving? A king - now called "Mr. President".

Who is allowing Hispanics to flood the nation to cause strife and disruption? The king of a multi-national empire.

Who is fighting a non-declared war against the separatist nation of Islam? The king of a multi-national empire.

What shall we do about Kings who force different nations to live together so that there will be strife? That question is one that will be solved in time.

Multi-nationalism is built on strife. Multi-nationalism rules by instigating perpetual strife between nations.

Saxon Nationalism is built on obedience to the WORD which is God. The WORD requires separation from alien nations. Separation brings peace. Entering into STRIFE for the sake of STRIFE - and expecting peace to result - is an illusion.

The WORD God's Government

Daily we ask our Father for help and guidance in setting up His government on earth:

"Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name, Thy government come, Thy will be enforced on earth, as it is in heaven." Matt: 6:9

Zionism Destroyed

The international Jew is part of the Civil Service of the multi-national International Trade Cartel. Jewish Zionism is a "nation". The multi-national Cartel instigates strife between nations to destroy them so that their remnants can be merged into the one-world multi-nation Trade Cartel.

The Zionists are a nation; Islam is a nation; if the Cartel helps Islam destroy noisy, demanding, problem making Zionism - using vassal countries who are today Zionist allies - nothing will have changed for the rest of the world when Zionism is gone; the Cartel civil-service will remain.

When God's government is in place - things will be different. Obedience to the WORD will be required. This upsets the anti- christs. They know that they will be required to be obedient or they will be punished for their disobedience:

"But these enemies of mine, which would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me." Luke 19:27

The WORD says that this is how it will be when God's government is come. All else is an illusion.

A Horse By Any Other Name

There are Jews - and then again - there are people who say they are Jews, or say that they are Christian-Jews, or Muslim-Jews, or just leave off the "Jew" part and call themselves English, German, or Panamanian, or Presbyterian, or Jesuit, or Episcopalian, or Buddhist, or Hindu, or any one of a half a hundred names. By whatever name they go by their service is to the multi-national Cartel. These people serve the Cartel regardless of what they are called, or call themselves, or what you call them.

Cartel Civil Service

The International Trade Cartel (ITC) is a gigantic world-wide operation. It has its own "civil service" that looks after Cartel interests. It has always had this civil service. It's like an iceberg - 10% above surface. The rest goes by other names. The Cartel media and its agents purposely points their fingers at the visible 10% to prevent unwanted attention toward the unseen 90% who are doing their job day-in and day-out.

This Cartel "civil-service" is found in every government and every bank and business corporation. Trained people are on duty looking after Cartel interests on a permanent basis.⁴

Cartel vs Zionism

There are Jews who work for the Cartel and there are Zionist Jews who work for the Cartel and also work for their own nation. They have dual loyalties.

The first is an ITC caste. The second serves the Cartel and also serves another master - its own nation. Cartel-Jews are multi- nationals - the second group, the "Zionist Jews" are nationalist. Multi-nationals are enemies of nationalists.

Disruptive Zionism

From: "La Voz de Aztlan" (aVoz@aztlan.net) May 20, 2004

A U.S. senator's charge that Israel is behind the Bush administration's decision to invade Iraq has rattled American Jewish leaders. Sen. Ernest Hollings, a South Carolina Democrat, wrote a column that appeared in several newspapers. The column asserted that the U.S. war against Iraq represented a decision by President George Bush to protect Israel and ensure American Jewish support for his re-election.

"The column reflects a growing sentiment in the corridors of power in Washington according to congressional sources. ... "There is a strong fear among American Jewish leadership that the whispering campaign that ⁴ It is my personal belief that the Cartel "civil service" is the conduit bringing other Cartel castes into the West in the guise of holocaust survivors, hotel manager/owners, business CEOs, and ordinary "wet-backs" - each caste, one after the other - bursting into our midst with no protest by government, media, or pulpit.

'the Jews started it,' will become public," a senior congressional staffer said. "We could be seeing others get on Hollings' bandwagon. ... Hollings said in a column first published on May 6 in the Charleston Post and Courier. "You don't come to town and announce that your Israel policy is to invade Iraq." Congressional sources said Hollings was expressing a view that has become increasingly prevalent in Congress and parts of the administration. The column was reprinted on Hollings's website...."

Are Zionist Jews Being "Set-Up"?

Multi-national Cartel-Jews serve as the ITC "civil service". Zionist-Jews serve the Cartel and are increasingly using Cartel power and office to serve their own nation. They have mixed loyalties. Nationalism and multi-nationalism mix like oil and water.

All strife serves the ITC. Zionist vs Islamic strife serves the ITC. It boosts business and makes the survivors dependent on the protection of Cartel government.

Let us suppose that the disgust with the Iraqi War spills over into a disgust with Jewish-Zionism - that according to Sen. Hollings - has taken America into the war to fight for the Israeli nation.

Suppose further that if support for the Israeli state evaporates, the Zionist state in Palestine is swamped and drowns in an Islamic sea while Zionism elsewhere in the world is also destroyed. The result would be that the non-Zionist "so-called Jews" elsewhere in the world would continue with their primary duty as the Cartel's "civil service".

The question then is - what would be different for the nations of the world?

The answer - NOTHING!

Conclusion

Today our people are in a stupor.⁵ Being "stupid" has little to do with one's level of education, job position, income or wealth. A person can become "stupefied" by mis-information, dis-information or lies. Or, he can receive so many conflicting opinions that he finds it impossible to arrive at a reasoned decision. The result is he becomes "stupefied". He doesn't know what to think - he becomes stupid. Stupid is the result of being deceived by the Cloak Of Esau that transforms the real world into an illusion.

But, I've got good news!

"(God the WORD) will destroy ... the covering cast over all people, and the veil that is spread over all nations." Isiah 25:7

The Cloak of Esau that has deceived all nations for so long will return to Adam-man. The WORD will cause Man to awake suddenly and obey - and peace will descend on the world.

LETTER FROM S. AFRICA by K.J.

I mentioned that the Buddhist community at Bronkhorstspuit complained about a cross on an Afrikaan church across the street. Last Thursday the cross had been removed; its replacement was a tiny cross made of glass bricks which can hardly been seen.

⁵ Stupid: "Lacking in understanding; in a state of stupor; stupefied." Webster's New Collegiate Dictionary

These Buddhist are Chinese. Their law system is enforced by "Triads". Their business appears to include smuggling and murder.

When blacks have a funeral it is like a huge party. Poor blacks leave their dead at funeral parlours to be buried in pauper's graves.

Since the Mbeki's inauguration medicine prices have doubled. Huge government departments have been ordered to fire white workers and replace them with mostly illiterate Xhosas, the black tribe now ruling.

The media is constantly fermenting hatred against whites - primarily against Afrikaners - never forgetting to mention "apartheid" and "racism" in every story. Mbeki made his round of speech-making and he too did not forget to mention racism in every speech.

Many post offices have closed to save money, making it difficult to send and receive mail.

Our pension fund was supposed to be closed, but a way was found to get into it. Some time ago a young Jew complained bitterly that his poor father lost his four expensive cars in a fraud case. We discovered that this old Jew had stolen 1.4 billion rand from the fund. He was the broker who had been put there by blacks. Everything these two nations touch turns into a mess. The poor pensioners will loose everything.

Betzy told us how careful they have to be with the Loerie Children not to let them see motion pictures full of pornography. All the family magazines and newspapers plus TV have turned to pornography. We never had to worry about such problems in the old days. When I went to school we had an academy of music and were taken by bus to Johannesburg to attend all the great operas and listen to the great singers of the day - some whom had performed in Heidelberg.

What we learn of Bush's War in Iraq is really most unpleasant. It is not the way to behave at all. But, England did the same in former years. Even now, a century later, some of their atrocities are coming to light; like having the blacks rape white women and even very young girls. Betzy told us of cases where a midwife during the war helped those raped women get rid of the half-breed fetuses in Pretoria. I was told how the English in Eastern Transvaal got the blacks to ferret out white women and children hiding in the mountains and the treatment they endured. We don't like women to go fight in other countries, but it is something else for women to fight in one's own country to defend their families.

Even now, the media incites blacks against whites by providing them with pictures of naked white women. Hans told me they used to have posters of white women in their rooms, but now they display them openly.

Yours faithfully, K.J.

JUDGE ROY MOORE: "Dear Mr. Hoskins; It seems that you were right about '10-Commandments' Roy Moore. He is to be an honored guest at Ed McAteer's Prayer Breakfast honoring the Israeli state." M.B. - Abilene, Texas

UNFILTERED NEWS

FBI MISIDENTIFIES: The FBI apologized to Brandon Mayfield after a judge in Portland, Oregon, dismissed the case in which he was jailed as a material witness in the Madrid train bombings that killed 191 and injured 2,000. Mayfield is a lawyer whose fingerprints were mistakenly tied to the terrorist attack. The FBI said that a computer error led to the misidentification of his fingerprints and that they would review their practices. (Christian Science Monitor, p.20, May 26, 2004)

EMMIT TILL: The Justice Department is re-opening the fifty year old Emmitt Till case. The Cartel intends to re-start racial conflict against Southern Whites.

Till was a fresh young black who came South, made advances to a Saxon's wife - which violates the WORD that prohibits Saxons having sexual relations with strangers, and was shot. Those accused of shooting Till were acquitted. There were no blacks on the jury because the WORD says that strangers are not to rule over son-of-Isaac. The re-opening the half-century old Till Case is done to stir up racial strife.

NUNS UNDER GUN: Nine former students at a Roman Catholic school filed a lawsuit alleging that they were sexually and physically abused between 1944 and 1977 by nuns who ran the now defunct Boston School for the Deaf. The case is the first to allege widespread abuse by nuns. (Story in C.S.M., p.20, May 13, 2004)

AUSTRALIA: The Australian government is fighting the Cartel's abortion holocaust by offering new mother's $2,100. Treasurer Peter Costello said couples should have three children: "One for your husband, one for your wife and one for your country." (Story in IBD, A2, May 13, 2004)

FACT: "Adjusted for inflation, many Americans make significantly less today than in 1973, when wage levels were at their highest. Average weekly wages in 2003 for non-management workers in private industry were actual $116 lower than 30 years before, in real terms, or about $6,000 less a year. This is according to Bureau of Labor Statistics data adjusted for inflation, and then calculated in 2003 dollars by the National Poverty Center at the Univ. of Michigan. ..."The Christian Science Monitor, p.8, May 11, 2004

SPAIN REFUSES: Spanish military forces in Iraq refused a US command last month to launch an offensive against an Iraqi militia that has since taken the Shia holy city of Najaf, according to José Enrique de Ayala, a top general. Meanwhile, Bono, the Spanish defense minister, said Spanish troops would not follow a US order to hand over Moqtada al-Sadr, leader of the militia, dead or alive". "As long as we're in Iraq, we'll follow international law," he said. (Story in Financial Times, p.3, May 12, 2004)

KENNEWICK MAN: Anthropologists believe that the bones of the Kennewick Man are Causacoid, not American Indian. The 9th Circuit Court of Appeals has rejected a request by four tribes for a rehearing in the dispute which means they cannot take control of the bones and block scientists from being able to study them. (American Free Press, May 10, 2004)

RKH: It also ruins the Cartel propaganda line that Indians were here first and thus are "native Americans" and entitled to anything and everything they can extort from Saxons.

AIDS INDIA: India may have overtaken S. Africa as the world's most HIV-infected country, the World Health Organization reported. (IBD, A2, 5/12/04)

RKH: Why not? The sex-god Siva is India's chief god, and sex is the god of blacks everywhere in the world.

ROSS PEROT, yesterday's great phony conservative who did all he could to keep the lid on Saxon Nationalism, is contributing to the "outsourcing" phenomenon. His Perot Systems, which did $1.5 billion in sales last year, is adding 3,500 jobs in India for a subsidiary to process medical claims for U.S. firms. (Story in Nationalist Times, p.17, May 2004)

COLUMBIA TERRORISTS TAX: Chiquita Brands, the world's biggest banana producer, announced that they were paying Colombian terrorist organizations protection money so that they can continue to do business in that country. (Financial Times, p.3, May 12, 2004)

RKH: Colombian nationalists object to having their land confiscated by the government to be later "privatized" to Cartel agents, and are consequently branded "terrorists" by the US and Columbian Cartel governments.

VENEZUELA: The US military mission was asked to leave all military bases which they have occupied for half a century. President Hugo Chaves accused Army Gen. James Hill, commander of US operations in Latin America, of knowing in advance of a purported conspiracy to topple his government with the help of paramilitary invaders from neighboring Colombia (outsourced contractors). US military is in Venezuela allegedly to train Venezuelan Air Force pilots and to advise on anti-drug operations. (Story in C.S.M., p.20, May 14, 2004)

SHARIA INVESTMENTS: Sharia investment (investment under Islamic religious law) is a small but growing part of the international market. It is seen as having huge potential given the upsurge in strict Islamic practice and the large funds available to oil-rich state of the Middle East. Financial Times, p.4, May 12, 2004

RKH: OK. We have Kosher and Islamic methods of doing business - where is the demand for business done according to Christian LAW - Law according to the Saxon WORD?

JAPETH vs ESAU: Two invasions taught Russian President Vladimir Putin, that Moscow could not control Chechnya. So he switched to "Chechenization" - relying on a native Chechen, former rebel leader Akhmad Kadyrov, to run things while toeing the Moscow line. That strategy literally blew up Sunday when a bomb killed Mr. Kadyrov. The next logical step would be to try a representative elected government. (Story in C.S.M., p.8, May 14, 2004)

TRIBE RECOGNITION: The U.S. Senate may soon vote to recognize Indian "nations" living in Virginia. This will endow their lands with the rights of "countries". These rights are to be extended to Chickahominy, Eastern Chickahominy, Upper Mattapoini, Rappahannock, Nansemond and Monacan Indian nations. This recognition includes the right to enforce certain Indian laws and rituals and consummate agreements now banned by the "state" of Virginia such as sharing in the $15 billion-a-year Indian gambling industry and also qualifying for special federal aid in housing, education and health care. (Story in News & Advance, May 10, 2004, A8)

SEARCH DEAL: Panama has wisely agreed to allow American officials to board Panamanian ships to search for WMD on the high seas. The same deal was offered to Liberia who also wisely agreed. (Story News & Advance, p.8, May 12, 2004)

RKH: America went to war with Britain in 1812 over the British boarding American ships to search for deserters.

STATEMENT: Army Lt. Gen Ricardo Sanchez, the highest ranking military commander in Iraq, was present during some of the abusive interrogations, according to the Washington Post quoting one of the accused army personnel. A Pentagon spokesman told the Post that statements by defense attorneys should be treated with "appropriate caution". (Story in C.S.M., p.20, May 23, 2004)

RKH: Sanchez has since been removed from command.

NON-EVENT: In mid-March, Kosovo Albanian Muslim mobs destroyed 30 Orthodox-Christian Serb churches in two days. (Story in C.S.M., p9, May 20, 2004.)

RKH: Six years ago the U.S. stormed and occupied the Slavic Orthodox-Christian country of Kosovo. The excuse was that it was necessary to stop ethnic "hate", "atrocities", "intolerance", etc. In fact, mixing Serbs and Muslims together caused the strife in the first place - it always does. Strife provided the excuse for the Clinton invasion. The invasion provided the opportunity to loot Kosovo while punishing the leaders of the Christian Serbs. While the country is occupied and looting is in process - ethnic strife is a non-event - a thing properly ignored by Cartel media whose primary job is to encourage strife - not dispense news.

LUTHERAN SODOMITES: Two California congregations and one in Minnesota have hired openly sodomite pastors. The Rev Jennifer Mason hired by San Bernardino

Central City Lutheran Mission, Rev Daniel M. Hooper by Hollywood Lutheran Church, and Rev. Jay Wiesner in Minneapolis by Bethany Lutheran Church. (Story News & Advance, B6, Apr 24, 2004)

S.AFRICA: Of 10,000 white farmers in S. Africa, 1,426 have been butchered since BLACK rule began." CARIZ, POB 635, Strathpine P.S 4500, Australia

Chapter 358

THE MERCHANT & His Henchmen

Aso

Black Good - White Bad

The world is the merchant's market. The merchant must organize the market before it can be properly exploited.

To organize a market the merchant hires a king and provides money for his army.

Kings police trade areas while they are being organized into efficient markets. Ruled by kings these market areas are called kingdoms. Over time, the merchant brings in his own loyal civil service to manage business. A strong civil service makes kings redundant. They are replaced. Temporary help, actors, are hired to pretend to be rulers and who are given various illustrious titles.

An organized market area is a country. A "country" is peopled with nations. It is the merchant's policy to include several "nations" when organizing a country.

Each nation has its own Gods, customs and law-systems. Bringing alien nations in contact with each other causes conflict. Providing peace between hostile nations guarantees

The Merchant's Harvest

"Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel ... for this thing is from me." I Kings 12:24

"Thus saith the Lord God ... Because thou has ... slain thy brethren of thy father's house ... behold, with a great plague will the Lord smite thy people, and thy children." II Chron 21:12-14

"If the watchman see ... and the people be not warned ... his blood will I require." Ezek 33:6

the king and his successors a reason for existence. He is peace-keeper, protector and referee-judge.

The ruler dispenses justice under the merchants legal system called Admiralty Law. Admiralty Law retains local customs and traditions as long as they do not conflict with the merchant's trade.

Admiralty Law is the worldwide mercantile code. It governs transactions between merchants. All kingdoms and countries are required to bring their legal codes into compliance.

The Merchant's Harvest

"Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel ... for this thing is from me." I Kings 12:24

"He who vents anger on any man without injury, the Lord's great anger will cut him down, he who spits on the face of man reproachfully, will be cut down at the Lord's great judgment. Blessed is the man who does not direct his heart with malice against any man." Enoch 44:2,3

"Whoso sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed: for in the image of God made he man." Gen 9:8-15

"If the watchman see ... and the people be not warned ... his blood will I require." Ezek 33:6

The Business Of Religion

Organizing religion is a job requirement for merchants.

The merchant must be a religious expert to overcome the objections of hostile national gods.

The Adamic-WORD, God of the Saxons, forbids kings, taxes, monopolies, strangers, usury, war with one's own kind, requires land division and once the land is divided among men forbids it to be sold. These impossible restrictions ham-string the merchant. To remove these restrictions he has two basic options:

He can hire a contractor such as Attila the Hun, Imperial Rome, the British Empire, or the United States to storm a selected market area and

The Merchant's Harvest

"Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel ... for this thing is from me."

1 Kings 12:24

"In case one of their own blood ... should attempt to confound or dissolve their constitution of government (The WORD), they should take vengeance on them, both all in general, and each person in particular that if they were not able to take such vengeance, they should still demonstrate that what was done was contrary to their wills. So the multitude bound themselves by oath to do so."
Antiquities 4:8:45

"If Thy brother ... entice thee ... saying, let us go and serve other gods ... thou shall surely kill him; thine hand shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterwards the hand of all the people."
Deut. 13:6-11

"If the watchman see ... and the people be not warned ... his blood will I require."
Ezek 33:6

force potential customers into debt¹ and to accept the merchant's Admiralty Law which outlaws religious restrictions.

The use of force is expensive, destructive, and causes "morning after" problems - if the offending religion is not revised. Force is the crude way to ensure compliance.

The more sophisticated solutions the merchant can use are:

1: Have his king appoint a religious leader to create a copy of the original religion but modified to leave out or ignore the offending laws that impede the merchant's business. Religions which have appointed leaders rule from the top-down. As "episcopal" organizations they have the power to immediately isolate and suppress non-compliance. This system has existed as long as there have been empires and is ideal as long as the people accept it.

The second solution is more simple:

2: Contract with existing religious leaders to simply exclude the parts of their religion that offend the merchant. Payment for this exclusion is provided by tax-exemption and media-access which allows priests and their organizations to tap the wealth produced by a country's population. An additional perk is that the police and the media may overlook certain ecclesiastical excesses and peccadilloes.

Those accepting the second offer - the one to suppress the parts of the WORD that forbids kings, taxes, monopolies, strangers, usury, war with one's own kind, and requires land division are easily identified - they don't talk about them - they suppress them.

¹ The usurer is the ultimate merchant since he owns the borrower - body and soul. "The borrower is slave to the lender." Prov 22:7

This second option is the one used most often by the merchant. It is relatively easy and is almost always acceptable by the lower sorts who float to the top of political and religious cess-pools. The symbiotic relationship between the corrupt merchant, priest and king has proved a disaster to the Saxon nation.

"[He is] a merchant, the balances of deceit [are] in his hand: he loveth to oppress." Ho 12:7; "A merchant shall hardly keep himself from doing wrong." Ecclesiasticus 26:29

BLACK GOOD - WHITE BAD

The color black is significant to Hindus. They consider it holy. The color white is also significant. Hindus consider it evil. Siva, Hinduism's most worshiped god is a black sex-god. He dances on the body of a white demon. The white demon lies on the ground in position of submission. Black is good - white is bad.

To be blessed with monetary gifts and media recognition from the Hindu system, organizations must prominently elevate blacks to high honors to broadcast their submission.

Blackness is more than a symbol - it is a symbol to be worshiped. A black may be displayed in a church choir, the pulpit, as a high ranking military officer, the president of a corporation, a student body president or a government cabinet member. Blackness may be honored by a street, library or building bearing the name of a black - but there MUST be high honors bestowed upon one who is black - if one expects to be blessed in turn.

Hindu law blesses black and curses white. Colleges, foundations, cities, political parties, and even countries receive no rewards without visible submission. It has nothing to do with merit - black is a symbol of good - white is a symbol of evil.

Hinduism has no clear demarcation between a sage and a god. A sage, may be looked upon as a god. In American ashrams, Martin Luther King's picture often hangs beside a picture of Jesus. King may have been a terrorist who left burning cities in his wake, an adulterer, a plagiarist - but he was black and therefore holy. One is required to give lip-service to his blackness, his wisdom, his brilliance, his holiness - or be cursed. Hindus, and those who seek their favors, prominently display their black symbols.

"And God ordered Satan to show himself to Adam ... And God said to Adam, 'Look at this devil ... and look O Adam, at him who said that he is God! Can God be black?' II Adam & Eve 4:1-4

Letter From S. Africa by K.H.

Dear Mr. Hoskins: It is bitter cold. Winter has come with white frost every morning. Maria's 4 small dogs think it is cruel to make them go out in the morning. They hide hoping she will not see them.

Hans tried to get our tractor fixed last year but has been forced to wait for lack of spare parts. We need it to make fire breaks since the thatching grass is tall and it only needs a wind and someone with matches to cause serious problems.

Mbeki, S. Africa's black president, said that he will not handle whites like his friend Mugabe in Zimbabwe did when he drove them out and confiscated their land. Instead, he will tax the white farmers from their land starting in August. My brother already has the family farms on the market. He is in poor health and has no way to pay increased taxes. Whites living in town will receive the same treatment.

The Aids pandemic is hitting firms who employ large numbers of blacks. They find that their staff suddenly dies from some Aids related illness. Perhaps this is the reason why the regime allows open borders - so we do not notice their dwindling numbers. We drive to town and find squatter camps that have gone up overnight.

The blacks used Agent Orange to spray the roadside foliage to control it. The result has been a disaster. The small birds and animals died and even the crows who lived off of them have had to move.

Hans was unaware of the spraying and inadvertently got some of the Agent Orange on his hand. Hans is suffering. His hands have yellow places. They crack and bleed. It has spread to the rest of his body which is now covered with a red rash that itches. Not a happy time when a farmer can't use his hands.

We have contacted several doctors, but none know what to do. Thus far they have prescribed cortisone. With so little known here about Agent Orange, we wonder if it is possible if any of your subscribers know about treating the subject. It will greatly help in the treatment of Hans.

Our Best, K. H.

LETTERS

VIGILANTES OF CHRISTENDOM: "Mr. Hoskins: I read your Vigilantes of Christendom and was enthralled. The point about the WORD and Law being a type of eugenic guide which has shaped our people has given me a perspective I had been missing." L.R. - prisoner Texas

SAXON CHRONICLE: "Sir Richard; In reading the Saxon Chronicle, I am struck by the warfare between our kinsmen. I often pray our People will soon awaken to who they (we) are, put God back on His throne and unite against our common foe." S.L. - Missouri

ZIONISM: "Dear Dick; Our local Newhouse Bros owned newspaper has just editorialized that Israel must give up its WMDs in the interest of peace. You were right!" S.K. - Michigan

KIDS: "Katie and Dennis collected their spare change for the S. A. orphans. Katie is 5 1/2 - Dennis 4 1/2. We all pray for the orphans every night. C.D. - Ohio

"Dear Mr. Hoskins: What is the difference between "Christianity" and the "WORD". U.P. - Michigan

RKH: Most churches teach the edicts of the state embellished with a few bells and whistles and call it "Christianity". "The WORD" is the ancient, never changing Law of the Saxon nation.

THE PASSION: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: For months I listened to one vitriolic tirade after another by the Jews against Mel Gibson and his 'anti-Semitic' new film, The Passion.

"The Bible says, 'The Jews... killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us and they please not God and are contrary to all men.' M. L. - prisoner Texas RKH: Come, come! Simmer down. Step back and look at things. Can't you recognize a Hollywood production when you see one? Not just the picture - but the whole thing?

This movie grossed a third of a billion in the first few weeks. BIG! These kind of bucks don't just drop from the sky - they are the result of careful promotion. The best promotion is controversy. People went to the movie to see the controversy.

What caused the controversy? Jews killing God! However, Jews are sacrosanct - everybody knows you can't touch Jews. Curse God if you want, but say something against the Jews - in the USSR you were shot. In the West - you might as well be shot.

When the Jews do something despicable and get blamed for it - it's usually "showtime". In the case of The PASSION, their shrill bigoted objections resulted in a third of a billion dollar box-office the first few weeks. That much money would be impossible without Hollywood using Jews bashing Christ. So what's new?

Exactly what do you expect from Hollywood? Hollywood is deception. Acting is deception. Actors are deceivers. It's what they do. Good deceivers make a lot of money. Some are even elected president. Others are elected governors and congressmen. Even B-rated hacks can sometimes get employment and pull off a first rate performance. Take Castro. He was once a Hollywood actor. Still doing his schtick.

All actors eventually lose their true identity in a make-believe individual they once pretended to be. This is why Hollywood actors really believe they are someone other than what they are - like the king or princess - parts they once acted. Kings and princesses are above the law and can do as they like. They don't think of themselves as overpaid two-bit whores and whoremongers but great personages of the land - the envy of all. This is why Hollywood actors are often crazy as hoot-owls. They are perfect material to act the part of politicians, preachers, presidents of international corporations and God. For the pay and the glory they will act ANY part and continue acting it for the rest of their lives.

A third of a billion dollars! Big Bucks! Showtime controversy! The whole performance should win at least a billion or two plus one of those nickel and dime "Oscars"!

The Emmett Till Case Reopened

The "Justice" Department is re-opening the half-a-century-old Emmett Till case.

Emmett Till, a fresh young black, came South, made advances to a Saxon's wife in violation of the WORD prohibiting sexual relations with strangers and was shot. Those accused of shooting Till were acquitted. There were no blacks on the jury because the WORD says that unLawful strangers are not to rule over the sons of Isaac who are made in the image of the WORD.

Ignoring the WORD, Esau's media took the anti-Saxonite position to open the door for Esau's puppet government agents to harass Jacob.

Esau still refuses to acknowledge that the 1920s government arrest and imprisonment of the black nationalist leader Marcus Garvey, was done to destroy his "Back To Africa" organization. This prevented millions of blacks from returning to Africa and is probably the reason Emmett Till was even here. Alien races rubbing up against each other is like pouring salt in an open wound. Government intends to punish the strife the government is responsible for causing. It goes beyond hypocrisy - it reeks of conspiracy.

UNFILTERED NEWS

MONOPOLY: Citigroup was the only $1 trillion bank in the US. Now, there are two more - Bank of America has merged with FleetBoston, and J.P.Morgan Chase is merging with Bank One. (Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco, p.1, June 18, 2004)

RKH: Readers will remember that in 1985, War Cycles/Peace Cycles predicted that, like Rome, bank mergers would continue and in time leave few. The largest would rule the world. Older readers will also remember HR #202 which stated, "A recent report filed with the SEC, Apr 22, 1991, reveals that the Saudis now hold over 5% of Chase Manhattan Bank. This is the second largest Saudi investment made since the war. The largest was a $590 million "investment" in Citibank. Many believe that this gives the Saudis effective control over both banks." The recent mergers give them vastly increased power. Who owns America? The WORD tells us; "They will be the head ..."

ENHANCED: "Enhanced interrogation techniques", which had been approved by the White House and used on al-Qaeda suspects, have been suspended by the CIA pending review. These techniques included "sleep deprivation", "feigning drowning and suffocation" and "stress positions". (Story in FT, p.3, June 28, 2004)

VIGILANTES: La Razon reports that the native residents of Ayo Ayo, Bolivia, lynched their mayor after beating, hanging, and setting him on fire. They were enraged that the state Supreme Court had acquitted him on charges of corruption. The article said, "Collective violence is a reaction to the lack of credibility of the official justice system." It ended,

"Unless the government starts listening to the natives, it won't be the last."

RKH: The Cartel has long blacked out grievances of captive nations. We Saxons see our own problems and forget that alien nations who dislike us hate the Banker's Cartel and its agents even more.

EURO FIZZLE: The Daily Telegraph of London says that the European dream has fizzled. Voters see a bloated bureaucracy issuing nit-picking regulations and downgrading their national governments. They were never given a choice. The political caste simply adopted it, never having to justify their case. This is giving rise to right-wing radicals like Jean-Marie Le Pen of France and Jorg Haider of Austria.

CHECHEN ATTACK: Some 200 Chechen fighters attacked police stations in the neighboring Nazran, Russia and killed at least 75 people and seized hundreds of weapons. They escaped in trucks loaded with munitions indicating that they have new recruits to arm.

DROUGHT: The west is suffering its worst drought in 400 years, with no relief in sight ... The flow in the Colorado River is barely half what it was in the 1930s, during the Dust Bowl Governors from 18 states met in Santa Fe to discuss how to confront the threat of wildfires, dwindling water supplies, and scorched crops. (The Week, p. 7, July 9, 2004)

RKH: Old readers will remember that this was in HR, The Weather, Nov 1985. It was based on a book predicting the beginning of an "Ice Age" - not the opposite. It predicted the dislocation of farming populations in the northern and southern hemispheres and where the deserts are expanding. All of this to take place worldwide. Forest fires, influx of immigrants escaping famine, a coming food shortage, recycling wood products due to diminished tree growing areas; If the 1985 story continues to unfold, we could have one interesting world ahead.

LYING: In a Josephson Institute survey, students at religious schools proved more likely to cheat and lie to parents and teachers than the national average. (Story in Christian Science Monitor, p.16, June 23, 2004)

RKH: Which is why "Jesus Christ... made us ... priests unto God." Rev 1:5-6 Without the baggage of establishment priests who are allegedly more likely to cheat and lie - your equal access to the WORD is more likely to produce truth for the remnant.

CRIME SCENE: A military judge declared Abu Ghraib prison a crime scene and ordered that it not be destroyed. President Bush had offered to tear down the Iraqi prison and build a new one to eliminate the legacy of torture and abuse developed under Saddam Hussein and his own administration. We remember that the government earlier rushed to dispose of the ruins of The Towers, Oklahoma City and Waco before they could be inspected. The government's eagerness to destroy un-inspected evidence points to Government involvement in all of them.

BUSH LEADERSHIP: "'Because of President Bush's leadership, an enemy of all Jews and an enemy of Israel was finally vanquished.' Noam Neusner, White House liaison, in an e-mail to Jewish community leaders, promoting a speech delivered by Bush in which he declared the world safer since Saddam Hussein's fall from power." (From Time, p.21, June 28, 2004)

RKH: The Republican party is the flip side of the Cartel coin. The Cartel's media were all in favor of Bush's invasion of Iraq. Now, that Iraq has been destroyed, the Cartel's media is against Bush and his atrocities. That leaves the Democrat candidate, Kerry - a Catholic Jew. What's not to like?

EXCEPTION: US fear of prosecution by the Int'l Criminal Court of US officials and soldiers involved in atrocities against Iraqi prisoners caused the US to ask the UN to renew their exemption. Security Council members voted down the exemption. The earlier exemption against prosecution expires June 30th. (IBD, p.1, June 24, 2004)

COUNTER INSURGENCY: Counter-insurgency experts are advising the Pentagon that revised Iraq policies may have come too late for the US to avoid either defeat, or, a long-term, unpopular, protracted, military commitment. The present situation is described as being like "eating soup with a fork." (FT, June 23, 2004)

RKH: More than that. US forces are under siege in the cities and can be supplied only by powerful convoys.. The countryside belongs to the Iraqis.

INDIAN TREATIES: California Gov. Schwarzenegger unveiled several treaties with Indian tribes granting them casino-building rights in exchange for waiving some of their sovereign status as independent governments. The deal is worth $1 billion to California. Five of 61 California tribes are expected to sign.

RKH: There are all sorts of ways to override anti-gambling laws and make illegal things legal. Hollywood actors are quick studies.

What do you suppose will happen when Saxons ask for the same sovereign rights enjoyed by Indians? As it stands now, tax-tribute takes half their income and they do most of the work. They feed the world, and are blamed and penalized for everything that goes wrong.

TIES TO AL-QAEDA: The Algerian military has killed the leader of an Islamic rebel organization whom they say has ties to "al- Qaeda." Saudi Arabia is hunting possible "al-Qaeda" members suspected of using a car bomb to kill Europeans. Indonesia is still rounding up Islamic "al-Qaeda" terrorists who bombed a nightclub. Spain is hunting "al-Qaeda" sympathizers said to have blown up a train.

RKH: Does anyone see a straw man?

AL-QAEDA: It is the author's belief that Al-Qaeda has become a Cartel Code word for any Islamic peoples anywhere who support Islamic Law rather than the puppet-governments appointed to rule them. Being branded al-Qaeda is a license to hunt down separatists as "terrorists."

That's the way it once was in the South. In spite of the KKK being disbanded in 1868, the media continued to treat those who opposed black Republican rulers as being KKK members or sympathizers. Yankee occupation forces fielded a bogus KKK whose real atrocities made the media stories believable, and we paid the price - over, and over, and over - and they are still on our backs. We've had it done to us and we know something Islamics will learn the hard way.

CLINTON BACKS BUSH: Bill Clinton, former US president said President Bush was correct to pursue Saddam Hussein but wrong in timing his attack on Iraq. (Story FT, p.3, June 21, 2004)

RKH: The ITC used its media to put both of these people in office to advance its agenda. The ITC agenda at this time is to use the US to crush Islamic nationalism.

ADULTERY: 5000 female twins were tested. It was found that 23% of them had committed adultery. If one of these twins had committed adultery there was a 55% chance that the other twin had also. This suggests a common genetic inheritance - a strong link between genes and a tendency to commit adultery. (Story in The WEEK, p.22, June 25, 2004)

RKH: The WORD commands the "death penalty" for the Lawless among those made in the image of the WORD. Groups to whom Lawlessness is the norm are understandably vocal in opposition.

BLOCKED CELL PHONES: Cheating by mobile phone-using students is being thwarted at Italy's Enrico Tosi Technical Institute where the school is testing C-guard - a box that blocks signals in a 262-foot radius in enclosed places. (IBD p.2, June 21, 2004)

NAMBIBIA: Nambibia is following Zimbabwe's lead in confiscating White farms. (Story in FT June 18, 2004)

RKH: Persecution of Whites doesn't seem to bother Western puppet leaders. I for one would like to have my family farm back again - it was confiscated for next to nothing after the war. Saxon nationalism just might bring it to pass. What's sauce for the goose should be sauce for the gander.

IRELAND: Irish voters overwhelmingly approved a referendum to end the practice of granting citizenship to any baby born on Irish soil. The Week, p.8, June 25, 2004

RUSH LIMBAUGH is divorcing his third wife to whom he has been married for 10 years.

JOBS: Almost one-third of new jobs in the US are going to immigrants, according to a report by the nonpartisan Pew Hispanic Century. (CSM, p.20, June 17, 2004)

CLINTON: Former president Clinton told CBS "60 Minutes" regarding his affair with Monica Lewinsky, "I don't see it as a stain."

CONSTRUCTIVE FRICTION

Background

Circumstances have thrown me with Indians in the armed services and civilian life. Overall, these relationships have been correct. One must admire their bravery and their fortitude. But, their ways are not our ways. I saw little else to admire. They feel the same about me and my nation. They said so. This is natural and is what makes us different nations.

One thing our separate nations can agree on - we can refuse to allow our government masters to instigate conflict between our two peoples. What my people want - and what Indians want - is to be left alone. We must break free from our overseer-masters - the international merchant. We must control our natural dislike for each other and work together to separate from each other to have peace.

First Contact

When I was a boy of ten or twelve, Daddy took me in his 14 ft motorboat up the James. We would land at the old fort across the creek from the Issue Settlement. "Issue" is the name given the local Indians a couple of hundred years ago. The new politically correct name is "Monacans".

The fort was built to protect settlers crossing the river on their way west. In time, Indians came to the fort to trade. Present day "Monicans" are their descendants.

Old man McBride lived in the fort during the summer. He was Daddy's friend. He knew the Issues across the creek. Daddy knew them, too. Some were his patients. I learned about Indians from Mr. McBride and my Dad - and personal experience later confirmed that what they taught me was true.

One of the first things native Virginians learned about Indians is that they are strange. They have a pain and blood fixation.

In the old days Indians would take someone, preferably an enemy, and extract pain and blood from him. If an enemy was not available, a member of their own tribe or even a member of their own family was tortured; sometimes an animal. This was done to elicit pain.

Anglo-Saxons in Virginia have always had strong opinions about this Indian practice - especially if they or their family were the ones chosen by the Indians to contribute this pain.

Indians themselves didn't necessarily like pain - they needed "pain" for their god Okee. Okee fed on pain; he had to have pain. If the individual Indian didn't produce pain from someone else, Okee got it from the individual Indian. To avoid this unhappy turn of events, Indians would go to extremes to secure substitutes. That's what the constant Indian warfare was about. That's why you didn't want an Indian behind you who had a touch of paint on him. Paint meant he was on the warpath to prove his bravery or to get a source of pain for

Tecumseh

Shawnee leader Tecumseh and his brother Tenskwatawa, "The Prophet", organized an Indian confederacy that extended from Nebraska to NY and Canada to Florida. His intent was to decide the victor in the approaching war between the American Saxon nation and the British Empire. He was killed in 1813 and his confederacy collapsed.

The Cartel is empowering Indian tribes today for use against America's Saxon nation. History reminds us that the independent Cherokee nation in Oklahoma chose to ally with the independent Southern Saxon confederacy against the aggressive Union Cartel Empire.

AP PICTURE

Okee. The paint might be behind his ear where you couldn't see it. This caused the white man to treat all Indians alike - very carefully. They were all suspect.

Near Lynchburg, in Bedford County within view of Poplar Forest, Tom Jefferson's home, are the Peaks Of Otter. Around these peaks the Algonquin, Cherokee and Iroquois nations met every year to wage war and take prisoners to offer to Okee. I have been told that more Indians have died in sight of these two peaks than any other place in the country. Liberals today scoff at the reasons for Indians having sometimes as many as seven females to each male on their reservations. They explain the discrepancy by saying that the males are away working somewhere. Perhaps, but Captain John Smith noted in 1608 that there were seven females for each male. Away working somewhere? - in 1608? Indians keep their secrets - and the great Dismal Swamp and other such places help them do it.

My Service Experiences

For a time during the Korean War I was stationed at the Camp Seven Mile gunnery range near Spokane in Washington state. The camp was close to an Indian reservation. College professors told me that Western Indians don't look or act like Eastern Indians. Maybe some don't - the ones I saw did.

I was told that in their native society they have only beer - which made them quietly inebriated. I can't imagine an Indian drinking anything and remaining quiet and docile and able to walk a straight path. Most of those I dealt with had access to a stimulant that made them drunk, and when drunk, the ones I saw were unruly and dangerous. It was an eye-opener to drive on an isolated dirt road near the edge of the military reservation out in the middle of nowhere and find an Indian lying in the middle of the road dead drunk. All one could do was to drag him out of the dirt road and drive on, and it wasn't that unusual.

I've told this next story before; The day before I arrived at Lowry AFB in Denver, two Indians in the next barracks got into it with pocket knives. They fought from one end of the barracks to the other. The clean-up detail was still working the next day when I arrived to clean the blood from the walls, the ceilings - everywhere. They killed each other. They had been drinking. When something like this happens one remembers the ancient Indian thing about "pain and blood."

I drove through one Western town early one Sunday morning, and it hasn't been that long ago. I never saw anything like it. It looked like a massacre had taken place. It was unbelievable. Indians sprawled spread-eagle in the streets, on the sidewalks, over benches, everywhere. Thirty, forty, fifty of them - and it was a tiny town. We had to drive slowly - just creep along, zig- zagging to avoid the prostrate bodies. The authorities just let them lay. What else could a little town do?

Indian society honored thieves. The Spokane jails were full of Indians - drunks and thieves. The civilian authorities sent us work parties made up of these Indian prisoners to help clean up gunnery ranges that had not been used since WWII.

The effort was a disaster. I learned that in Indian society most work is a "woman thing". The men hunt and only "pretended" to work. The Spanish noted this trait when they first arrived and tried to make slaves out of them to mine gold. They wouldn't work then, either. But, the Spokane authorities insisted on sending us Indian "work parties" and we had to deal with them. They were prisoners and had to be guarded every minute even when they wouldn't work.

Indian society admires a "risk-taker." Those who are daring are called "braves." To guard the prisoners we established the customary "deadline." Cross the deadline and you were shot.

Indians walked up, looked at you, toed the deadline and slowly inched over to test you and see if you would actually shoot them. They dared you. When you reached for your pistol - they inched back. But just far enough. They remained at the edge of the "dead-line." Frankly, you couldn't help but admire them but it really wasn't funny. This type of conduct wasn't logical. Gambling with one's life to see if someone would shoot you? to make a "reputation?" Really!

The Indians near Spokane called their god by the same name or a name that sounded like Okee. I was told that the Sioux name for this same "great spirit" was Okee-re. This western Okee-re ate pain just like the eastern Okee did. Is it any wonder the settlers saved the last bullet for themselves rather than be taken prisoner.

Ten years later I served in the 100th Airborne at Fort Chaffee in Arkansas. My family lived off-post. Next door lived a pilot for an oil company. A real nice guy. He said his grandmother was an Indian. He didn't look Indian. I didn't believe him.

He managed to change my mind. He would fly in from company business every Friday evening, get drunk, beat up his wife and kids, break furniture, pass out in the back yard, and fly out Monday morning. He did this every weekend during the year I was there.

I kept my scout-dog Thor in the back yard when I wasn't using him in training. The neighbor's son tormented Thor with a slingshot and homemade spears. He wouldn't stop. One day Thor jumped the fence, went up to the 10 year old and bit him on the chest. He then jumped back over the fence into his yard and lay down. Left a nice bruise. My neighbor found out and came over. He walked up to me - I expected the worst. He leaned over and petted Thor and commented on what a great dog he was. He said his son had been asking for it and had it coming; that it was a good lesson for him and he was glad that Thor took up for himself.

You had to like the guy!

Hispanics

I remember a nice looking young fellow in Lynchburg. He was a couple of years older than I was. On hot days he came into the old drugstore at 12th & Main for a Coke - always with a couple of pretty girls. Always treated them nice.

He was a body builder - either Mr. America, Mr. Universe, or a runner up - something like that. He joined the Air Force and went to San Antonio, Texas. He went on weekend pass. He was sitting in a drugstore just like the one in Lynchburg, and a Mexican walked up and knifed him. Just like that. Killed him. No reason.

The Aztland nation claims that the birthplace of their Aztecs ancestors was in the American southwest. They believe that many Indian tribes are part of their nation. They claim that Mexican mixed-breeds - Mestezio/Hispanics are part of their nation.

History books say that the Aztecs were bloody and cruel by our standards. The archaeology magazine I subscribe to says that their rulers punched holes through their tongues and pulled strings back and forth until blood gushed. It was a religious rite. It must have been agonizing - and it was self-inflicted. What they did to prisoners was more drastic. They sacrificed captives by the thousands to their gods and elicited pain in the most gruesome ways. It was a variation of the same "blood and pain" that we learned about in Virginia 400 years ago. Aztec gods appear to be Okee by another name.

The Aztecs mixed their bloodline with Black slaves, White

Spanish Hildagos, and with the Arab-Turk mixed-race Spanish soldiers from southern Spain. This is today's Mestezos - today's Hispanics. These are the ones flooding America. From what I have seen in my lifetime - the acorn doesn't fall far from the oak.

What happened to the white Mexicans whose ancestors came from Spain?

Saxon historian, Col. Earnest Sevier Cox, told me that when he went over the border with Black Jack Pershing before WWI - there were entire families of white Mexicans, men, women and children, who had been slaughtered and were lying in the streets. There are extremely few descendants of white Spaniards in Mexico today because the Mestizo/Hispanic Mexicans killed them all - like they tried to do to us in Virginia in 1624.

Indian Givers

Indians trade for what they want. I suppose there are as many different rules as there are Indians, but a good general rule in dealing with these people is - trade if you must - and leave. Why hurry? The Indian might change his mind and want his trade-article back. He might just take it and forget to return your money. Or, you might have to fight him for it. These Indians, and Whites who acted like Indians, were called "Indian-givers."

Protesting Violence

The Christian Science Monitor of June 29, 2004, notes that in Mexico City 250,000 marchers staged a protest demanding government action against violent crime and kidnappings. Kidnapings for ransom alone are estimated at 3,000 a year.

The same thing happened on Virginia's frontiers. Whole settlements were taken into captive slavery. Men, women and children - by hundreds and by thousands. They were held for ransom. When the kidnapers were driven away the kidnappings stopped.

The Alamo & Goliad Lesson

Texas was claimed by the Frenchman La Salle in 1685, reclaimed by the Spanish in 1692, bought by the Americans who renounced its ownership in 1819. Stephen Austin obtained a grant from Mexico and colonized there in 1821.

The white population grew to 20,000 by 1830. In 1835, Santa Anna's government arbitrarily abolished self-government¹ in the Texas lands that it had taken from the Catholic Church government in 1807 and redistributed them among his friends and followers.²

This caused Mexican rule to switch from Catholic Canon law to Mexican Admiralty Law and then to the personal law of those receiving the grants. The new owners made their own demands on the Anglo-Saxon settlers who had been living under the old agreements.

Anglo-Saxons in Texas revolted. Santa Anna led an army to Texas to suppress the revolt. He besieged the Alamo, killed many of the Alamo defenders in his final attack March 6, 1836 and then massacred those who surrendered. On March 20th, a bloody battle was fought at Goliad. Col Fanning surrendered with 520 men. After their surrender they too were massacred. Hispanic justice - just like the justice dispensed by victorious Indians in Virginia 200 years earlier.

² "This will be the manner of the king that shall reign over you ... (he will take) your vineyards, and your oliveyards ... and give them to his servants. And he will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards (taxes), and give to his officers, and to his servants." 1 Sam 8:11-18; "(The ruler) placed officers over them from amongst the children of Israel, and over these officers he placed taskmasters (overnight billionaires) from amongst his servants." Jasher 77:10

King Bill Clinton

Nations are made in the image of their gods. Matters become catastrophic if descendants of those who love blood and pain are selected by Esau's media to be Cartel kings - rulers of descendants of the WORD who is their God. Let's look at this next story I have in my files.

The New York Times, on August 13, 1992, p. C1, carried an article by Todd S. Purdum, stating that president Bill Clinton is a descendant of Irish farmers and Cherokee Indians on his mother's side. Speaking of Clinton's mother the article said:

"At the age of 69, this descendant of Irish farmers and Cherokee Indians has survived a mastectomy and controversies over the death of two patients in her care, and has seen her younger son, Roger, go to prison for a year and half on drug charges"

Ring any bells here? Every follower of the WORD knows that The Law says:

"A bastard (Heb: mamzêr - mixed breed, mongrel) shall not enter into the congregation of Israel." Deu 23:2; "Thou mayest not set a stranger (Heb: zûwr - racial alien) over thee, which is not thy brother." Deu 17:15: "The stranger that is within thee shall get up above thee very high; and thou shalt come down very low." Deu 28:43.

In spite of God's Command to his Watchmen to speak out to warn the people - Clinton was welcomed into today's excuse for a Baptist church just as in early days Indians were welcomed into England's established Episcopal Church at Jamestown.

At Jamestown, they did these things right up to the day these "good Christian children of the forest" put on war paint. Then, all the way from Richmond's "fall-line" to Virginia's Eastern Shore, the Indians went on their long planned warpath - on the same day and the same hour - hundreds of miles apart from each other. Their objective - to put to death every White man, woman, and child in the Colony. They almost destroyed Virginia - and the king and his state church permitted them to try all over again in 1644.³

Clinton, a descendant of Indians made in the image of Okee, was in charge and responsible for the Ruby Ridge murders and the killing and burning of Waco men, women and children. He ordered the American Air Force to slaughter the Orthodox Christian Serbs of Yugoslavia and burn their cities and smash their bridges, hospitals and neighborhoods. Blood and pain. "They shall be the head and thou shalt be the tail."

Isn't the brother of our present Commander-in-Chief, George Bush, married to a Hispanic? Doesn't Bush speak Spanish at Hispanic rallies? Hasn't he loaded his administration with Esau strangers? Hasn't Bush gone to Iraq and smashed and burned their cities, slaughtered their people, and tortured those taken prisoner? Where did all this come from? Who taught Bush the ways of Okee?

³ Powhatan was chief in 1624. His brother, Oppeccannocanoe was his religious leader. His Algonquin empire was "national" encompassing a vast area. The British Empire was international. The preparation for the massacre was kept secret for years. Oppeccannacanoë was old when they tried the 2nd time in 1644. He had to be carried on a stretcher and have someone hold his eyelids open to see the person he was talking to. The 1644 defeat fragmentized the Algonquin nation. It was only later that continued British Empire abuse brought into existence a Saxon political nation in America that ruled itself.

When I see those who call themselves American Indian or Hispanic - I see the face seen by my ancestors - the face of Okee.

Constructive Friction

None of us - Saxons, Blacks, Whites, Jews or Hispanics like each other. This is natural and it is why we are different. Our ways are different, our laws are different, our Gods are different. Hispanics want to rule themselves. Blacks do, too. So do Jews and the American Indians. Saxons want their nation separate so that they can worship their own God and live under His Law. There will never be peace until we are permitted to separate.

Today's state cannot allow nations to separate. The government needs the strife that results from forcing alien peoples together. The government uses the strife to justify suppressing the strife. No strife - no need for a king to suppress it. No need for high taxes for defense that allow favorites to get contracts and get rich and who generate kick-backs. The threat of strife is used to justify today's pass system, road blocks, censorship, treason trials, warrantless searches, stifling taxes and the coming draft. It is called "Constructive Friction." Kings owe their existence to carefully planned "Constructive Friction."

It would be stupid to forget 1624, 1644, the Alamo and Goliad while courting an ally to help bring down the Tower of Babel. But, offering the prized olive branch of separation to the children of Okee may be the bribe that could cause us to work together to accomplish more than we can win by working alone.

Tel (013) 932-0206

"Dear Mr. & Mrs. Hoskins; We, the children of the Loerie children's home in Bronkhorstspuit, would like to thank you and all the other people from America, from the bottom of our hearts, for all the support you give to us.

"Uncle Willie and Aunt Rina Hoffmann told us about the wonderful people who support our home with some money. It is a wonderful feeling to know that the people, living in a country so far from S. Africa, know about our Loeries.

"Although we are not staying with our parents, we are really very happy in this large family and we have quite a lot of rules, but we know it is very important for the order and discipline in our house. We are also very happy in school and really try our best. We also like doing sport like rugby, netball, cricket and football. We are now preparing for our winter holiday, but it is wonderful to know that we can return to our Loerie home after three weeks.

"Once again we want to say thank you for your help, because we realize that the trustees really need the support, to be able to give us all the good food, clothes and everything else we need.

"Although we will never be able to visit you in your country, we want to invite you to come and visit us here in Bronkhorstspuit whenever you are able to come to S. Africa.

"All our love and best wishes, The Loeries.

LETTERS

JEWS & JUDEANS: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: Jews have been condemned for killing Jesus for a long time, but the Bible doesn't say they killed him because the word 'Jew' is mis-translated from 'Judean'. It says that Judeans killed Jesus. The Scripture says that this people, whatever they are, 'killed Jesus and their prophets'. Obviously, it couldn't be Jews because neither Jesus or the prophets were sent to Jews. The phrase 'Their own prophets' identifies who the culpable people are: IT'S US! Our own Israelite people killed Jesus. The powers-that-were or that-be will always kill anyone who poses such a dangerous threat to their system."

Randy Duey, The Order

RKH: The powerful Herodian party of that day was started by King Herod the Edomite who killed the Israelite children. At the time of Jesus the Herodians were still powerful, but it was the Israelite priests who caused Jesus, "the WORD made flesh", to be crucified. Edomite-Jews do what they do because they are what they are. But false priests of our own nation are enemies of God because they have modified the WORD so that they can continue worshiping heathen gods who bless kings, usury, sodomy, pedophilia, miscegenation, monopoly, gambling and the rest. The preacher who does not preach against these evils is one of those whose fathers crucified Jesus. The Jews are powerful, and easy targets since they are the Cartel's civil service, but our greatest enemy is among us. Randy Duey speaks truth.

EATING: "Dear Mr. Hoskins: My son wants to invite a friend who is a stranger to dinner. What is the LAW on this?"

E.J. - Virginia

RKH: "Thou shall no stranger (2114 - racial alien) eat (398 'akal - to eat (lit or fig) of the holy thing (1697 dabar - "a word", from 1696 - dabar "to speak")..." Lev 22:10 (This includes physical food as well as well as food for the soul, the WORD. See "dogs").

Isaacsons - Saxons who fear job loss or persecution for obedience to the WORD - use Jesus example of paying unLawful taxes to Caesar. "Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them ...give unto them for me and thee." Matt 17:27

SS MARCHES: Estonian veterans of the 20th Division of the Waffen- SS paraded through the capital city Tallinn. (Nordwave)

RKH: Every country in Europe furnished men to fight in Germany's WWII SS. With a few exceptions, they fought under their own officers under their own countries' colors to rid their countries of international socialist ownership and return their post-war countries to the ownership of their own people.

LEBANON: Hizbuliah leaders and the president of Lebanon blamed Israel for an explosion in a Beirut suburb that killed senior guerrilla Ghalib Awali.

RKH: In case you missed it - war is evolving. This type of government retaliation assassination takes war to a level where tanks and infantry take a backseat. Future wars may become low budget affairs - and deadly for those targeted.

IRAQ: A massive explosion caused by a bomb rigged to a fuel truck killed at least nine outside a Bagdad police station, wounded 62 others and caused heavy property damage. Terrorists also shot to death a senior Defense Ministry official and his bodyguard outside his home. (Christian Science Monitor, p.20, July 20, 2004)

RKH: Readers remember Algeria. One must try to distinguish between the terror of the so-called insurgents vs the state's counter-terror. Insurgents try to drive away the invader and his puppet government. They blow things up, assassinate, and kill people. The puppet government uses its bogus "state KKK" to commit crimes and blame them on the insurgents. They blow things up, assassinate, and kill people. Who is more likely to shoot a senior puppet Defense Ministry official? Who is more likely to have access to an expensive fuel truck and kill people to "teach them a lesson?"

TEXTILES: Chinese textile quotas will soon end and China is gearing up to clothe America. Lynchburg's textile mills already stand empty and the backbone of Danville, her textile mills, shut down last month throwing thousands out of work. The Hindu merchant knows to charge top dollar for the lowest cost goods. Puppet politicians are paid top dollar to pass NAFTA - and they did. They pay Hollywood actors to tell us that its for our own good. Not one of them cares about the misery that follows. Note that the political right, left and center - black, white and breeds voted together for NAFTA. After it was on the books they then went back to their make-believe squabbling. Cartel business first - their own show business last. They are worth every piece of silver the cartel pays them.

STILL MORE: The Vatican sent an inspector to a seminary after 40,000 pornographic photos and videos, including child porn, were found. Bishop Kurt Krenn dismissed it as a 'schoolboy prank'. This remark generated a call by the general public for his removal. (Story in FT, p.2, July 20, 2004

ZIMBABWE: Inflation is 400%. Some people eat one meal a day and children drop out of school to beg for food. Poor weather and President Mugabe's land seizure policy have crippled the farm sector. Unemployment is 70%

Chapter 360

NIGER RIVER BASIN

Within the great Niger River basin lived 250-400 ethnic groups. The most powerful were the Hausa in the north, Yoruba in the west and the Igbo in the east. Over all loosely ruled the Aro who were sacrosanct. They provided relatively unbiased judges who ruled on trade disputes. For this service their own trade and trade goods were untouchable by all others.

Hausa

The Hausa originally came from NW Africa where they were known as Tauregs. These "Taureg-Arabs" freely intermarried with the native blacks until the Hausas were known as black-Hausa and white- Hausa.¹

Hausa-Arabs were Mohammedan. Blacks were among the first converts to Islam. Mohammed's servant' "Bilal" was a former Black slave who was the first "caller to prayer" in all Islam. Today, today more than half of all blacks in the Niger Basin are Mohammedan.

Perpetual warfare between the Hausa, Yoruba and Igbo produced an abundance of slaves. These slaves were a staple of commerce. They were first traded to the ubiquitous Arab traders who took them everywhere in Africa and the Near-east for resale. Later, most were sold to nearby coastal natives for gold which gave this adjoining

Niger River Basin

The Niger River is the largest river in W. Africa. The river basin was home to three major groups whose constant warfare produced captives which were sold by their captors to the highest bidder into the Cartel's world slave trade.

Note that the nationwide abolitionist African Colonization Movement bought slaves in America and returned them to Africa where they were settled in Liberia in the very Niger region where they originated.

¹ The Arab brought the blood of Esau into the black tribes of Africa. Because of this intermixture, African blacks became blood kin to the Arab-Turk-Khazars of the Mideast, Mogul-Indians of India, Mongol-Chinese, and the Hispanic-Indians of the Americas. The peoples of the world are either Jacob or the mixed nations of Esau.

coastline its name of "Gold Coast." An estimated 3.5 million were sold into the slave trade of the European empires.²

The first of the large European slave traders were Portuguese Catholics. Next, were the British Protestants.³ In spite of the trade violating the WORD⁴ both countries and their respective state religions rejected the slave trade only when it became unprofitable.

Black History In Africa

Blacks have no history of their own - only legends concealed in a fog of gods, god-like chiefs and witchdoctors. Every tree, rock, brook, animal, and person has its god. Along with other peoples of the world, many African blacks eat other blacks to be one with their spirits - especially in India. Most of our knowledge of their history comes from other peoples who have recorded the history of their contacts.

In our eyes black history is a trail of blood, violence and mayhem. However, blacks are made in the image of their gods and they feel that neither they nor their gods are answerable to us or the judgment of our God.

The following is the history of one contact between blacks and whites. It is copied from Hoskins Report #164, May 1988.

2 States are created by the Cartel to organize trade in a specific market area. An Empire is an expanded state. Their rulers are Cartel puppets.

3 America's Nation of Islam's, "Secret Relationship Between Blacks & Jews", maintains that the largest American slave traders were Jews.

4 "Thou shall make no covenant with them ... they shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me." I Ki 4:21-24

Difagane

"When the Voortrekkers, from 1836 on, moved into the Free State and Transvaal, the country was desolate and empty.

"This was the period after the difagane, where the Zulus began attacking neighboring tribes. These tribes in turn again attacked their neighbors and drove them away. So the slaughter of the war started, till entire black tribes nearby wiped each other out. Thereafter the Matabele came and literally cleared the area. When the Voortrekkers moved into this area, only the Matabeles were still living there. The Voortrekkers fought battles lasting 9 days against them and they were driven over the Limpopo River, where they still live today in the west of Zimbabwe, called Matabeleland. The country was clean of blacks as far as the Voortrekkers were concerned. The Matabeles were also Zulus but Mzilikozio a chief had disobeyed Dingaan to return cattle, so he fled.

"The only other blacks the Voortrekkers came upon were the Basutos safely ensconced in the Moluti Mountains, where the Zulus could not get them, and the Vendadas in far Northern Transvaal and some Pedis in the Steelpoort Valley. Some still fleeing asked the Voortrekkers for protection, as Moroka did in the Free State. The rest formed a horseshoe shape around Transvaal, where they lived and were seen to by missionaries, like Moffat and others.

"In the Free State and Transvaal it was so bad that the Voortrekkers only found burned out kraal (villages) and white skeletons all over, as the black tribes wiped each other out on the plains. It was a clean open world. Some of the fleeing blacks were hiding in the mountains where they became cannibals to stay alive.

"These were the two territories into which the Voortrekkers moved. The towns in Northern Transvaal carry the names of the Voortrekkers, because they were the ones that lay out these towns and established civilization. Not one town in Northern Transvaal was established by blacks or by black tribes."

This is an example of "black on black" extermination warfare. Incidentally, it is also the real story of the Boers in S. Africa. Whites settled virtually vacant land. Protected by British bayonets, hundreds of thousands of blacks were later imported by Jewish mine operators to furnish cheap black labor. In time, the black flood outnumbered the native whites. Puppet British and US interests intervened to force native whites to hand over rule to blacks in 1994. Since then almost everything of value in S. Africa has been stolen - or "privatized." This is the same thing that is being done to white America today.

Whites having close contact with blacks have an entirely different opinion of them than those who have not. Esau's media has created a deceptive image of blacks. They treat all nations as being alike. This is the same as saying that dogs and wolves are the same. Dogs and wolves are not the same.

Schweitzer On Black Africans

Dr. Albert Schweitzer has long been honored and widely acclaimed for his service to the blacks of Africa. This is what he had to say:

"I have given my life to alleviate the sufferings of Africa. There is something that all White men who have lived here like I have must learn and know: that these individuals are a sub-race. They have neither the mental or emotional abilities to equate or share equally with White men in any functions of our civilization. I have given my life to try to bring unto them the advantages which our civilization must offer, but I have become well aware that we must retain this status: White the superior, and they the inferior. For whenever a White man seeks to live among them as their equals, they will destroy and devour him, and they will destroy all his work. And so for any existing relationship or any benefit to this people, let White men, from anywhere in the world, who would come to help Africa, remember that you must maintain this status: you the master and they the inferior, like children whom you would help or teach. Never fraternize with them as equals. Never accept them as your social equals or they will devour you. They will destroy you." Dr. Albert Schweitzer

Our worldview is not their worldview. Things irritating to us are not so to them. Separation would end friction.

Some of the kindest, gentle, giving people I have ever known are blacks. They are also among the most violent, murderous, crime ridden people on the planet. I wouldn't dream of one of my black friends harming me or mine, but my black friends aren't your black friends. On a street where I frequently drive, a mob of blacks recently stomped a white boy to death. In the Englishman's cabin on No-Business Mountain, a black cut off a white boy's head. At a dozen places where I drive every day blacks have at one time or another raped white women. Whites consider rape a reprehensible crime. Blacks consider rape a form of warfare.

Eldridge Cleaver, former Black Panther leader was asked why he raped white women; He replied,

"Rape was an insurrectionary act. It delighted me that I was defying and trampling upon the white man's law, upon his system of values, and that I was defiling his women" [Eldridge Cleaver, Soul on Ice, McGraw-Hill, 1968, p.14.⁵

I'm fully appreciative of the debt my family owes blacks during the period of our forced association in Virginia. However; their presence has been a destructive influence on my people and my culture. If they, Hispanics, and other aliens would instantly go away - crime would drop more than 90%. Jungle music would be replaced with our own music. Passing cars would no longer go "Boom"-"Boom"!; lovely two-hundred year neighborhoods would no longer be trashed in two years; boisterous, profane talk; rife illegitimacy; sexually transmitted diseases would all disappear. We would have our lives back.

The New World

I didn't bring blacks to America - you didn't bring them. The puppet ruler of the British Empire brought them. He ignored the wishes of both American whites and the wishes of the blacks who were slaves and brought them anyway. Blacks and whites are basically different. They don't see the world the same way. This causes them not to like what they see the other do. They never have. They don't want to be around each other, but they are forced to. They would rather be treated badly by their own kind than treated well by us. It's the normal reaction to unwanted interference. They want to go home. We want them to go home. The Empire demands that they stay.

⁵ "If a man ... force her, and lie with her: then the man only that lay with her shall die." Deut: 22:25; "Ye shall not ... defile a daughter of Israel ... the men of Shechem ... committed a shame on a daughter of Israel ... the Lord turned them over into the hands of the sons of Jacob, that they should root them out with the sword ... never again shall it be thus in Israel, that a daughter of Israel be defiled." Jubilees 30:6-13

Early Black Revolts In Haiti

In 1679, a Spanish Negro formed a conspiracy to massacre the French. He fled to the mountains and was put down only after a regular campaign.

In 1691, two other Black leaders were hunted down and executed for having planned to massacre all the Whites in the district of Port-de-Paix.

In 1703, an able Black leader arose. For seven years, he spread terror by sacking plantations and raping White women. In 1750, there appeared the famous Macandal. For six years he abstained from active warfare. A witch doctor, he announced that he was the Black Messiah sent to drive the Whites from the island.

Macandal joined poisoning to maroonage. On a certain day all the water of Le Cap was to be poisoned. Poison had always been the chief slave method of revenge. Poisoning the master, his children, his cattle, his slaves, even self-inflicted poisoning to harm his master's property. Only by the merest chance was the conspiracy discovered. Macandal was hunted down and executed.

The colony was never free of poisonings, or of Macandal. Just before his execution he announced that he would return and drive the Whites from the island. From that time, the Blacks spoke in whispers and waited for his return. They still do.

The later revolt of 1791 under Toussant L'Overture destroyed the white population of Haiti - killed them all. A handful of pitiful survivors arrived in Virginia with stories of burning, murder and rape. This was before media dis-information re-interpretation and re-education was able to make it look like an "ice-cream and soda" social party. Because of stories the survivors told plus the sporadic ongoing slave-revolts, Virginians responded two ways; they reinforced militia anti- slave-revolt patrols and they created Liberia near the Niger Basin and worked to return the slaves to Africa though a nationwide organization

Toussaint L'Ouverture

Toussant L'Ouverture 1743 - 1803

The War

Esau's media says the War Between The States was fought to free the slaves. This is Cartel propaganda. The WBTS was fought for four reasons:

1. Loot
2. Creating an empire-state.
3. Destruction of the self-sufficient farm.

And,

4. Retain cheap black labor.

Pronouncing Niger

To be polite, blacks should be called whatever they want to be called, but confusion reigns - and for good reason. A person who doesn't know who he is and doesn't know his traditions is more easily governed than one who knows. The media has gone to great lengths to mislead blacks and make them forget their heritage and where they came from.

Most American blacks came from the Niger Basin of Western Africa and belong to one of three tribes. Niger Basin blacks are different from other African blacks. This difference is why, for hundreds of years, they called themselves by the name of the Niger Basin region they came from. "Niger" blacks.

Westerners think of one black being the same as another black. This is another fault of the public schools. Nothing can be further from the truth. In S. Africa alone there are seven black races. Whites make an eighth.

I have seen and can identify the tall skinny basketball type. There is a whole race of these people back in Africa. They are all like that. Hundreds of thousands of them. They don't come from the Niger Basin. Then, there are the blacks with big behinds. They look deformed, but they aren't. They are a separate race. I was told that these come from north of the Serengeti Desert and their big behinds store food and water like camels.

Then there are Pygmies from the Congo, northwest of the Niger. There are Angolan blacks to the south of the Niger - the ones who stink. They sold cheap in Virginia because no one could stand to be near them - not even other blacks. They smell awful.

I was working in Richmond in the state Unemployment Compensation department where unemployed workers come to sign up for unemployment compensation. The first floor was big. I was working in the far back signing up black workers laid off from seasonal work in the cigarette factories.

All of a sudden I got a whiff of an odor I'll never forget. I was told that it was one of those "Angolans" who had come in up front! It was my first experience - an experience I'll never forget. It almost made me sick. This race is not from the Niger either.

Then, there are blacks who look like six-foot tall barrels. They look fat, but aren't. They are pure muscle - and fast! Fast as lightning. How blacks shaped like barrels can move that fast I'll never know. They furnish players for football teams across America. They are a distinctive black race. I don't know where they come from.

And, there is the warrior race. They were worse than the Angolians who stank, but for a different reason. Individuals of the warrior race always made trouble. They constantly picked fights with other blacks. There was almost nothing you could do with them. They were troublemakers wherever they went. I was told that Chaka Zulu was one of these. You remember, they made a movie about him. Niger Basin blacks are different from all other blacks in most of Africa.

It used to be that everyone knew this. Niger Basin blacks considered themselves the aristocracy of the black world. They were considered better workers and more intelligent. To make sure that everyone knew who they were the Niger Basin blacks called themselves "Nigers." The 1828 Webster Dictionary gives the following pronunciation.

NEGRO, [It. Sp. negro, black from L. niger, It is remarkable that our common people retain the exact Latin pronunciation of this word, neger.] A native or descendant of the black race of men in Africa. (Noah Webster Dictionary 1828)

Niger blacks were also more comfortable being called by the Latin pronunciation than the Portuguese or English pronunciation of "black." But, the media turned the name upside down. What was once good and a source of pride is now bad - and many blacks have forgotten the pride of their Niger Basin homeland.

Marcus Garvey 1877 - 1940

There was one black who did not forget who he was and where he came from. He was Marcus Garvey.

Garvey The Poet

Say! Africa for the Africans,
Like America for the Americans:
This the rallying cry for a nation,
Be it in peace or revolution.

Europe cries to Europeans, ho!
Asiatics claim Asia, so
Australia for Australians,
And Africa for the Africans.

Hurrah! Hurrah! Better times are near;
Let us front the conflict and prepare;
Greet the world as soldiers, bravely true:
"Sunder not," Africa shouts to you.

Marcus Garvey

Marcus Garvey The Nationalist

Marcus Garvey and his organization, the Universal Negro Improvement Association (UNIA), represent the largest mass movement in African-American history. It was a black nationalist "Back to Africa" message. Garvey and the UNIA established 700 branches in thirty-eight states by the early 1920s.

Garvey was born in Jamaica. He spent time in England before coming to the US. Between 1917 and 1919 race riots erupted in East St. Louis, Chicago, Tulsa, and other cities. he established the headquarters of the UNIA in New York in 1917 and from there spread a message of black nationalism and the eventual return to Africa of all people of African descent. His brand of black nationalism had three components - unity, pride in the African heritage, and complete autonomy.

In 1919, Garvey purchased an auditorium in Harlem and named it Liberty Hall. Nightly meetings sometimes had an audience of six thousand. In 1918 he began a newspaper, Negro World. By 1920 it had a circulation somewhere between 50,000 and 200,000.

Garvey claimed to have six million members in the UNIA. White nationalist historian, Col. Earnest Sevier Cox, told me that Garvey had six million dues paying members in S. America, the Caribbean, and N. America. It is beyond dispute that millions were involved.

He hammered home the idea of racial pride. He celebrated the African past and encouraged African Americans to be proud of their heritage and the way they looked. Garvey proclaimed "black is beautiful" long before it became popular in the 60s. "We must canonize our own saints, create our own martyrs, and elevate to positions of fame and honor black men and women who have made their distinct contributions to our racial history." He encouraged parents to give their children "dolls that look like them to play with."

"Until you produce what the white man has produced," he claimed, "you will not be his equal." In 1919, he established the Negro Factories Corporation. He wanted to produce everything so that African Americans could completely rely on their own efforts. At one point the corporation operated grocery stores, restaurants, a printing plant, a steam laundry, and owned buildings and trucks in New York City alone. His most famous economic venture was a shipping company known as the Black Star Line. Garvey started the shipping company in 1919 as a way to transport blacks to Africa.

Within the African-American community churches serve as the arena in which African Americans exercised full control. They serve as houses of worship and as meeting places that dealt with social, economic, and political issues.

Pastors are the most powerful people in the community. They influence and control the black community's most important institution. Garvey worked to recruit pastors into his organization and enjoyed tremendous success at winning over leaders from almost every denomination.

Garvey's message of black nationalism and a free black Africa met the expected resistance from Cartel supported African-American leaders. W.E.B. DuBois and James Weldon Johnson of the NAACP, and Chandler Owen and A. Philip Randolph of the publication Messenger, viciously attacked Garvey's "back to Africa movement."

By 1922, his emphasis shifted away from a confrontational stance against white America to a position of separatism mixed with cooperation. He applauded whites who promoted the idea of sending African Americans back to Africa. He met with prominent leaders of the Ku Klux Klan in Atlanta in 1922 to discuss miscegenation and social equality. This black-white alliance brought both groups into conflict with America's Cartel government.

After having fought a war only a half-century earlier to keep black labor in America, the federal government naturally took steps to suppress Garvey. In 1922, the feds indicted and sentenced him to prison on a mail-fraud charge. He was then deported to Jamaica. With his imprisonment and deportation, his organization in the United States was deprived of his driving spirit and lost its momentum.

Garvey's UNIA was bigger than the Civil Rights Movement. His influence extended over the United States to the Caribbean, Canada, and Africa. His message had a tremendous influence on the Nation of Islam. Much of what he said concerning racial pride can be heard in later figures such as Malcolm X and Stokely Carmichael, leader of SNCC (Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee). There is a world of information on the internet relating to Marcus Garvey.

Incidentally, Garvey insisted that African Americans should see God, Jesus, and Mary as black. After all, races are made in the image of their gods.

Black Islam

The late Elijah Muhammad, spiritual leader of Black Islam in America, gave the following as their basic objectives. They have been abbreviated by the editor to save space. They can be found un-edited in The Final Call.
.<finalcall.com.>

Elijah Muhammad
1897 -1975

Father of Black Islam in America.

What Muslims Want

1. Full Freedom.
2. Equal justice.
3. Opportunity.
4. We want a separate state, either on this continent or elsewhere, with our basic needs supplied until self-sufficient.
5. Freedom for Islamic prisoners sentenced under non-Islamic law. Freedom to choose not to associate with whites. Separation is the best solution to white/black conflict.
6. Justice for blacks in courts.
7. Until separated - equal employment opportunity.
8. Tax-exemption until allowed justice.
9. Separate schools. Black children educated, taught and trained by their own teachers. Muslim teachers free to teach righteousness, decency and self respect.
10. Intermarriage or race mixing prohibited.

Conclusion

The age old Cartel plan is to force nations together to create strife. By suppressing the strife Empire rulers justify their rule and the Cartel can more easily merge the survivors into its Hindu open-society mold of oneness.

None of America's five nations like each other - Saxon, American- Indian, Hispanic, Zionist or Black - they are forced together while they want to be separate in their own lands, living under the laws of their own gods and ruled by their own people.

The Empire opposes separation because it would destroy Hindu integration. But all nationalists realize that there is no chance of ever being free until they separate.

- 1968

Financed by Cartel corporations and foundations, MLK is considered by many black nationalists to have been a Cartel agent financed to misdirect and mislead blacks.

The door stands open for the nations of America to follow the Cartel plan and fight each other - or they can work together to separate. Once separated, they can afford to squabble over where they will live and who will get what.

The basic choice is - separation or extermination.

That's it! - Integration IS extermination.

Hans Schmidt Suffers Stroke

Hans Schmidt, editor of GANPAC, suffered a major stroke and will not be writing GANPAC for the foreseeable future. One of a handfull of unbowed survivors of 1st SS Division Adolph Hitler; editor of the truth-brigade newsletter GANPAC written primarily to inform fellow Germans living in Gulag Deutschland of events beyond the watchtowers. Events have proved the correctness of his predictions. Soldier, scholar, an honorable man and gentleman. Orders for his books and donations can be sent to H. Schmidt, POB 1739, Brevard, NC 28712.

Letter From S. Africa by K.J.

Blacks have cut down the telephone poles for their own use and the wires are now close to the ground where a veld-fire can destroy them. In the last few months power-outages have become the rule. Factories, shops and homeowners suffer.

Hans hands are slowly getting better with homopathatic treatment from Dr. Brom. During the Bushwar in Rhodesia Dr. Brom met a black herbalist who cured cancer with the juice from the sausage tree. The tree is a wild tree and has foot-long sausages and only grows in a few warm areas. Everyone who is traveling to warm parts of the country have been asked to be on the lookout for them.

Mbeki said he will not use the same way Mugabe did to get rid of whites. Instead, he will tax them to death so that they have no option but to depart. With taxes from whites, a few blacks on top have become millionaires.

In the first years of black rule the decline was slow, but no longer. Most whites have been removed from the civil service and the infrastructure and everything is falling apart.

We are told that Afrikaans books are being removed from schools and libraries.

We went down to Bronkhorstspuit. The Loeries had a near break-in but their big dog warned them when the intruders broke the glass. They have had to improve security. It seems no place is safe. The last issue of Die Afrikaner carried an article which stated that 30,000 whites have been murdered since 1994.

Thank your subscribers again for all they are doing.

With our best wishes, K.J.

THANKS: "We should at least tell them thank you" - for leaving - editorialized German's largest newspaper in response to Bush's announcement that some part of the American occupation forces will end their 60 year occupation by being withdrawn over the next ten years. Yeah, thanks! Germans remember that once upon a time Germans governed themselves without the help of an American puppet government put there to privatize German wealth into the pockets of international capitalists - and impose a 5 year prison sentence on anyone who protests.

In the American South, government schools have taught locals to believe that the federal military bases planted in their midst are there to bring military payroll prosperity to the community to help the economy instead of to prevent a Southern uprising to reclaim their land, farms and states rights. Federal bank and media-installed puppet governments continue to rule and exploit the region after more than a hundred years. This, too, is taught that it is how things should be.

CHINA PRIVATIZATION: In 1947, Esau's International Trade Cartel banks financed China's Communist revolution. China's new puppet government confiscated both land and industry from China's private owners. Esau's media has just announced that China is now preparing to privatize up to 11 of its power plants. Wealth transfer - Global Capitalism at work. It goes on and on.

ANTS: A super ant colony of mutant Argentine ants covering 62 miles has been found under the city of Melbourne, Australia.

KURDS: Turkey pinned the blame for recent deadly bomb attacks in Istanbul on Kurdish separatists. Turkish insistence on ruling Kurds causes friction. The friction resulted in the bombings. The bombings provide the Turkish government an excuse to rule - which is why the Turkish government will not allow the Kurds to separate so that there will be peace. Peace would take away the government's job of "keeping the peace."

NICHOLS: Alleged Oklahoma City bombing conspirator Terry Nichols was imprisoned for life without parole. The professional placement of the explosives that took down the building caused some explosives experts to believe that Oklahoma City was an inside job. Because the FBI provided help to the bombers of the NY Towers in the first bombing incident it is easy to believe that Oklahoma City was a repeat. The fed's refusal to allow an independent inspection of the wreckage fuels this suspicion.

CHINA: China's Communist party expelled a senior roads official in Beijing for taking "enormous" bribes. Endemic lawlessness is why China forever remains a "China" frozen in time.

SHARIA: Muslims in Toronto, Canada, supported by a 1991 provincial law, use Islamic sharia law to mediate legal disputes.

The WORD was Law in early Canada and used to settle most disputes. This was modified by British Empire Admiralty law to ignore the ban on kings, taxes, monopolies, strangers, usury, war with one's own kind, and the requirement that Canadian land be divided.

To expedite trade, international Admiralty law requires that everyone love everyone else without regard to race, creed, or national origin. American Indian law was recognized along with Islamic Sharia law and other law systems. Sharia law now shows promise of possibly excluding the Cartel's Admiralty Law some day. The cartel can no more allow this than they can allow the WORD to exclude their Admiralty law. The war of the gods is heating up.

CHINA: Bill Clinton's best-selling book is on sale in China for $1.20 - in violation of Admiralty recognized copyright law. China has some of the most brilliant minds, some of the most lawless people and is one of the most lawless societies in the world. The Lawlessness is endemic. This is the reason why business with China is difficult on anything but the most basic level.

HACKERS UNLIMITED: Singapore said it will organize a computer hacker contest. Six two-man teams will compete. Asia has had some of the worst hacker attacks. Israel has hacker clubs. In time international competitive hacking could become an Olympic sport. Just think - destruction for the sake of destruction. It has a religious basis - Hinduism!

COLUMBIA: It has just been announced that Columbia's puppet- leaders are planning to privatize as much as $10Bn worth of Columbia's state-owned companies. This gives Columbia's state- owned companies to the ITC and it gives Columbia's puppet-leaders $10B to award to supporters in exchange for the usual kick-backs. Very democratic. Columbia's state-owned companies should be given to Columbia's workers rather than to foreigners.

Chapter 361

THE PROTOCOLS

Seen by An Eagle Eye

In Tappahannock about 40 years ago I was called "The man who got eyes like a eagle!" It happened this way.

I used to take my family to Tappahannock in the summer for a week or so. We stayed in the old Riverside Hotel. The old part used to be a private home and dated back to sometime in the 1600s. It was where Mom and Dad spent their honeymoon back in 1917. Ann and I spent our honeymoon there, too, in 1957.

The Rappahannock narrows at Tappahannock. It's only a mile or so wide. The old bridge went across there - built on wooden pilings and straight as an arrow. Long time ago dad and I used to tie our skiff fast to the pilings and fish.

While visiting many years later I got a hankering for "croakers". Rather than fish for them, I was told that I could go over the bridge and turn left on a side road and go up the river about a mile where I would find a landing. Fishermen brought their catches there for re-sale and I could buy what I wanted fresh off a boat.

I hopped in the car and drove across the bridge. When I got across I looked around for the road that was supposed to turn left. All I could find was a white state traffic sign, about two by two that read "NO U TURN". You know the kind. I couldn't find the side road, so I made a "U-turn" and drove back across the bridge.

When I reached the other side where I had started I saw a colored fellow¹ who had been crabbing. He was walking away from the river with his catch. I pulled over, got out, and asked him how I could find the road to the fisherman's landing.

He set his catch down and pointed back across the bridge - it was a long long way back across the river - and said;

"See that little white dot on the other side of the bridge?"

¹ When I was growing up you couldn't say "black man". Nothing personal. To say "black man" meant that you were ignorant. Educated people knew that "man" means Adam in Hebrew. "Adam" in Hebrew means "To blush red." (Strong's Concordance). "Black-man" is an oxymoron - a public confession that the speaker was stupid, ignorant - or both. Nothing's changed.

At this distance the sign was just a little white dot;
I said,
"You mean that road sign that reads "No U-TURN?"
He said,
"Man, you got eyes like a eagle!"

He thought I could read a sign with letters maybe a couple of inches high from a mile away. Only an eagle can do that. That's why I got known as "The man who got eyes like a eagle" down in Essex County. People who don't know the whole story often make mistakes like that.

The Serpent

It's nothing like having been some place before to notice things that others who haven't been there wouldn't notice.

A thoughtful reader sent me the arms of India (front page) under which is the first verse of India's national anthem -

"Thou rulest the minds of all people."

"Thou rulest the minds of all people"

The Hindu worldwide media-monopoly has long been able to conceal the universal Hindu organization from the entire world.

The "Serpent of Deception" is everywhere! India's sex-god Siva dances with a serpent in his hand; Kali, goddess of death, has one wrapped about her neck; Vishnu, Siva's brother, god of preservation, wealth and gambling, reclines on a giant many-headed serpent. Magic, illusion, deceit, deception. That's the meaning of the serpent. Nothing is as it seems. Nothing! Politics, religion, commerce, wars, news, events, economics, personalities; Everything is re-interpreted to control our minds and is presented to us on a silver platter - Hollywood style - manufactured to create the world-view needed to keep sheep docile - a world of illusion where green pastures only appear green. Deception.

Scriptures say that this same "Serpent of Deception" deceived Eve - and God the WORD caused a wind to blow that carried the Serpent out of the garden where it fell into the sea and landed in India.² The serpent ruined the garden - OUR Garden - the garden that God The WORD made for "us".

Hinduism's Serpent

Hinduism's beginning is the "Serpent" - deception - and its end is destruction - obliteration by fire - nirvana - nothingness. This belief is held by millions worldwide. It is difficult for us who are created in the image of the Law to believe that Lawless people exist who work, strive and scheme - even sacrifice their lives to bring about strife and destruction that in turn will result in nirvana - the death and obliteration of themselves along with all cultures, traditions, peoples - all things on the face of the earth - in fire - reduced to ashes into nothing.

Between the time the Deception-Serpent was born and its demise by being obliterated by fire - its darmamatra-teachers strive to deceive the thoughts and beliefs of the world's nations by re-interpreting them - to lead them gently, or forcibly if necessary, to do things that will bring about their own destruction and the end of all things. These priestly re-interpretations constitute a religion whose acts and beliefs can change from day to day as needed - that manifests itself as a form of Islam that is not Islam; a form of Christianity that is not Christianity; forms of Judaism, Buddhism, Shintoism, Taoism, Shamanism, Atheism and the rest.

Hinduism re-interpretes every religion causing two versions of almost every belief to exist - a true religion that will preserve that nation and the counterfeit that will destroy it.

Jews

Jews are the Hindu cartel's "civil servants". They are a composite people - governed by the laws of an ancient, separate Hindu caste. Besides acting as the International Trade Cartel's "civil service", they are also their "Dharmamatrias". The philosophy of their "rabbis" is rooted in the "Serpent of India" - deception. Their own history states that their rank and file are mostly 14th century Khazarian Turk-Mongol converts. These converts are bound to their rabbi-rulers by an ancient agreement among themselves to accept foreigners to be their leaders to stop their endemic internecine warfare.³

³ "All the children of Esau swore, saying that none of their brethren should ever reign over them, but a strange man who is not of their brethren, for the souls of all the children of Esau were embittered every man against his son, brother and friend."
Jasher 14:39

Obedience to their rabbis is mandatory, un-questioned and absolute. Appearing wealthy, they are actually penniless nomadic merchant-warriors whose wealth, gathered from those they live among - or given to them to manage (overnight billionaires) - belongs to their rulers, and along with media access may be considered perks that are theirs because of their caste.

The Protocols

In the time period 1920-1922, Henry Ford's The Dearborn Independent published a series on "The Protocols Of The Learned Elders of Zion". As far back as I can remember I have known about "The Protocols" - the so-called "Jewish plot to conquer the world". It is interesting reading, but hard. Choppy statements with little collaborating evidence demanded by the Western mind.

The thing that makes it believable is that we can see that the things it talks about are happening at this very moment - therefore, regardless of disclaimers, events prove the Protocols to be true.

Protocols' Origin

We are told that in 1884 a Russian agent in Paris, Justine Glinka obtained a document from a Jew, one Joseph Schorst (alias Schapiro) for 2,500 francs. Schorst fled to Egypt where he reportedly was murdered. The document was sent to General Orgevkii, Russian intelligence, who handed it to his chief, General Cherevin to be given to the Tzar but who refused to give it to the Tzar because he was under some sort of obligation to the Jews. Justine Glinka then fell into disgrace and was banished to her estate in the country. From her estate she gave a copy of these same Protocols to Alexis Sukhotin who showed the document to two friends, Stepanov and Nilus. The former printed it and circulated it privately while

Sergius A. Nilus
First Publisher of "The Protocols" 1901

the second, Professor Sergius A. Nilus, published it in 1901. Meanwhile, Jewish members of the Russian secret police obtained minutes of the Jewish Basile congress held in 1897 which are said to correspond to the Glinka copy of the Protocols. In 1924, Professor Nilus was imprisoned by the communists. Before then, a few copies were sent to Germany in 1919, and England, France and the US in 1920. Later editions appeared in Italian, Russian, Arabic and even Japanese. Alerted to this world crisis - the Jewish media bashed the Protocols causing the book to become a best seller. With all this controversy, just about everyone in the world was alerted to the existence of a world conquering Jewish conspiracy.

The English edition was translated by Mr. Victor E. Marsden, former Russian Correspondent of The Morning Post who was also accused of being anti-semitic. In spite this Mr. Marsden continued to work for the Cartel's Morning Post and was even rewarded by being assigned to the suite of H.R.H. "The Prince of Wales" on his Empire tour. On his return he was suddenly taken ill and died - giving rise to more talk of Jewish plots.

If you can follow all this and keep a clear head you are better at this sort of thing than I am. But, there are two things I am quite sure of: 1) The Protocols have been brought to my attention, and 2) the events mentioned in the Protocols are actually taking place right now. This last is a fact. Even foggy-bottom self-haters must admit this - if you can find one who will dare differ from his mentors.

Karl Marx

This is a picture of Karl Marx, the Jew who wrote the Communist Manifesto. He is the boogy-man of anti-communists. Note the close resemblance to the picture of Prof. Nilus on the previous page. If one had a suspicious mind he might even think the two pictures were of the same person. He might even believe that Nilus's picture was an early 20th century media effort of "guilt by association". If the publisher looks like a bad communist - the book he published must really be bad - "get it and read it!" The media plays this game all the time.

Table of Contents

Most Protocols copies I've read have no index. Most of the individual protocols briefly touch several subjects and go on to the next. The following is from a penciled index I made in the back of my copy.

Protocol III) Snake of Judaism, castes, need to create own opposition;

V) Conquest, movement invincible, rule of money, gun confiscation, art of re-interpretation, NWO, importance of land ownership, promoting gambling;

VII) World police, overnight billionaires, disposing of Napoleon/ Hitler type rebels; VIII) Anti-racism, money, needing politicians w/criminal records; anti-semitism necessary, dictatorship, opinion monopoly, elections & education;

X) Universal vote, destroying family values, blacking out rebel viewpoints, ultimate government from one brain, liberalism/blood pollution, puppets having pasts, need for executive orders, NWO, torture, starvation, inoculations;

XI) Wolves ruling sheep;

XII) Vishnu, intelligence, state secrets, church confessionals, denying media access, year 2000, D.C., media, journalists w/pasts; XIII) Using distractions, events stage-managed;

XIV) One world religion;

XV) Wacos needed, teaching people to double-think, anti-cartel plots;

XVI) Rewriting history;

XVIII) The Ruler, arrest on suspicion;

XIX) Sedition suppressing rebels, taxes;

XX)-XXIV) etc. etc. This gives an idea.

Land

The Dearborn Independent chose to highlight "land" more than almost any other subject. Here are some of their excerpts pertaining to Protocol #VI:

"The aristocracy of the Gentiles as a political force had passed away. We need not take them into consideration. But, as owners of the land, they are harmful to us in that they are independent in their sources of livelihood. Therefore, at all costs, we must deprive them of their land.

"The best means to attain this is to increase the taxes and mortgage indebtedness. These measures will keep land ownership in a state of unconditional subordination. ...

"Land ownership makes the owners 'independent in their sources of livelihood'. And any form of independence is fatal to the success of the World Program ...

"Not 'tillers' of the land, not 'dwellers' on the land, not 'tenants', not an 'agricultural peasantry', but 'owners of the land'.

"It is necessary for industry to deplete the Land both of laborers and capital." ...

"Money is harder for the farmer to get than it is for any other man; and as for labor, he cannot get it on any terms...

"The farmer's strong advantage is that, owning the land, he is independent in his sources of livelihood. The land will feed him whether he pleases International Jewish Financiers or not. His position is impregnable as long as the sun shines and the seasons roll. ..."

Remember, all this was written in the late 1800s.

The 1985 Farm Rally

Southerners understand this land thing better than most other Saxons. We remember our grandfathers who were independent on their own land that had been in their families often times for more than 200 years. Now, hardly any of us have inherited their farms. Most were taken out of our hands by high taxes and low commodity prices.⁴

In 1985, the government encouraged America's farmers to expand their acreage and produce more to survive. Heeding the "Great White Father in Washington", most farmers went deeply into debt. Again, high interest rates and low commodity prices from imports caused them to bankrupt by the tens of thousands. A great protest rally was held in Nebraska. Thousands came from all over America.

I was a speaker. The Cartel media was vicious. They called the farmers "terrorists". Before the rally, radio dis-information announced that the rally had been called off - thousands of farmers turned around and went home. Still, thousands came anyway. Then, the scheduled meeting place was canceled at the last moment and the meeting had to be moved to a freezing cold steel barn out in the country having few seats and no bathroom facilities.

The thing that caught my attention was that the Jewish B'nai B'rith was the most active outspoken opponent. They made charge after charge, attack after attack against the farmers - they were the ones most quoted by their local newspapers, radio and TV. Their attacks were vicious. The attending farmers cringed. They had never heard anything like that before. I know I hadn't.

Nothing the rally speakers said was quoted in context by the media. Film snips were taken of me speaking - my lips were moving but the TV announcer was telling his listening audience what I saying - which wasn't what I was saying. You know the drill. A real education.

⁴ "The land shall not be sold forever: for the land is mine." Lev 25:23

Media

Protocols II talks about the media.

"There is a great force that creates the movement of thought in the people, and that is the press ... Through the press we have gained the power to influence..."

Protocol XII continues this thought.

"The press ... serves to excite and inflame those passions which are needed for our purpose ... We shall saddle and bridle it with a tight curb: we shall do the same also with all productions of the printing press, for where would be the sense of getting rid of the attacks of the press if we remain targets for pamphlets and books?

"The pretext for stopping any publication will be the alleged plea that it is agitating the public mind without occasion or justification. I beg you to note that among those making attacks upon us will also be organs established by us ... Not a single announcement will reach the public without our control ... all news items are received by a few agencies in whose offices they are focused from all parts of the world. These agencies will then be already ours and will give publicity only to what we dictate to them. ... What we shall publish ourselves ... will be cheap and will be read voraciously⁵ ... And if there should be any found who are desirous of writing against us, they will not find any person eager to print their productions. ...

"We shall set up our own, to all appearance, oppo-

A Critical Look

What purpose is served by The Protocols?

It is a document bearing an explanation of origin that is so convoluted and complicated that it makes the whole thing appear to be a fraud and deceit from the start - a thing to be rejected out-of-hand.

Jews call it a "forgery" and "anti-semitic". Those whom the Protocols attack control the very media responsible for the attack on themselves. What gives?

Henry Ford

Let's take a quick look at Henry Ford, the great right-wing hero and anti-semitic - a Catholic who built an auto company which was the biggest of its kind in the world at the time; and whose Dearborn Independent was largely responsible for the dissemination of these anti-semitic Protocols - and, whose flip-side - his Ford Fund For The Republic has financed generations of the world's left-wing. Contradiction? Maybe not.

Let's use an example.

The "Piedmont" automobile was produced in Lynchburg. I've been told that the "Piedmont" was every bit as good as the "Ford", perhaps better. Ford's company prospered - Piedmont bankrupted. Ford got bank loans - Piedmont didn't. Money was the key and usury-loans are a Cartel monopoly.

Protocol VIII touches on money. Interest banking is a monopoly. Banks create money out of nothing and lend it at interest. If you can get this money you can do things in business - big things. If you don't, you can't. If banks like you and your operation you get money - but from then on you do what they say or they will call the loans and you bankrupt.

This is why billionaires seldom own a billion dollars. They "manage" a billion dollars - a big difference. A "Ford" showing business talent gets loans - conditionally. Possibly, a lot of money. Perhaps 2% of the profit (contracts vary) goes to a Henry Ford and 98% goes to a tax-free Cartel foundation on his death. This way, promising businesses are taken over by Cartel banks or their agents while the owner-manager works to produce the lion's share of the profit for the Cartel. Still, the 2% the manager keeps (or whatever the loan calls for) could equal to tens or even hundreds of millions. Or, he might let the whole thing pass and bankrupt like Piedmont Motor Car Company. How do you like that choice?

With this as a background, think about this: Henry Ford, an automotive genius, has a newspaper - at least in name - which prints a Jew-bashing version of the Protocols, and still gets virtually unlimited bank-credit from Jew-managed banks, and whose lion's share of the profits goes into a tax-exempt, anti-white, anti-free enterprise foundation - Ford Fund For

Symbolic Snake

The Republic. His church, supposedly anti-anti-Semitic, could have stopped him at anytime through spiritual leverage - or economic leverage since the Catholic Church owns banks all over the world - which are mostly managed by Jews.⁸

The Protocols hullabaloo seems to fit the Mel Gibson scenario. The great outcry by the Cartel media condemning the book guaranteed its worldwide distribution. Unknown millions copies of the book were sold. Very possibly, adjusted for inflation, the Protocols may have made far more money than even Mel made. The world learned for the 1000th time that Joos are bad guys trying to take over the world.

The Code Key

The key that unlocks the Protocols might be found in "Protocol III" - the "Symbolic Snake". "Attention!" "Code Word!" Snake! Serpent! "Deception!"

In case there are some dense readers - Henry Ford's newspaper reminds us that this Symbolic Snake holding its tail in its mouth represents the planned conquest of the world by Jews.

Now alerted - we also see that in both Protocol XII and Protocol XVII - Vishnu is mentioned. Well now! "Vishnu" - the god who reclines on the great serpent - Deception with a big "D".

Let's use the old "eagle eye" and guess that the attack on the Jews was done just to misdirect. Sure, the Jews are guilty as sin, but they are only a part of the Serpent. If one doesn't look beyond them they will never see the rest of the Serpent. Those writing about serpents are writing to the rest, who, for various reasons, are subjects of the Serpent. They understand that they must be obedient or lose everything they have - even their lives. Its the price they pay for the perks they receive.

The Purpose

It is my personal belief that the Protocols were released with such fan-fare for three reasons:

1) Since its contents are common knowledge and have been for a long time, it hurt nothing to say again what everyone knows. Its publication brought out the dissidents who agreed with the obvious since others were discussing the subject.

2) As stated before, the build-up and outcry guaranteed books sales - MONEY. It was an early version of Mel Gibson's The Passion where the Jewish media damned the movie as anti-semitic and then showed their real feelings in the matter when not a single Jewish movie chain that I know of refused to show the movie. It brought in almost half a billion in the first few weeks. I'm guessing that The Protocols did much better than that - adjusted for inflation - of course.

3) The Protocols are the Cartel's ever-present rules of engagement. They are periodically media-bashed to bring them to the public's attention. Again, there's no reason to be secret about something that everyone can see going on around them. The Protocols constantly remind of the age-old operational procedures required of the Cartel castes - not the people - the "castes". The people can get upset all they want - it doesn't matter - but the Kings, Priests, and Great Merchant Overnight Billionaires whom the Serpent elevated to rule his dominions - these had better pay attention:

"Merchants" like the Henry Fords of the world - the "overnight billionaires" will support the events listed in the Protocols or be bankrupted and thrown back into the sea where they came from.

Priests must abandon separatist religions - keep the rituals but teach only Admiralty Trade Law of the Hindu - or lose support from their wealthy Henry Ford type church members and lose all hope of ever becoming wealthy "televangelists" or bishops, or ministers of thousand member churches who must use Cartel TV, radio, and receive newspaper recognition to operate. They can choose "obedience" or choose to be poor ministers of backwater congregations in the middle of nowhere - the equivalent of being thrown back into the sea.

Kings must do exactly as they are told by their "civil service" or the media will eat them alive the next day. Obey, or lose cushy jobs and kickbacks. Like it or not - the Protocols say "This is what you must do - Obey!"

Conclusion

The Protocols* are important. They are instructions to the castes of the Serpent - worldwide. This includes Serpent-created Western ruling castes of Priest, King, and Great Merchant; those who must obey or lose access to the serpent's usury-banking and media.

However the day is late. People daily leave Christian churches that have become fronts for the Hindu in droves - disgusted because their Christian-Hindu priests refuse to teach God's Law. Even the Serpent's own Esau-Islam is in full revolt. China, N. Korea and others have banned all religions that re-interpret their gods into destructive Hindu religions - and it gets worse:

A 16 year old hacker in Austria shut down the entire Eastern European internet throwing millions out of work; George Soros tampered with derivatives and brought down a dozen countries causing as much destruction as could be caused by war. Today, a single soldier can launch a cheap missile and destroy a multi-million dollar plane or tank. Armies declare victory and fight on endlessly in the ruins. Force has lost its effectiveness. Songs are written decrying the rot - causing thousands to sear damning words of rebellion into their minds replacing mind-rotting cartel slut-songs. An alternate media has come into existence - self-published newsletters like HR are here which can be copied and passed on. This is as much war as carrying a gun. People like you and me daily hand out fliers containing the WORD to girl bank tellers and grocery store clerks showing them that integration is Hinduism. This is fighting a war the enemy had thought he had won. We nibble at the foundations - day in and day out.

Making it still easier - the Cartel government is requiring its governing castes to become involved - requiring them to denounce the WORD - denounce their own God! This makes them detested by their kinsmen to whom the WORD continues to be their God!

These Hindu-collaborators - media, economic, religious and government - along with every deviate - tens of thousands of them - have been moved up into the front lines - and the cartel has no way to protect them - except to try to suppress all who oppose their Hindu-Admiralty Law. Good luck! Half the world is already in revolt. Everything is poised for the spark that will ignite the other half. Soon, the Tower of Babel will become a torch of freedom. The world will be either Nirvana - or a world governed by the WORD which is God.

We look across the bridge over the waters and can clearly see the writing.

DIED, RICHARD BUTLER

Richard Girnt Butler, 86, Pastor of the Church of Jesus Christ Christian, worked for almost 40 years to turn the Pacific North West into the Aryan Nations - a country for the beleaguered Saxon Nation.

Butler was educated at Los Angeles City College and worked with Lockheed Aircraft where he invented or co-invented a process for the rapid repair of tubeless tires.

During WWII he was a flight engineer and a pilot. His wartime experiences caused him to become concerned for the future of his Saxon people.

He was the National Director of the Christian Defense League from 1962 to 1965. On the death of Dr. Wesley A. Smith, he continued holding services. It was then Pastor Butler "Continued the ongoing work of Jesus the Christ gathering His people" and establishing His Kingdom.

The Church of the former aerospace engineer was located at Hayden Lake, Idaho. It housed a spectrum of right-wing patriots at one time or other. One of them was The Order, the most famous of the pro-Saxon groups which gained notoriety by copying the efforts of Polish Jewish revolutionaries who earlier in Poland financed their activities by taking money from armored cars and banks. This brought down the wrath of Esau on their heads.

Butler's efforts in keeping the Saxon light burning were rewarded by his Church becoming the lightning-rod for unrelenting anti-Saxon media attacks.

He was personally brave. When his Church grounds were invaded by "law enforcement" shouting for church members to "lie down flat" - he commanded his church members to "Stand up! It is better to die on your feet than crawl on your stomachs."

In 1998, an American Indian woman drove by the Hayden Lake Church. There were noises variously identified as gunfire by the Church guards and firecrackers or backfires by the media. The incited Aryan Nation's guards pursued the speeding vehicle and shot out the tires forcing it to stop.

The case came before a mixed-race jury and in 2001 they awarded the Indian $6.3 million dollars which bankrupted the church and forced it to move. Quickly relocating, they continued church meetings and annual parades nearby.

Pastor Butler's church was a gathering place for Saxons of widely diverse beliefs including Skinheads, KKK and American Nazi Party members - Saxons having no home.

I met Pastor Butler once at a Church meeting in Spokane, Washington in 1985 and spoke to him several times on the telephone. He was mild speaking, fearless, a man of his word, and was punctual in paying for things he purchased. In my dealings with Richard Butler I found him truthful and a gentleman.

His pioneering goal of establishing a homeland for Saxons ruled by the WORD which is God will be remembered and will one day be realized.

Chapter 362

AMERICA Through Chinese Eyes

"The ultimate success is victory gained without fighting."

Sun Zi

An HR reader sent me a copy of a 1999 Chinese Intelligence report projecting their opinion of American military capability through the year 2020. This sort of game-planning is done by all countries. This one was particularly interesting since it is a peek into the Chinese mind guessing how American military thinking will, or will not, affect them.¹

Background

The Chinese view Americans as a simplistic people who view warfare in a simplistic sense - sort of a frontiersman and his rifle taking a bead on an enemy - with today's guided missile, radar, air strikes, naval bombardment, news propaganda, etc. taking the place of the rifle. They try to guess how this American thinking will react to outside stimuli and to their own more subtle deceptive approach which has countless facets and combinations. The following is the list of "five heroes" two of China's military thinkers consider to be leader types of tomorrow's wars.

The Chinese intelligence report, "Unrestricted Warfare", states that the Jan 17, 1991, Desert Storm's 42-day-war obliterated traditional thinking about war. Theories, techniques, and methods of conquest used for the last 500 years have been erased. Those refusing to recognize this fact will be hopelessly outdistanced in the days ahead.

They believe that the world is presently still sifting through the intellectual rubble left by the Gulf War. It is trying to piece together a coherent vision of "what happened"? Was this war a one time accomplishment? Did the Americans stumble on a revolutionary new war concept or was that desert war really the doorway to future war?

They conclude that it is now obvious that the helicopter and the "obsolete" prop-driven plane armed with "smart missiles" have become new weapons and now dominate the battlefield by removing the tank. They now see tanks as expensive moving death traps or political toys. They even conclude that it is possible the helicopter and prop anti-tank planes are themselves possibly outdated by the introduction of a lone soldier armed with a cheap missile launcher launching smart missiles.

The thing that really seems to impress them are the more devious plots - and plots within plots. The analysts barely disguised their admiration for the Saddam Hussein affair - a friend, surrogate and confidant of the US - destroyed by the very US who brought him up from obscurity, the ones who made him leader of a country, paid him, armed him, used him and destroyed him!

They see the US as busily moving about the world pulling down leaders and setting up puppets. Are these new leaders be used like Hessein? Will this work again and again? To what purpose?

Then there was the skillful use of media atrocity disinformation to form public opinion in America's favor - the downside of which has been the destruction of American believability. The list continues with this just scratching the surface.

There is this thing they note as a very visible fact: "In the aftermath of 'Desert Storm', the US has not been able to again achieve a single commendable victory. Whether in Somalia or Bosnia- Herzegovina." The on-going Iraq affair seems to confirm this observation.

The Chinese report refers to the American National Defense Report for 1996, 1997, 1998 which shows America's concern that areas like Iraq, Iran, the Middle East, and the Korean Peninsula being possibly able to stage threats of another nature - like spreading nuclear, biological and chemical technology; sponsoring terrorist warfare, engaging in drug warfare and promoting out-of- control immigration, and creating threats of large-scale anti-personnel weapons of various sorts.

They conclude, however, that while countries able to rival the US in the conventional military sense will not appear prior to the year 2015, American military and civilian leaders are more anxious and fearful of the "unknown." This makes American "reaction" unknowable, and possibly dangerous to everyone in the world.

Five Heros

It is agreed that America is light years ahead in space and military battlefield technology but, Chinese Intelligence sees new and different kinds of battlefields in the future. They point to five individuals whom they consider hero types of the new age, each representing a new type that becomes many variations when combined with others. These hero types may be harbingers of this new age warfare.

These five are: George Soros - financial speculator, Bin Laden - Islamic terrorist, Escobar - drug dealer, Matsumoto - founder of "Aum Shinrikyo", and Kevin Mitnick - computer hacker.

1 - George Soros - Economic War

George Soros, a financial speculator, brought down the economies of a dozen countries. In the opinion of the Chinese, he created more damage and destruction than could be caused by conventional warfare.

What happened was this: "Overnight billionaire" Soros used the money-media monopoly and his own ability to hire expert financial manipulators and politicians. This opened the door to collapse the economies of a dozen or so Asian countries. Their collapse reduced the assets of these countries to pennies on the dollar allowing Soros agents to sweep the depreciated assets into Cartel corporations for a pittance. Soros is very good at what he does. They consider him a "dangerous pirate," one of the five most dangerous people in the world.

2 - Bin Laden - Terror

Bin Laden is a household name, war; Bin Laden - terror the well known shadowy ubiquitous warrior for Islam. China sees him as tomorrow's example of a "terrorist" that illustrates the potentials of this type of operation.

Assuming that bin Laden actually exists, the next concern among thinking elements of the Saxon nation is whether or not this warrior for Islam is actually an Islamic nationalist and savior or another Cartel created Saddam Husssin strawman?

If he is a true Islamic nationalist - his religion is enough to cause the West to stay alert. If a Cartel media-creation - and if Islam accepts him as their leader - he will attempt to lead Islam back into the Cartel box from which it is trying to escape.

The Chinese intelligence concern is whether or not "terrorism" in its countless forms will become the weapon of choice by the world's many enslaved nations. If this becomes a reality - there is presently no defense against it in spite of government eyewash and a possible age-of-chaos that lies ahead.

3 - Escobar - Drugs

Escobar - a notorious international drug smuggler. His political contacts give him the connections needed to create drug chaos.

Westerners tend to look on Escobar as if he were just a corner drug-dealer. He represents more than that in the eyes of Chinese. Escobar stirs memories of China's 1800s Opium Wars and British opium dealings in China - both of which are why China believes nothing the West has to say about anything.

Opium Wars

British-India produced opium. British merchants controlling India's opium production needed a market. They selected China. At that time Europe looked on China as they looked on black Africa - "A melon to be sliced", and slice it they did - again and again. David Sassoon was Britain's agent.

According to the "Jewish Universal Ency. 1904 edition, Sassoon is the name of a family of merchants, industrialists and bankers who originated in Baghdad and lived in Bombay, India. The Indian Sassoon company had branches and interests in Calcutta, Shanghai, Canton, Hong Kong, Yokohama, Nagasaki, and other cities in Japan. The British gave this company a monopoly of the opium-trade in addition to trade monopolies in Indian yarn, and Lancastershire cotton goods.

For security reasons the Sassoon company employed only Jews in its business. To keep them focused and conditioned, synagogues and schools were built for them. Whole families were imported from Baghdad. The synagogues served the same purpose that government public schools and corporation-financed colleges and seminaries serve the in the West.

David Sassoon, head of the Sassoon Company, placed his eight sons in charge of the various major opium exchanges in China. Probably, the lion's share of the profits went to Queen Victoria's British government. By 1836, the drug trade had caused widespread addiction in China's coastal cities.

The Manchu Emperor ordered it stopped. A campaign was launched against opium and chests of Sassoon opium were seized and destroyed. David Sassoon called for British protection which triggered the Opium Wars. The British Army attacked China's cities and blockaded her ports. The war ended in 1839 with "The treaty of Nanking" guaranteeing protection to the Sassoon opium- monopoly.

Freed from restraint, opium addiction in China again spread like a plague, again forcing the emperor to intervene. Sassoon called for British Army protection a second time. This caused the "Second Opium War," 1858-1860. Peking was besieged. The British sacked and burned the temples and other sacred shrines in the city. The "peace treaty" of 1860 gave the British even more trade rights for its opium trade. It now encompassed seven-eighths of China and produced unbelievable wealth for its operators. The opium trade resulted in many British politicians and opium operators becoming unbelievably wealthy - we can still see their family yachts anchored off Monaco.

China was also forced to cede to England Hong Kong along with large sections of Amony, Canton, Foochow, Ningpo and Shanghai. However, to avoid a revolt by Europe's Saxon nation, the British government Cartel leaders forbade its opium dealers introducing the product into Europe!²

Incidentally, Franklin D. Roosevelt's fortune was inherited from his maternal grandfather Warren Delano, who, in ² Queen Victoria knighted Albert Sassoon in 1872. Edward Albert Sassoon married Aline Caroline de Rothschild in 1887 linking the Sassoon mercantile franchise with Rothschild's banking franchise.

1830, was a senior partner of Russell & Company. It was their merchant fleet which carried Sassoon Company opium to China and returned with tea. In 1851, his daughter Sara married James Roosevelt - the father of Franklin Delano Roosevelt - American ITC administrator.

The Chinese see the drug trade as a devastating type of warfare and its owners and operators as belligerents.

4 - Matsumoto - Aum Shinrikyo

The 2004 Council on Foreign Relations publication had an article on the Japanese Aum Shinrikyo which HR touched on in earlier issues:

"Aum Shinrikyo is a doomsday cult whose teachings are based on tenets borrowed from Hinduism and Buddhism. Its more benign activities include yoga, meditation, and breathing exercises. But at the center of the group's belief is reverence for Shoko Asahara, Aum's founder, who teaches that the end of the world is near. The police say that their nerve gas attack against the general population is the cult's way to hasten the apocalypse."

Aum Shinrikyo became known in 1995 when its members released deadly sarin nerve gas into the Tokyo subway system killing a dozen people and sending more than 5,000 to hospitals. The attack showed how easy it is for a small groups with limited means to wage chemical warfare.

The agent used was sarin. Sarin, both liquid and gas, is a highly toxic nerve agent 500 times more toxic than cyanide gas. Dangerous to make, the gas can still be produced by a trained chemist with publicly available chemicals.

Aum recruited young university graduate scientists and put them to work developing biological and chemical weapons.

One of their first attacks was in 1994 which killed 7 people. After the larger 1995 subway attack it was discovered that Aum had stockpiled hundreds of tons of chemicals destined to be made into enough sarin gas to kill millions. The cult had even procured a helicopter to distribute the gas.

Members took the sarin gas in liquid form in lunch boxes and drink bottles and placed the containers in the subway. They punctured the containers with sharpened umbrellas and walked away. The results were spectacular.

Aum also experimented with biological agents, including anthrax and botulism. These biological attacks failed because the germs used were not sufficiently virulent.

We remember that in WWII Japanese willingly stepped into Bakka rocket bombs, were bolted into human torpedoes, and flew Kamikazi planes on one-way trips to destroy their enemy along with themselves. We remember that when hope of victory was lost on the battlefield the survivors committed suicide by the thousands. Many Westerners can't comprehend this mindset.

The Japanese are not alone in this. There are stories about Chinese acting in a similar manner, and daily headlines chronicle ongoing Iraqi and Palestinian human bombs that destroy both the bombers and their enemies. This self-destructive aspect is found in many cultures, and many individuals of these cultures have been brought to live in Western lands.³

3 This revives the discussion that man brings life and creativeness and humans bring death and destruction.

5 - Kevin Mitnick - Hacker

Kevin Mitnick is the renowned computer hacker used as an example of tomorrow's hero. He is the one who played the mischief with American business computers and found no difficulty breaking into government computers. This top spot no doubt might be occupied today by the 16 year old Austrian hacker who more recently shut down the computers of eastern Europe - and in so doing largely shut down eastern Europe itself.

The government has hired many of the best hackers and has used them to break into the systems of Islamic militants to destroy, change, or plant bugs. However, the number of computer viruses created by the private sector are expanding at an unbelievable rate and can be used against the state and the Cartel by any number of malcontents.

It is the belief of some computer experts that in the future entire finance, manufacturing, or transport of a country will come under computer attack. Entire countries could become immobilized by hackers and their computer viruses. In essence, an individual, or a handful of people, can conceivably hold entire countries, or even groups of countries, for ransom.

The Weak's Last Ditch Defense

In the Chinese opinion, America, in the process of conditioning its people for constant war, instilled in them the erroneous belief that its worldwide military escapades would take place without casualties. This, the Chinese believe, is its weak point.

The counter to this strategy one must do whatever is necessary to kill as many American soldiers as possible. War must be waged - not to gain strongpoints, strategic positions, or tactical advantage - but simply to kill individual American soldiers. This will turn American public opinion against the war.

It may be necessary to suffer many casualties to inflict one single American casualty, but if it will cause the Americans to withdraw - its worth the expenditure. The Vietnamese suffered more than two million casualties while inflicting 58,000 American casualties. As this rate of "wastage" the war could continue indefinitely because Vietnamese births were still greater than their deaths.

The strategy worked and resulted in Vietnam's victory.

The casualty ratio in Iraq at this writing is 1,000 American soldiers and 100,000 Iraqi men, women and children. Of course, the later figure includes executed puppet collaborators whom the U.S. has been unable to protect from Iraqi vengeance.

Psychological Warfare - Deception

No one person was given the hero status for media psychological warfare used by one state against another, against individuals, and against entire populations. Such warfare is pervasive and takes place all the time.

Programming Captive Populations

Since the writers of the Chinese intelligence report are themselves members of a captive population they did not delve deeply into the programming of captive populations.

Saxons remember that the media icon Walter Cronkite once said;

"My job is not to tell the truth, I am an opinion molder."⁴

⁴ Crusade for Christ, Special Message For 2002. Col Jack Mohr.

The reason Cronkite said this is because people can think only in terms of the information they have in their heads. There is no way to think any other way. The information one receives determines one's reaction.

To provide Cartel-approved information, it is logical that their media "redefine" existing information and current events. Attitudes can be changed by merely changing definitions.

Non politically-correct words may be re-interpreted and branded as "pre-judging", or, "prejudice". The media defines "prejudice as bad - which can lead to the ridiculous: Pre-judging the danger of one's children playing in traffic is guilty of prejudice."

The Cartel's media redefines a sodomite, first as a homosexual, then redefines the homosexual as someone who is gay, and at the last a "gay" is redefined as being just another normal person with a "different lifestyle".

Sodomite to "normal" in three steps.

Changing the language of captive populations causes them to lose the ability to communicate with each other. They know that they are being "dumbed-down" but that does not stop the process.

Remember the TV sitcom about 3 white women living in the city, one with a pronounced Southern accent, and there was a black male. The black was just there. The reason for his being there was never given. He had no job. He didn't make sexual advances against the white women - he was just hanging around making an occasional wise-crack. He was always around. One became conditioned to seeing him. He wasn't doing any harm. Why was he there?

The Cartel was conditioning its captive Saxon nation to see blacks in the company of white women as being a thing acceptable - something considered very much against the WORD in days' past.⁵

Whites were taught traditionally that white women in the company of blacks were simply Lawless whores. The program was meant to change this attitude. It worked.

Now, the conditioning has progressed to the point that almost every TV advertisement and program has a white woman in company with a black male. TV judges and police chiefs are black - a great many of them black women.⁶

Even casual documentaries that show white women speaking have a shadowy black male lurking in the background. Conditioning. It works! The result is that we now see white women with mulatto children.⁷

This is psychological warfare. "Conditioning warfare". Everybit as deadly to a nation as atomic warfare. It is warfare being waged against a nation the Cartel has marked for destruction.

But, it has a downside - a downside which we will soon touch on.

5 "When they heard the Law, they excluded from Israel all the mixed multitude." Neh:13:3; "Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up." Matt 15:13; "Let them marry ... only to the family of the tribe of their father." Numbers 36:6; "Thou ... shall go ... to my kindred, and take a wife." Gen 24:3,4

6 "Thou mayest not set a stranger over thee." De 17:15; "As for my people ... women rule over them." Isaiah 3:12

7 "Let all them of our habitations that have strange wives come ... till we turn away the wrath of the Lord from us for this matter. ... All these had taken strange wives they put them away with their children." I Esdras 12-13, 36: "Thus ye shall not do from now on and to eternity to defile a daughter of Israel." Jubilees 30:5

Combination Warfare

In addition to the weapons and techniques mentioned, Chinese intelligence points out that by combining weapons the number of types of warfare that can be used are without number.

Combination warfare uses electronic warfare, space age, conventional, propaganda, hacker, smart weaponry, air, sea, economic, assassination, psychological, terror, alliances, betrayal - all combined against one or more targets. Events have shown that the magnitude and diversity of such attacks can paralyze a country.

The Downside

The downside is that almost all of these techniques of destruction are also available to the public, including miniature nuclear devices, biological agents, internet propaganda, newsletters, religion, assassination, terror, betrayal, hacking, etc. All formerly state monopolies can be obtained "over-the-counter".

Now, any disgruntled group regardless of its size can use most of these same methods and can inflict damage far beyond what one would expect from its numbers.

The Cartel has spread over the world like a great blanket and is now overextended without knowing how to extricate itself. The weapons it used in this conquest have been miniaturized, simplified, and are available to injured nations longing to avenge themselves and escape Cartel captivity.

Islam is now fighting to extricate itself. The daily news reports their successes. American soldiers are assassinated, as are puppet politicians and religious leaders. Pro-American media figures - from owners to writers and ordinary newspaper boys, puppet TV and radio announcers, station owners and operators - all are targets. The available targets also include puppet police and military, oil lines, allies, and trucks. The U.S. has assumed rule over Iraq but is unable to protect its hired help who are suppose to make it all work. It can't protect them because there are too many targets.

Each time one of these targets is hit it is seen as a victory for Islamic "freedom-fighters". Fighting in the midst of their destroyed cities and surrounded by heaps of their dead they see victory after victory. One hundred thousand Iraqis are dead but they have killed more than 1,000 American soldiers - and have punished thousands of Iraqis who have aided America. Targets are everywhere - and the invaders can't defend them! There are too many.

Other captive nations are beginning to stir. They see who the victors are in Iraq and Palestine today. The Chechenians, Basque and Kurds have picked up their tempo. The Cartel has inadvertantly given the nations of the world the weapons - how long will it be before they use them?

Conclusion

The Sons of Esau strive to build their ancient Tower, brick by brick, one that will rise to heaven and rule the world.

Serpents who rule Esau see beyond this. They have quietly imported hostile nations from far lands and mingled them together and incited them, one against the other, preparing for that day - that final day.

The Serpent sees beyond Esau's Tower to a place where everything is smoking ruin - all is burned - leaving only Nirvana. Nothing! The destruction and end of all things.

We who follow the WORD see things differently. We see the nations of the world - instead of destroying each other in a mad orgy of blood and self-destruction - agreeing to part from each other. We see the fulfillment of prophecy:

"They will each turn to his own people, and each one will flee to his own land. Anyone who is found will be thrust through, and anyone who is captured will fall by the sword. Their little ones will also be dashed to pieces." Isaiah 13:14-16

The WORD says that in the days to come - one's only safety will be with his own people. Each nation must separate from all other alien nations around him. This is the day God promised.

"Israel then shall dwell in safety alone." Deut 33:28

Letter From S. Africa by K.J.

Dear Mr. Hoskins: A white farmer next door heard cattle bellowing and it upset him. He went to find out what was wrong and found the cattle thirsty and the dam empty of water. He asked the blacks the reason and was informed that the water pump was broken and their cattle were thirsty. He went home and got tools and returned to mend it. To his surprise the blacks wanted payment for their work holding the tools while he fixed their pump. Such is life in the new S. Africa.

Saturday, most of our farm pastures were burnt down. We protected the part around the homestead. We never discovered who set the fires.

The newest Black-on-white violence is to jab an AIDS infected needle into the arms of white drivers when they stop for traffic lights.

It appears that the Cartel had done it again - the split within the right-wing HP party appears to be permanent. The liberals within the party seized the newspaper and now S. Africa's right-wing is without a voice. However, the true situation in S. Africa is beginning to get out on the internet. Thank goodness - it's about time!

The story making the rounds is that farm murderers are directed from the ANC head office and that President Mbeki receives money to fund his anti-white war from Brazil and Haiti.

Sincerely, K.J.

SODOMITES IN LYNCHBURG

Starting in 1999, Lynchburg's News & Advance ran glowing front page articles in support of Rev. Mel White's sodomite activities in Lynchburg and his acceptance by various churches and groups. His "Gay Pride" rallies at Riverside Park were well advertised by favorable newspaper coverage. The first sodomite rally was covered in HR #336.

On October 7, 2004, hidden back on page C2, is the smiling picture of Rev. White with the announcement that there would be no sodomite rally this year on being "Out and About in Lynchburg". The right honorable Reverend Melvin White complained "Unfortunately our attempts to assemble peacefully were seriously interrupted by religious protesters carrying signs and shouting threats, frightening our sisters and brothers back into their closets."

Rev Mel White

He also complained that sodomite groups from local colleges couldn't believe the treatment they received. "They were just shaken by those people screaming at them," he said.

"I had no idea how primitive this town was in terms of its acceptance," said White who moved here from California with his boyfriend. "There is not one open and affirming church in the city," White said.

The N&A on Oct 25, 2004, posted another letter signed by both White and his boyfriend. In this letter he thanked his allies from the First Christian Church on Rivermont and the Unitarian Church on Court Street and certain other "outed" integrationists.

Chapter 363

RECONSTRUCTING CONQUERED STATES

ONE: Recently, before a major football game, a TV segment showed a beautiful naked blond standing before a big black football player asking him for sex. She jumped into his arms and he carried her off.

TWO: A newsreel showed the Japanese arriving on board the battleship Missouri to sign the surrender document ending WWII. Americans soldiers and sailors stood neatly on parade. The Japanese delegation came up the ladder onto the deck and American sailors surrounded each member of the Japanese delegation and doused them with delousing powder before allowing them to sit at the surrender table.

THREE: Saddam Hussein was captured. The news displayed a close-up of him - fatigued, disheveled and dirty. His mouth was being held open like that of a horse having its teeth inspected.

Each of these media events was staged. The object was to produce an attitude in the viewer. Study your response; imagine why the establishment wished you to have the emotional responses each event produced. If you have the ability to do this - you see the world as it is - a world at war!

Surrender Flags

History books show pictures of British ships captured by Americans during the Revolution. The victorious Americans flew their flag above the conquered British flag which showed that the vessel had been captured. Flying the victor's flag above that of the conquered enemy is an ancient symbol of conquest.

During "reconstruction" the only flag permitted was that of our conquerors. Gradually, the Virginia flag crept out of the closets and once again began to be seen again. Then, the chain stores of the international merchant began flying the conqueror's flag exclusively. Local merchants and local governments found that good things came to those who flew the conqueror's flag over the Virginia flag. Those flying the Virginia flag exclusively got nothing. It meant that if you were "unreconstructed" - a rebel.

To this day, in most places in Virginia, the US flag is flown above the Virginia flag on the same flag pole - the conqueror's sign of victory. Most Virginians have now been conditioned to seeing it this way.

Survivors See Things Differently

When I was a boy we played war in the Monkeyville trenches. They were real trenches. Our guns were wood. We had real ones at home. Our fathers took us out and let us practice shooting them. We boys who played war at Monkeyville had wooden guns.

The war had been over for a long time, but it seemed like yesterday. There were graves around. Government people came sometimes and dug up bones and carried them away.

English basements remained where houses once stood before the Yankees burned them. English basements are only half in the ground. We stood on the basement floor and shot Yankees from out of the basement windows with our wooden guns.

At night before bed, we sat staring into the fire for an hour or so and listened to Granddaddy, Grandmother, Great-uncle Roy, Uncle Alex and Uncle Thompson talk. There was only the flickering light from the fireplace and smell of burning wood. My job was to keep the woodbox full. Everybody worked. I brought in kindling, fed the chickens, helped slop the hogs - the buckets were real heavy - brought in the cows and pumped water for them, and was first up in the morning to light the water heater and kindle the wood stove. I was seven. I had been taught a lot of things by the time I was seven.

I heard Kellyville stories. The Kellys are refugees from Kellyville at Kelly's Ford. It's only a name now. The town itself was shot to pieces in the fighting, looted, and never rebuilt. There are lots of places like that.

There were stories about black bands roaming the countryside after the War was over raiding farms - burning, killing, raping, stealing; they were protected by Federal troops garrisoned at Culpeper. Black soldiers, sheriffs and deputies pushed us off the sidewalks and made us walk in the streets. Sidewalks were "black-only". It was all real to me. I thought they were talking about "now" or maybe "yesterday". The blacks I knew were nice. I was told to treat them nice - but to remember the rule: "My black friends aren't your black friends and your black friends aren't my black friends."

I remember.

There were stories about cavalry and infantry fights on the turnpike up above where we lived in Culpeper. This was Mosby's country.

A few years before, when Uncle Thompson was my age, the school teacher visited to ask Granddaddy to make Uncle Thompson stop beating up children at school. Uncle Thompson beat them up because they said bad things about Yankees. The reason that Uncle Thompson beat them up was that "everyone knew" that when the Yankees learned that someone had said something bad about them they came and burned your house down. Some of the basements in the neighborhood had been burned down long after we had been "liberated" and the fighting had ended. Uncle Thompson thought the Yankees still did things like that.

Something else: the war didn't last from 1861-1865 like the school books said. It lasted from 1861-1876. 1876 was when the last occupation troops left - after having stolen everything we had. That's what I was told.

There was a mass grave up the road. Hundreds of our boys are buried there in one big grave. The fight must have been considerable. The monument lists the regiments, some of the names, and lots of "unknowns", but there is no marker on the turnpike where the fight took place. So many fights, so many dead people, so much destruction. Other children played "cowboys and indians" - we played "Yankees and Rebels". We drew straws. The losers had to be the Yankees.

KKK

Around the fireplace, the KKK was discussed. None of my family in Culpeper belonged that I know of, although, being a secret organization, there is no way I could really know. Everyone else bragged that their fathers and grandfathers belonged - along with preachers, congressmen, senators, judges, everyone. I'm talking about the '20s Klan. The history of the Klan was confusing. Uncle Alex explained it to me.

The first KKK was Southern - about 1867. It was a local police force to maintain some kind of order. Then, the Union occupation army fielded SWAT-type teams disguised in KKK regalia who committed atrocities so the establishment media could blame Southerners. They did this to justify anti-Southern laws being passed by Congress. They still do.

To try and stop the deception, General Forrest, the KKK commander, ordered the organization disbanded in 1868 or '69 - a year or two after it was organized. From then on the KKK became an exclusive federal government operation. There were intermittent battles between Southern vigilance-committee police and the federal KKK. In the 1870s, a cease-fire agreement was reached between Southern leaders and the federal government.¹

The 1920s revival of the KKK swept the entire country. There were about as many Klansmen in the North as there were in the South. To defeat this grassroots revolt, the government repeated what they had done in 1868 - they fielded a bogus KKK to commit crimes. The media worked this scam the same way they had worked it before. By the time WWII ended only a few die-hards still belonged to the KKK organization which had now been made disreputable. The establishment is a good "false witness". They've been doing what they do for a long time.²

FBI Dirty Tricks

Knowing the background one should have no difficulty believing that the government does the same today as it did yesterday.

Feb 18, 2004 Washington, PA --- "The FBI set up a phony Ku Klux Klan group and encouraged them to build bombs and acquire automatic weapons, according to the former FBI informant and leader of the ¹ The secret agreement between the South and the US government allowed Southern whites to remove blacks from public office. Black rulers had banned white European immigrants who were supposed to buy plantation land bought at tax sales. In return for being allowed to rid themselves of black rule, the carpetbaggers could keep the land they had stolen. The story is related in Vigilantes, Hoskins, 1991.

² "If a false witness rise up against any man to testify against him [that which is] wrong; Then both the men, between whom the controversy [is], shall stand before the LORD, before the priests and the judges, which shall be in those days; And the judges shall make diligent inquisition: and, behold, [if] the witness [be] a false witness, [and] hath testified falsely against his brother; Then shall ye do unto him, as he had thought to have done unto his brother: so shalt thou put the evil away from among you. And those which remain shall hear, and fear, and shall henceforth commit no more any such evil among you." Deut 19:16-20. "On February 11, 1976, the late Congressman Larry McDonald inserted evidence into the Congressional Record (pages E-617-619) documenting how various US terrorist groups were actually being funded and controlled by the federal government."

The 7/10/95 National Review reported: "The 1978 investigation implicated Rowe as an agent provocateur, and he was accused of helping plant the bomb that killed four Black girls in a Birmingham church in 1963. ... In 1990, an internal FBI file came to light which acknowledged that Rowe had led attacks on Freedom Riders, clubbing them with a lead- weighted baseball bat. The FBI paid the medical bills for Rowe..."³

"In 1979, at Greensboro, North Carolina, a combined group of Klansmen and Nazis were involved in a shoot-out with members of the Communist Workers Party, which resulted in five dead Reds. In the 1980 trial that followed, it was revealed that Bernard Butkovich, an agent for the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms (BATF) had infiltrated the Klan-Nazi group. Many witnesses from inside the Klan-Nazi group swore that on several occasions, before the shoot-out, Butkovich suggested a variety of illegal acts. Witnesses said that the BATF agent 'suggested the murder of a rival klan leader, urged members to buy equipment to convert semi-automatic guns to fully automatic weapons, and offered to procure explosives (including hand grenades). ..." (7/15/80 Washington Post)(Aug 1995, Youth Action News, PO Box 312, Alexandria, Virginia 22313)

The above is nothing more than a continuation of the stories I heard as a boy - government policy manipulating public opinion to justify oppressive legislation.

The Andersonville Guilt Trip

In school I was taught about "Andersonville" - the Southern prison where so many Yankee POW's died. After the War thousands went on record saying how badly they had been treated. With so many people stepping forward to testify - the stories must be true.

³ The Cartel media is still using this bombing incident in which the feds were involved to generate anti-Saxon legislation and create racial strife.

Later I learned that Yankee POWs were given extra compensation if they could show that they suffered ill treatment while prisoners in the South. When the word went out that they were going to be paid - thousands lined up to qualify. Their perjured testimony went into the country's permanent record and I heard it regurgitated for the 10,000th time just last week on TV. Andersonville! I've had it rubbed in my face all my life. If I'm not mistaken Saxon-Germany was forced to pay each "Holocaust Survivor" who testified how awful he had been treated. When the word got out about the money, armies of "survivors" emerged to file claims. I have heard that there are more Jew claimants than Jews living in German occupied Europe.

Prisons

Prisons for POWs? Prisons are unLawful. It's a form of kidnapping.⁴ Yankees and Southerners exchanged prisoners as required by the WORD - that is - before Mr. Lincoln stopped it.

Jackson captured 11,000 Yankees at Harpers Ferry and paroled them. As they marched past on their way home carrying their baggage and belongings with them, Jackson rode by on the way to his next battlefield - and they cheered him - again and again they cheered him.

There's something else. Because of Mr. Lincoln, the death-rate among Confederate prisoners in Northern prisons was greater by half than the death rate of Northern prisoners in Southern prisons. Mr. Stanton himself admitted in 1866 that of 270,000 Northern prisoners in Southern prisons, 22,576 died - a rate of 8.3%. There were only 220,000 Confederate prisoners in Northern prisons but 26,436 died - a rate of 12%.⁵ There is an obvious reason the media relates only one side of the story.

One's World View Influenced

My upbringing has influenced the way I think. I have no difficulty believing that almost 10% of the S. African Boer population - mostly women and children - died in British Concentration camps - and those who killed them are making the same excuses the Cartel apologists are making in America. The ITC media continue to "accuse" while the ITC continues doing what they did. Today, they continue killing S.African whites using their black agents. The same forces who conducted the war against us in the South, and are still doing it, also conducted war against our Saxon kinsmen in S. Africa - and are still doing it.

Neither do I have trouble believing James Bacque's documentation in his monumental "Other Losses" showing the American idol, General Dwight Eisenhower's policy of dealing with German POWs by killing more than a million of them after the war was over. It's easy to kill disarmed prisoners. They killed our people the same way. Nor do I have difficulty believing that Franklin Roosevelt joked with Stalin about exterminating these very same German-Saxon prisoners before it happened, AND, that Stalin - the Turk - whom liberals trained to be a Christian priest, slaughtered 30,000,000 prisoners - most of them Russian-Saxons. Again, it's easy! AND, that Mao slaughtered 70,000,000 of his own countrymen. Based on what happened to us I find it easy to believe that the leopard doesn't change his spots.

Here are other things I learned:

Shaking Hands

Shaking hands is really something new. Granddaddy was old fashioned - he was one of many who wouldn't shake hands. He said people shook hands to seal business deals and that his word did that - just as a kiss is supposed to seal a contract between a boy and a girl. Years ago, merchants shook hands to seal business contracts. Granddaddy didn't have to - his word was good enough.⁶

I remember one time that granddaddy shook hands and made a contract. A man who had once worked for him stole from him. For more than 30 years granddaddy didn't see or speak to the man when he passed him on the streets of Culpeper Court House. This must have affected the thief terribly over the years since Culpeper is a small town.

Granddaddy and the man grew old. One day granddaddy walked up to the man and held out his hand and said, "Jim, we are both getting old. Let's let bygones be bygones." They shook hands. A new contract was made.

⁶ "Be not one of them that strike hands (handshake, guaranteeing performance, make trade agreement), or one of them that are sureties (give a guarantees) for debt." Pr 22:26

Drinking

When he was young, granddaddy got into some bad company and drank.⁷ Grandmother didn't approve but she understood. People were poor. Times were hard. Raising a big family, feeling responsible for his extended family and for neighbors were hard.

When I knew Granddaddy he didn't drink. Years later I saw a note in the family Bible that said "I promise not to take a drink for five years." signed, Richard Thomas Kelly. He had made a contract with God and never drank again. His word was his bond.

Church Going

Granddaddy wouldn't go to church. He respected the WORD but not preachers. I don't remember seeing him smile often. Of course he was old when I knew him, but he was approachable by everyone.

The town of Culpeper came to him with their needs and disputes. His advice was Lawful and just. I was nine when he died. There were so many people there that they all couldn't get in the house and it was a big frame house on the Sperryville Turnpike. The flowers had to be taken out into the yard to make room for people inside, and there they took up almost the whole front yard. I remember it was spring because the colored people who came all brought bunches of jonquils. Lots of them. The cavalcade to the cemetery was still leaving the house when the hearse reached the Masonic cemetery where grandmother's ancestors were buried and where he was to be buried.

⁷ "It is not for kings to drink wine, nor princes strong drink: lest they drink and forget the law, and pervert judgment." Pr 31:4-5

My grandfather's life had little to do with church-going and everything to do with obedience to the WORD.⁸

The Conquered Southern Nation

From what I have seen the war did not end either in 1865 or 1876. The war has never ended. The federal occupation troops are still here - just less visible.

The government told us that they were going to provide us with with government payrolls which would bring prosperity to our stores, cities and towns - "a real blessing". That's what they told us.

This "blessing" was the result of having federal occupation troops, supposedly withdrawn in 1876, moved into permanent forts built at strategic places throughout the conquered Southland.

Military engineers, men who plan such things, bragged to me how admirably these forts were placed - placed to prevent uprisings by a captive Southern-Saxon-nation demanding the return of their governments, businesses, churches and farm-kingdoms.

Today, permanent forts guard the Southern-Saxon. They are even named for Southern heroes - Forts A.P. Hill, Lee, Pickett etc.: How thoughtful! How considerate! Even the rebellious "copperhead" part of Yankee-Saxon-Pennsylvania is honored by having Fort Indiantown Gap built in its midst - to furnish "prosperity" to this formerly "Copperhead" region with a military payroll - and it still isn't over. Over 500 government men with their families arrived and settled in Eric Rudolf's hometown to make sure that his discontent did not spread to his neighbors. Only now are some of these families being withdrawn. There is too much at stake for the Cartel to take unnecessary chances with malcontents.

Saxon-Heroes

Captive conditioning never ends. Schools in the South were once named to honor her heroes. I went to Robert E. Lee Junior High School. The building still stands but the name has been changed. The elementary school I went to was named for Lynchburg's two boy generals killed in the War - "Garland- Rodes". That name too has been changed.

Dixie

Once, every football game began with a prayer, the band played "Dixie", there were wild "rebel-yells", and the game was on. No more. Dixie has been banned. Children grow up not knowing "Dixie".

Singing

Before reaching the age of 16, I could field-strip a machine gun blindfolded at Fishburne Military School. Our Cadet Corps sang as it marched. Even before that, when I was 13, we drilled at Robert E. Lee Jr.-Hi. We sang there as well. A nation sings.

In my teens, double-dating was the thing. We would get a party together and go to the top of Tobacco Row Mountain where there is an ancient spring. We would eat hotdogs around a fire - tell stories and sing. New songs, old songs; songs that our fathers sang, war songs, funny songs. A nation sings.

Today, the Saxon doesn't sing. Our conquerors have imported alien nations and alien music. This has caused confusion. Destroying a nation's music destroys its soul. Our people no longer sing.

Placing Blame

I was raised in a suffering prostrate South and raised on family stories of injury, insults and murder. I have seen continuous unending hate directed against my people. Continuously, relentlessly I watch politicians attack us, preachers lie to us, and merchants who will do anything to wring another dime from us. Helplessly, before my very eyes I have watched the descent of and dismantlement of my beloved Southland. This very thing was done earlier to my ancestors back in Scotland, England and Ireland - and we are still here.

I can't blame Yankees - most Yankees lost their land before the war. Mr. Lincoln was unable to fill the ranks of his armies from a reluctant white population four times larger than that of the South. He received so little support that he was forced to recruit almost half a million men in Europe with promises of cash and land. This was almost as many as the South had in all its armies. He also recruited nearly 200,000 blacks.

Perhaps we could blame Mr. Lincoln. But, who put him in office? If he was someone's surrogate - the people he ruled were also surrogates - made that way by force. Their reluctance to support the war is revealed by Northern prisons being filled with Northern political prisoners.

Should we blame the British - the ones who invaded us twice and then S. Africa - the country that instigates wars? British merchants benefited - but not the English people, and certainly not the Scots and Irish who served in the British army to keep from starving back home . The British - perhaps they too are surrogates.

Like the South and S. Africa, Germany has also been treated worse than any Saxon nation in recent memory, besides the Saxons of Russia. But, all Saxons everywhere - from Scandinavia, Europe, S. Africa, America to Australia are receiving the same treatment - different in degree only.

Blame the Jews? It's easy. Lots of people do. Everything they do irritates someone. Is it possible that they too are surrogates - protected to do "their thing"?

If not Jews - who then is calling the plays?

I'm going to tell you another story that might help pull this together.

The New York Whipping

I went to NY on business and took two of my children with me to see the sights. I had worked on Wall Street years before. We were in the lobby of the Waldorf Astoria when my 12 year old red-headed daughter, 'Becca, began acting up. She figured that because people were all around she could get away with being disobedient.

The Law states:

"He that spareth his rod hateth his son: but he that loveth him chasteneth him betimes." Pr 13:24⁹

I took my belt off right there before God and everybody, and gave her a whipping. A lot of people stopped what they were doing and watched. When I finished, you could hear a pin drop. Then, one person clapped, and then everyone clapped, a real round of applause. My daughter was good as gold for the rest of the trip.

If you do today what I did back then, the authorities will put you in jail. Why? Because there's another law being enforced in the land instead of God's Law;

"Hindu children are always treated with great respect and awe, for one does not always know who they are. They may be incarnations of a grandmother, grandfather, aunt or uncle, dearly beloved mother, sister, brother, respected father, a yogi or rishi returned to flesh to help humankind spiritually. ..." Subramuniyaswami, Sivaya, (WWW.Hinduism Today)

The Hindu trade-religion rules the land. That's why you can't spank disobedient children. This is also the reason for the anti- "capital punishment" movement. Death is the punishment required by the WORD for murder and rape. If you put someone to death it might be your grandmother, grandfather, aunt or uncle, mother, brother or father.

Since Hindu law is the basis for the Admiralty law now enforced in the West - it is logical to assume that our masters are Hindus - and we, the Saxons of the world, while being told how free we are, are actually being digested in the belly of the beast.

The Cartel media-presentation of the blond and the black at the beginning was to humiliate, cause hopeless and to make us hate blacks; the Jap humiliation was to make Japs despise Saxons; the Hussein humiliation was to make Islam despise Saxons. All this is being done to separate us from potential allies who would have supported us in the coming war. The on-going suppression of the WORD, and its replacement with Hindu trade-law is done to separate us from God the WORD - thereby destroying our will to resist.

Unfortunately for our enemies, the WORD which is our God, has a plan for this also. The word "stubble" should ring a bell! If it doesn't - you've got homework to do.

S. African Observation

Dear Mr. Hoskins: Thank your for your interesting HR about "Constructive Friction". That is exactly what is happening in our country, and of course also in many other countries including the USA.

What is very interesting as far as our situation is concerned is that the white liberals who helped the ANC into power and deKlerk's supporters who surrendered shamelessly are now leaving the country unsatisfied with the result of their own doing. Many of them were very naive do-gooders and others had guilty consciences about apartheid as a result of total ignorance and left-wing propaganda against the Afrikaner people. All nations in S. Africa had freedom and many more benefits under apartheid than under our present totalitarian state which can be called a Xhosa-dictatorship controlled by internationalists.

Most of the hundreds of traitors everywhere in Afrikaner society are known to us. They are mostly well paid and protected by the authorities. Most of them have been identified by the HNP Afrikaner political party and many operate openly without fear. Although some like Prof Johan Heyns have been killed by unknown snipers it is to our benefit that they should not feel threatened at this stage of our struggle.

It is also important that our God fearing Christians and white nationalists have informers behind enemy lines. My family and I were saved from a police raid by such a patriot.

At present, I am writing about our struggle. It is quite a big task as you would know. I experienced a lot that will be published hopefully to the benefit of the struggle that lies ahead. New insights of the treacherous role of politicians but especially the Afrikaner churches will be highlighted in my writings. With best wishes, S.J.

RKH: S.J. from the beginning distrusted DeKlerk and saw that he was betraying S. Africa. He tried to warn others - to no avail. His book should be interesting .
